DURING THE SUMMER that has just passed away, thousands of sufferers from dysentery and diarrhœa have been relieved by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, a medicine which is evidently destined to maintain a permanent place in the public estimation. Bilious diarrhœa is one of those diseases which baffle the skill of the physician. The medicine they administer to act upon the bowels never seems to reach the source of the evil. The difficulty is to get a remedy that will reach all the digestive organs, and give them simultaneously a rush of vigor to rid themselves of this disease. This problem is solved by the Bitters, which never fails to conquer the most stubborn cases. It is only fair to say that, during the season just closed, this medicine has achieved more cures than any other ever presented to the public, and during the fall, when that terrible scourge, the fever and ague, is so prevalent, the Bitters will gain fresh fame.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally everywhere. HYOTT & Co., Agents, 232 North SECOND Street, Philadelphia. 11-d&W

THROAT AND LUNG DISEASES.—Any form of disease of the Breathing Organs are at once relieved and permanently cured by the use of DR. J. R. STAFFORD'S OLIVE TAR AND IRON AND SULPHUR POWDERS advertised in this paper. The Olive Tar infuses Magnetism or vitality, which is retained and diffused through the system by the action of the Iron and Sulphur Powders upon the Blood. The Iron relumes the vital or life-giving forces in the circulation, and the combined Sulphur converts its waste or worn out particles into gases, which are expelled from the body through the pores. Send for a Pamphlet. Sold by all Druggists, and by HYOTT & CO., No. 232 North SECOND Street, Philadelphia. oc3-tf

HAIR DYE! HAIR DYE!!—Batchelor's LIQUID HAIR DYE is the original and best in the market. All others are mere imitations, and should be avoided if you wish to escape ridicule. D. APPLETON & CO., Nos. 443 and 445 BROADWAY, Will publish next week A NEW NOVEL, By the author of the "Heir of Redclyffe," entitled HOPES AND FEARS, Or Scenes in the Life of a Spinster. The many admirers of the writings of Miss Yonge will be glad to hear that a new work will be issued from her pen.

Extract from a Review of the "Heir of Redclyffe" and "Heartsease" in the North American Review:

"The Heir, from the moment it made a sensation here was the 'Heir,' and what a sensation it was! Referring to the remains of the tear-washed covers of the copies afterwards, we find it followed to the 'Eighth Thousand.' How many have been issued since by the publishers to supply the demand for now, and the places of uranium, we know not, and therefore we may safely not attempt to conjecture. Not individuals merely, but hundreds, sympathizing in a real part of tender-hearted young damsels—were plunged into mourning. With a tolerable acquaintance with fictitious heroes (not to speak of real ones), from Sir Charles Grandison down to the nursery idol, Carlton, we have little hesitation in pronouncing Sir Guy Morville or Redclyffe, Amyas, the most admirable we ever met with in story or out. The glorious, joyous boy, the brilliant, ardent child of genius and fortune, crowned with the beauty of life of early holiness, and overshadowed with the darkness of his hereditary gloom, and the soft and touching sadness of his early death. What a caution is there in what is wished." 1t
