CHARGED WITH TAMPERING WITH A WITNESS.—Yesterday afternoon, John Eardner was charged, before Police Magistrate Butler, at the Central Station, with tampering with a witness named Elam Arter, during the trial of Menasah Price, who was arrested upon the charge of counterfeiting.

The wife of Mr. Elam Arter testified that she was present during the trial of Price; Eardner, who was there, was talking to her husband; Eardner told her husband if Price was convicted he would be convicted also, and get ten or twelve years. The witness also testified that Eardner threatened Mr Foyer before that time, at Price's house. There was a detainer entered against her husband, who was then in prison. Her opinion was that Eardner did it.

David Jones, a brother of Mrs. Arter was next examined. He heard the accused threaten Mr. Arter, if he turned against Price

Eardner was obliged to enter bail, in the sum of $1,000, for a further hearing.

PURSEING HABITICS.—Yesterday afternoon George and Alice O'Mally, who were arrested upon the charge of stealing about one hundred dollars' worth of fancy toys from the store of Mr. Dunnig, at Eighth and Chestnut streets, as has been reported in the Press, had a further hearing before Police Magistrate Butler, at the Central Station. The accused waived a hearing, and were committed, in default of $1,000 each, to answer at court. Charles Saxon, who was arrested upon the charge of stealing a horse from Cecil county, Md, was held by the same magistrate for a further hearing on Friday.

THE MINUTE MEN OF '76.—The Minute Men of '76 were to have fired a salute, at noon yesterday, at Broad and Market streets. In consequence of the absence of several persons in the immediate vicinity of Penn Square, the arrangements were altered by Capt. Berry. The firing took place at Broad and Prime streets, at one o'clock. The programme was as follows: Thirty-three guns for General Jackson; thirty-three guns for the Union and the Constitution; thirty-three guns for Major Anderson; one big gun for General Scott; making one hundred guns in all.

A FIRE LAST EVENING.—The alarm of fire about half-past eight o'clock last evening was caused by the burning of a stable on Schuylkill avenue, between Shippen and Fitzwater streets.

The building was used as a boat shed by Robert McClelland. The loss is about $500.

A slight fire also occurred, about eight o'clock in the evening, at the house of Mrs. Burk, at Second and Dauphin streets.

WALKED OVERBOARD.—On Monday evening, a man named John Roan, residing at No. 1012 Locust street, walked overboard at Queen-street wharf, and narrowly escaped being drowned. He was rescued with great difficulty by Officer Shoekley. Within the last few years, some fifteen drowned bodies have been found at this wharf, which is unlighted, and has no guarding whatever to prevent persons from walking overboard after night.

IN TROUBLE.—A colored individual giving the name of Jacob Francis, about five feet in height, wearing a shawl and flesh-colored kids, was arrested yesterday afternoon upon the charge of attempting to steal from the store of Mr. Somers, Fourth street, above Chestnut. The accused was caught in the act of raising the window to take articles from the inside Alderman Beitler committed him to answer.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.—Yesterday morning about three o'clock, a man named Henry Berger was arrested for breaking into a room occupied by Sarah Gilmore, at No. 410 Shippen street. The woman, on waking, commenced to scream, when Berger threatened to kill her if she did not keep quiet. He was committed by Alderman Dallas to answer at court.

BROKE OUT AGAIN.—Yesterday morning, about nine o'clock, the lumber yard of Messrs. Maule & Brother, at Twenty-fifth and South, was again discovered to be on fire. An alarm was speedily given, and the flames subdued before they had gained much headway.

SLIGHT FIRE.—Yesterday morning, about three o'clock, a fire was discovered in one of the rooms of the Star Motel, at Broad street and Potter's lane Sixth ward. The flames were discovered in time to prevent any serious damage.

LIQUOR TO MINORS.—Yesterday morning, Francis France was arraigned before Alderman Shoemaker upon the charge of selling liquor to minors, at his residence, Delaware avenue and Laurel streets. He was held to answer at court.

ANOTHER CONTEST.—The examination of witnesses in the contested-election case of Kline vs. Verree, in the Third Congressional district was commenced yesterday morning at the office of Alderman Remick, in the Eleventh ward.

BILL IGNORED.—The bill charging Geo. W. Thomas, proprietor of the Sunday Atlas, with libel against Passmore Williamson, has been ignored by the Grand Jury, and the prosecutor ordered to pay the costs.

THE SCOTT LEGION paraded yesterday in honor of the Battle of New Orleans. They wore their new uniform, and make a fine martial and soldierly appearance which distinguished them in the war with Mexico.

CONCERT HALL.—This evening a grand instrumental and vocal concert will be held at Concert Hall, to subserve a charitable object. The performers are of the most popular character, and a full house is anticipated.

UNION MEETING OF YOUNG MEN.—A number of young men met last evening, at the County Court House, to express their views in favor of the Union and antagonism to secession. They will hold a further meeting this week.

THE NATIONAL GUARD, under Col. Lyle, paraded yesterday afternoon in their overcoat uniform. They made a splendid appearance.

Sunday School Missionary Meeting.

A Sunday School Missionary Meeting, in aid of the missionary work of the American Sunday-School Union, was held at Concert Hall on Monday evening. George H. Stuart, Esq., in the chair.

It may state that the first object of the Society is "to plant Sunday schools wherever there is a destitute population," and the second is "to prepare and circulate moral and religious publications."

The monthly reports of missionaries for the year 1860, shows the following aggregate of work done:

New schools organized directly by missionaries where none previously existed..... 2,091
Teachers pledging themselves to conduct these schools..... 14,225
Children enrolled at the time of organization.. 81,278
Schools visited and aided by the missionaries.... 2 701
Teachers laboring in these schools..... 30,355
Scholars in attendance..... 215,158

The chairman, after stating the objects of the meeting, said that he regretted that it should have occurred on an evening in the week upon which there were many of our churches open for worship, which, he said, was doubtless the cause of the comparative small attendance, the hall having been less than two-thirds full.

The exercises of the evening were commenced by singing the hymn commencing

"All hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall."

Prayer was then offered by the Rev. Mr. Childlaw, which was followed by another hymn and an ADDRESS BY MR. J. M. MASON, OF KANSAS.

The practical question was asked, he said, Can Sunday schools be successfully planted in the West? This he proceeded to answer by narrating his own experience in Kansas. He said that two-thirds of the children which he had gathered into the schools since he had been engaged in the work in that region had never before attended Sunday Schools at all.

He was gratified to say there were many in the West who were willing to engage in the Sunday-school work. The difficulties attending this labor of love were often spoken of here in the East; but he thought if our teachers were to witness the far greater difficulties in the far West they would look at their labors in the East through different glasses. The poverty of the West, and inability to educate children, he conceived was a great argument in favor of this missionary work; and in all his travels he had yet to find the first instance where, in any populated locality, the establishment of a Sunday school was not practicable. With regard to the permanency of these schools, when established, he said that out of forty inaugurated, within a certain district, twenty had continued prosperously, with the exception of two.

He next proceeded to consider the question whether these schools are resulting in our substantial good? and demonstrated the affirmative of this by narrating some cases in which the formation of these schools had been the opening door to the introduction of religious influences; others in which they had succeeded in building up cold and feeble churches, and fostering the spirit of revival. In short, they were the great disseminators of religious knowledge. Within the last two years, he had, in Kansas, organized forty Sunday schools, all, with five exceptions, in places where previously there had been no religious organizations. Outside of the cities of Leavenworth and Atchison, the proportion of schools in the Territory were nearly three union schools, to seven denominational ones.

With regard to the suffering and actual starvation in Kansas at the present time, he would say it was not necessary for him to say, anything beyond what was reported in our newspapers So far as he had seen these statements they were within, rather than outside the truth. He called attention to the fact in this connection, that somewhat explanatory of the state of things, that a large proportion of emigrants to Kansas are people who, from their habits, were not fitted for the work.

One half of the population of the town of Leavenworth were young men from the East, and the future of that country must to a great extent depend upon the character and lives of these young men. Thus as a presentative fact, was a powerful argument in favor of affording them the best educational and religious advantages.

After singing another hymn there was an

ADDRESS BY REV. B. W. CHILDAW, OF OHIO.

Mr. Stewart introduced this speaker as an old veteran in the cause.

He came forward greeted with app'ause. He thought this was a very great day, in view of the united prayers of Christians throughout the world that were then ascending in behalf of our Union.

Twenty years ago when he went to Ohio to commence his labors as a missionary in this work, it was the far West. Since then much had been done, but there was yet much land to be possessed. He hoped that the American Sunday-School Union had yet an important mission to perform in the work of home evangelization. As a general thing, he found the work more difficult to prosecute now in the neglected regions of that country, than when the population was new and less numerous. He gave some striking instances in confirmation of this. Some of his adversaries in Southern Ohio had been were invested with an almost romantic interest, and were stamped with a degree of real matter-of-fact experience, that it disabed Mr. Childlaw from preaching a man for his work. Some people might think this a homely and perhaps ineffectual means of doing good. Some years ago, he said, he was on a Mississippi steamboat down the Ohio, when a boat was overloaded. The boat was stopped by order of the captain, who was standing on the furricane deck: "Let Sam Johnson come down to the engine room." Sam appeared down to the almost exhausted man a filthy, unsightly hatch-cover, which was eagerly grasped, and the man's life was saved, which it would probably not have been but by waiting for the rawl. Now, this unsightly hatch-cover was to the drowning man, the Sunday school was to the unsaw in the newly-settled sections of our country. It was the best means that could be employed for preparing the way for the ministry of the Gospel by a regular ministry in due course of time. He felt that the Church was sadly derelict of duty in prosecuting the work, and on because the people did not properly appreciate the fact that children need salvation, and that they can be saved by bringing them to the Gospel in such a way that they can understand and receive it.

At the close of this address there was a collection taken up, and, after singing doxology, the audience were dismissed with a benediction.

REV. J. HYATT SMITH, of this city, is to deliver his eloquent and able lecture on "Manfulness," in the Baptist Church, in York, on Thursday evening of this week. We congratulate the citizens of York on this opportunity to listen to one of the most captivating popular lectures of this eloquent speaker. His picture of Luther at the bedside of melancthon is worth the price of admission, and we know no of innumerable gems of thought with which the lecture abounds.

"WHO ON WHAT IS JENKINS?"—We have been asked this question by a correspondent, and we will reply that Jenkins is a member of the Sansoucie parlies, fashionable weddings, &c., and who goes largely into gossiping detail. He would say, for instance, "Mrs. B. looked charming in a magnificent lilac silk dress, with Brussels lace trimmings; while Mr. B. looked superbly in an elegant dress suit which he had procured for the occasion at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Messrs. Rockhill & Wilson, Sixth and Chestnut street, above Sixth. We may remark, en passant, that the most splendid stock of garments for gentlemen and youths is kept constantly on hand at this deservedly popular establishment." This specimen of Jenkins' style will satisfy our readers that he can sometimes tell the sober truth.

GOLD ON SILVER, deposited in the Franklin Saving Fund, No. 152 South Fourth street, below Chestnut, Philadelphia, on and after January 8th, 1861, will be paid in gold or silver on demand, without notice. Bank notes deposited repaid in bank notes. All deposits bear interest from date.

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.—Twenty-five years of experience has demonstrated beyond the shadow of a doubt, that JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT excels every other remedy for the cure of ASTHMA,
BRONCHITIS,
CONSUMPTION,
COUGHS AND COLDS,
CROUP AND WHOOPING COUGH,
Respiratory Complaints,
AND ALL PULMONARY COMPLAINTS.

Hundreds of other remedies have been lauded and extolled to the skies, but having no virtues to sustain them, have sunk into oblivion, while JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT has continued increasing in popularity, until now there is scarcely an inhabitable part of the globe where it is not used and highly appreciated.

We following are a few of the many certificates lately received:

HAS BEEN TRIED FOR A COUGH OR COLD.

[Rev. Dr. Dowling, late pastor of the Fifth Baptist Church, Philadelphia, says:]

NEW YORK, June 1, 1860.

Dr. D. Jayne—Dear Sir: I have long known the virtues of your Expectorant, and have found it very useful on myself and family, when afflicted with Coughs or Colds. I think it one of the best remedies ever discovered for these maladies.

I am about to spend a year or two on a voyage to Europe, and should be glad to think of expending much of the changing skies of England without an overcoat or an inexhaustible supply of your Expectorant. Consider it sent. Please send me a dozen bottles by Express, and oblige. Yours truly, J. DOWLING,
Pastor of the Berean Baptist Church, New York.

A DESPERATE CASE OF ASTHMA.

[Rev. Dr. Jayne, of Philadelphia.]

BERLIN, CONN., Aug. 5, 1856.

Dr. D. Jayne—My Dear Sir: My wife has for several years been severely afflicted with ASTHMA; we tried before going there, to obtain your Expectorant for her, but without any satisfaction. Her physician, who is an able practitioner, recommended it to her very hopeless. I had tried all the patent medicines that I thought, and at last I was induced by the personal recommendation of a friend to purchase JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT and Sanative Pills. She had used but one bottle, when, to my great joy I saw her rapidly gaining in health and strength. She has now been well for some time entirely restored to health, and now enjoys that of which she was deprived for several years—good HEALTH. Your humble servant,
JAMES ARCHIBALD.

REV. B. V. R. JAMES,
Missionary Teacher in Liberia of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, writes:

"Your EXPECTORANT has served me with the most happy results, and I feel assured I never used an article of our country that produced more speedy and certain relief for the complaints for which it is recommended.

LONG-STANDING CONSUMPTION.

BARRISON COUNTY, Texas, March 1, 1859.

Dr. D. JAYNE—DEAR SIR: I had been afflicted for eight years with a hard and painful cough, and a severe pain in my breast, which was so severe that I was confined to my room for months, and could not be cured. In a conversation with one of your agents, I was induced to try your EXPECTORANT and SANATIVE PILLS. It took about our bottles of the Expectorant, and now enjoy better health than I have had for ten years. Yours, respectfully, &c.—GOODHEALTH. Your obedient servant, C. FAVERS.

BRONCHITIS ENTIRELY CURED.

DEAR SIR: For the space of three years I have been afflicted with Bronchitis, so much so that my church was obliged to relinquish the business of teaching vocal music altogether. The best physicians were unable to give me relief. I was induced to try your Expectorant, and I can say that I have received more benefit from it than from any other remedy I have taken. I cheerfully recommend your Expectorant to the sick. ANN TAYLOR, and after using it for a few weeks I was very much improved. I present my testimonial in order that others of disease of any kind, and I trust that the cure is a permanent one. REBECCA R. EWING.

FORTY YEARS' COUGH REMOVED

BUENA VISTA, Allegheny Co., Pa., Oct. 2, 1860.

I have used JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT in my family for many years, and find it to be the best remedy for coughs, colds, &c., that I have ever used. My daughter owes her life to its use. She had a cough for eight years and was given up by her physicians. She was restored to excellent health by the use of the Expectorant. ADAM S. JOHNSON.
