EXCITEMENT IN NEW YORK—MOVEMENTS OF ALBANY—FLAGS FLYING ON ALL THE PUBLIC BUILDINGS—SEVENTH AND SIXTY-NINTH REGIMENTS—WALL STREET ALL AGOG—NORK VESSELS LOADING WITH REMITTANCES AND STORES—COMMERCE OF THE PORT.

[Correspondence of the Press.]

NEW YORK, April 15, 1861.

To use a newspaper expression, New York is today in a state of "the wildest excitement" at the war news from the South, and the intelligence from Washington. Extras are out from all the morning papers, and the counting-rooms and sidewalks, in front, are crowded with people anxious to hear the news. The newsboys are reaping a harvest. There is stirring news, too, from Albany, the Legislature having passed a law appropriating $500,000 to arm the State. Governor Morgan sent a telegraphic despatch this morning to the city and State authorities here, requesting them to hoist the national flag on all public buildings in the city, which was promptly done, and the example was immediately followed by all the hotels, and by others, who have flag-staffs. All lower town the stars and stripes are floating, and at every corner gatherings of the people are to be seen talking over the great event of the day. On Saturday, some four hundred members of Col. Corcoran's (Irish) Regiment went over to East New York for drill in field manœuvres. The regiment has informed Governor Morgan that it is at his service. A paper is in circulation among the members of the Seventh Regiment, and book signed by about five hundred, offering their services to the Government.

Wall street is all agog. The bank-note currency of banks in the Confederate States is selling to-day at fifty per cent. discount, and goes with difficulty at that. The State stocks of Missouri declined 3 per cent., Virginia 2½ per cent., and Tennessee 2 per cent. In the active railroad stocks the decline was general, ranging from one to four per cent.

The steam transport Philadelphia has steam up, and will be off this afternoon for somewhere, laden with stores purchased by the Government. Large quantities of shot, shells, and ammunition of all sorts was put on board Saturday night, the boxes marked "Fort Pickens." Large quantities of provisions were also put on board. She is expected to take all the men that can be spared from Governor's Island and Fort Hamilton.

The commerce of the port for last week was not large—imports showing a steady falling off, and exports a fair increase. The figures for the week and since January 1st are as follows:

MEDICINAL.

PROF. WOOD'S
RESTORATIVE CORDIAL
AND BLOOD RENOVATOR

IS precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, invigorating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, purifies, and renovates the blood in its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world, of popular form, so as to be within the reach of all. No chemists and skilfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilirating in its effects, and yet it is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerfully tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. Such a remedy has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world, both by the thoroughly skilled in medical science, and also by all who have suffered from debility; for it needs no medical skill or knowledge even to see that debility follows in the wake of disease and lays the unguarded system open to the attacks of many of the most dangerous to which poor humanity is constantly liable. Such, for example, as Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Jaundice, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Irritability, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, Melancholy, Hypochondria, Nervous Sweats, Languor, Giddiness, and all that class of symptoms so painfully fatal if unattended to at first, called Female Weaknesses and Irregularities. Also, Fever Symptoms or Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, Scalding or Incontinence of the Urine, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs, Pain in the Back, Loins, and between the Shoulders, predisposition to slight Colds, Hacking and Continued Coughs, Consumption, Difficulty in Breathing, and indeed, we might enumerate many more skilled, but we have space only to add, it will not only cure the debility following Chills and Fever, but prevent all attacks arising from Miasmatic Influences, and cure the disease at once, if already attacked, and as it acts directly and persistently upon the biliary system, arousing the Liver to action, promoting, in fact, all the secretions and secretions of the system, it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon change of climate and water; hence all travellers should have a bottle with them, and all who should take a table-spoonful at least before eating, as it prevents costiveness, strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits: students, ministers, literary men, and all ladies not accustomed to much out door exercise should always use it. If they will, they will find an agreeable, pleasant, and efficient remedy against those ills which so destroy all womanly beauty; for beauty cannot exist without health, and health cannot exist while the above irregularities continue. Then, again, the Cordial is a perfect Mother's Relief. Taken a month or two before confinement, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety. Throw a mistake about it, this Cordial is all we claim for it. Mothers, try it!

And to you we appeal to detect the illness or decline, not only of your children, before it be too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go to the grave a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that it will not do for you, they, too, would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal, for we are sure your unwearying affection will unerringly point you to Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator, as the remedy, which should be always on hand in time of need. O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo.; and sold by all good Druggists. Price, One Dollar per Bottle.

Sold in this city by B. A. FAHNESTOCK & CO., Nos. 1 and 2 Temple Row, Corner of Market and TWELFTH and CHESTNUT Streets, and DYOTT & CO., 232 North SECOND Street.
