AFFAIRS IN THE SOUTH.

LYNCH LAW AMONG THE SECESSIONISTS.

[From the Mobile Advertiser.]

We have it from highly responsible authority that the rumors of which we have been cognizant for some time, are well founded, and that Captain William Jones, of the sloop Isabel, has terminated his brief, but notorious, career at the end of a rope. The account we hear is that, on the arrival of the Thursday evening cars at Scooba, a passenger on the train pointed out Jones as boasting to him of being the person who "provisioned Steamer," and stated that he was then on his way to Washington with despatches for Lincoln's Government. He was arrested, the proofs of his treason found upon him, and was executed on the spot by the enraged citizens

HOW THEY LIED ABOUT IT.

The Charleston papers took especial pains to represent that Major Anderson surrendered Fort Sumpter. The Courier, after a one sided account of the interview between Anderson and Wigfall, says:

"The brave commander of Sumpter then agreed that he would, unconditionally, surrender—*ex*ept to the terms of Gen. Beauregard, who, as was said by Col. Wigfall, 'is a soldier and a gentleman, and knows how to treat a brave enemy.'"

A GRAVE JEST.

The following beautiful advertisement appears in the Mobile Advertiser:

75,000 COFFINS WANTED.—Proposals will be received to supply the Confederacy with 75,000 Black Coffins

No proposals will be entertained coming North of Macon and Dixon's Ferry Depot.

JEFF DAVIS, Montgomery, Ala.

A SECESSIONIST NORTH.

Salmon Adams, the agent for the Virginia Secessionists for the purchase of arms at the North who appeared in Springfield on Friday, left town the same evening. Having that he met with a cool reception, he took the evening express train South. At Windsor Locks he was recognized and seen to go to the stove in the station, take a package of papers from his pocket, light a match and burn them. It was stated by those who saw him on Friday, that he had papers upon his person that would have got him into serious trouble.

INSPECTING THE DEFENCES.

Commodore Tatnall, accompanied by Brigadier General Lawton and other officers, took a steamer on Thursday and instituted a thorough examination into the condition of our military works, together with all the grounds and inlets that afford an approach to the city. Large bodies of men are at work, throwing up breastworks, planting cannon, &c., and every avenue of access will be in a complete state of defence in the course of a very few days. The main works are already finished and ready for the enemy, and with them we are safe against any expected attack; but it is the intention of General Lawton to guard us at every point, and thus foil any attempt that may be made.

HONESTY AT A DISCOUNT.

The following characteristic despatch was received by Mayor Hatch of Cincinnati, from the mayor of Fort Smith, Arkansas:

FORT SMITH, Ark., April 17, 1861.

TO THE MAYOR OF CINCINNATI: Cincinnati stops Arkansas guns Arkansas stops paying debts in Cincinnati. It is the act of a cowardly enemy to steal arms of an adversary.

D. M. JOHNSON, Mayor of Fort Smith.

NO PRIVATEERS TILL MAY 1.

A Southern paper says: "We have the best authority for saying that the Government at Montgomery have determined to issue no commissions authorizing reprisals until after the assembling of Congress (29th inst.) In order to obtain precedence, however, it is important that parties should file their applications and bonds immediately."

THE FIGHT ONLY HOPE.

A private despatch from Baltimore says, in reference to the position of the Union men: "Our only hope is that the Government will occupy the city with an overpowering force."

ILLINOIS PATRIOTISM.

Great unanimity and excitement exist in Illinois. The railroad lines have informed the Secretary of State that they will carry troops free. Tender of a State loan have been made from Chicago and Springfield alone of $600,000.

THE WHITE FLAG.

The white flag, reported to have been borne by the Massachusetts Regiment when it fought its way through Baltimore, was the regular Massachusetts standard. It is a flag of white silk, with the arms of the Union on one side and those of the State on the reverse. Massachusetts Spirit!—There no true with a mob of traitors.—Boston Journal.

THE BANKS.

The banks all over New York and New England are freely offering their money for the support of troops in the present emergency. In Ohio the city of Cincinnati offers the Governor $250,000 for that object.

THE IRISHMEN IN BOSTON.

A full brigade of Irishmen, 2,000 strong, is being organized in Boston.

THE GOVERNMENT FIRM.

A member of the Cabinet writes to a friend: "We intend to test the power of the Government to protect itself against treason; and if the people will sustain us we will crush out this rebellion."

ARRIVALS AT SAVANNAH.

Hon. John E Ward, late United States minister to China, and J L Locke, Esq, formerly editor of the Savannah Republican, have arrived at that city.

WAR ITEMS.

A SOUTHERN OFFICER ATTEMPTS TO TAKE HIS VESSEL FROM THE BROOKLYN NAVY YARD.

One of the most startling instances of secession impudence yet attempted, was tried on at the Brooklyn Navy yard on Monday night. The captain of the surveying vessel Varuna very quietly endeavored to move down the river with his vessel, having an idea, as it seemed, that he her "down South to Dixie." Whatever his real intentions were, the crew suspected that something was going on wrong, and succeeded in communicating their feelings to the commander of the receiving ship North Carolina A "line" was thrown across the stream; the Varuna unmanned, put out of commission very unceremoniously, and her ship's company transferred to "the Guards" She now lies empty in the stream. The men cheered lustily for the Union, and hooted down "secession" as they left the Varina.—New York Times.

A SECRETARY OF STATE IN THE RANKS.

Hon John Boyd, Secretary of State of Connecticut, has joined the Winsted Rifle Company as a private soldier

REASON IN NEW JERSEY.

The statute of New Jersey provides:

1 If any person or persons owing allegiance to this State shall levy war against it, or shall adhere to its enemies, or to the enemies of the United States, giving them aid or comfort in this State, or elsewhere, or by giving them advice or intelligence by letters or writing of any kind, or by messages, words, signs or tokens, or in any way whatsoever, in this state or elsewhere, or by procuring for them or furnishing to them money, or any kind of provisions, arms or warlike stores, within this State or elsewhere, or by bribery, or for reward, or promise thereof, or through favor, partiality, or tenderness, pleading or surrendering to them any town or fortified fortress, castle, garrison, troops, militia, citizen, or citizens of this State, or of the United States, or any ship, boat, or vessel of this State, or of the United States, or by giving them aid and comfort in any other way, and shall be thereof convicted or attainted on confession in open court, or on the testimony of two witnesses, to the same over act of the treason whereof he, she, or they shall stand indicted, such person or persons shall be adjudged guilty of treason, and shall suffer death.

MILITARY MOVEMENTS IN THE NORTH—THE FIRST SPECIAL MAN-OF-WAR COMMISSIONED FOR THE BLOCKADE.

On Monday the brig-of-war Perry completed her requisites for sea; on yesterday her flag was hoisted from the peak. At 12 o'clock a crew from the receiving ship was put on board, and the little craft manned over by Capt. Foote and officers. The ensign was sent up at once, and the vessel cleared, formally, in commission. The Perry is one of the three brigs on the Navy Register, is 280 tons burden, and was built at Norfolk, in 1843. She last served in South America with the Pacific guay fleet, of which Commodore Shubrick was the commander-in-chief. She took on board a very heavy armament of 12 guns, over 480 rounds of shot and shell, and the usual allowance of muskets, cutlasses, swords, pistols, and boarding pikes. Her destination is one of the blockaded portes—Mobile, we heard, but this is not certain. The officers of the Perry are: Commander Glassby; Lieuts. McDermott, Whiting, Bowers, (volunteer,) Dr. Guyon. The Perry sailed at 1 P. M.

The steamer Monticello, bought from Cromwell by the Government, arrived at the navy yard yesterday. Work commenced on her immediately.

The Monticello has gone around to the navy yard, to be altered into a gunboat.

Berths and stalls for horses are being put up on the Montgomery.—New York Times.

THE YACHTMEN MOVING.

We see that the members of the New York Yacht Club are to hold a meeting to-day for the purpose of considering what action they can take in conjunction with all other classes of patriotic citizens to aid the Government in this present crisis It strikes us that the Yacht Club can be of infinite service by tendering their first-class craft to act as despatch boats off the coast. Out of the fifty or sixty boats belonging to the club there are perhaps half a dozen fast-sailing schooners which are just the thing for this work. In sailing this craft cannot be outdone by anything afloat, and are able for any weather; they can run into shallow waters, where our vessels-of-war cannot enter, and in case of a blockade of the Southern ports would be of great value in conveying information and instructions from point to point. They are capable of carrying an armament sufficient for their own defence, and in every respect are precisely the kind of vessel which the Government needs at this moment. The Yacht Club, therefore, cannot do better than offer this class of yachts and their crews to the Secretary of the Navy for service as despatch boats.—N. Y. Herald.

THE SCHOOL-BOYS ALL ALIVE.

The boys of the Latin School have raised over $100 for the purpose of raising an American flag over their school house, but yesterday they concluded to devote their funds to the purchase of cloth, which will be made up by the girls of the Normal School, and then presented to the Boston Volunteers Mayor Wightman has granted the boys a holiday.—Boston Herald.

AN EDITOR OFF FOR THE WARS.

The senior editor of the Hartford Press, Mr. Joseph R. Hawley, has gone to support with his sword the cause he has defended with his pen. He gives his services in the capacity of first lieutenant of Rifle Company A, First Connecticut Regiment.

WEDDINGS AND WAR.

Two weddings were hurried on at Worcester, Massachusetts, on Wednesday, the bridegrooms leaving for the war immediately after the ceremony was performed.

MR. DOUGLAS ON GENERAL SCOTT.

Mr. Senator Douglas recently delivered a speech in Ohio, in which he said:

"Gentlemen, I have been requested by so many differentones to make a statement in response to the inquiries that are propounded to me that I do so as a matter of justice to an eminent patriot.

"I have been asked who her there is any truth in the rumor that Gen. Scott was about to retire from the American army. It is almost profaning to ask that question [Good, good,' and three cheers for General Scott] I saw him only last Saturday He was at his desk, pen in hand, writing his orders for the defence and safety of the American capital [Cheers] Walking down the street, I met a distinguished gentleman, a member of the Virginia Convention, whom I knew personally, and had a few minutes' conversation with him. He told me he had just had an interview with Lieutenant General Scott; that he was chairman of the committee appointed by the Virginia Convention to wait upon General Scott, and tender him the command of the forces of Virginia in this struggle.

"General Scott received him kindly, listened to him patiently, and said to him: 'I have served my country under the flag of the Union, for more than fifty years, and as long as God permits me to live, I will defend that flag with my sword; even if my own native State assails it' [Tremendous applause, and three more cheers for General Scott] I do not pretend that I am precisely accurate in the language used, but I know I am in the idea, and I have given the language as nearly as I could repeat it. I have felt it due to him and to the country, to make this statement, in view of the reports that have been circulated and the repeated inquiries made of me since my arrival here today"

Mr. Douglas retired amid applause, followed by three cheers for the Union.

The Troops at Mauch Chunk.

MAUCH CHUNK, Pa., April 22, 1861.

EDITOR PRESS: As a constant reader of your valuable and interesting journal, I beg leave to inform its numerous readers of what our mountain village has been doing in "these piping times of war" No sooner had the proclamation of the President been received than the Anderson Greys, (named in honor of the hero of Fort Sumpter), our crack military company, offered their services to the Government and were accepted. They opened a recruiting office, and by Friday, the 19th instant, had enrolled two hundred and fifty rugged sons of toil to go forth and battle for their country's rights, and, if needs be, to die in defence of the glorious stars and stripes Saturday the streets were thronged, and the soul stirring music of the fife and drum were heard in all directions. On Sunday the enthusiasm and excitement had not in the least abated. Crowds of people came from the surrounding coal villages to witness the Andersons, who were about to leave their quiet homes and loved friends at their country's call

At 3 o'clock P M. special service was held in the Presbyterian church for the military, at which appropriate addresses were delivered by Dr. Wythes and Rev G W McLaughlin, of the M. E. Church, and Rev J. A Hodge, of the Presbyterian Church These addresses were very impressive and solemn, and no doubt had a good effect upon those for whom they were specially delivered.

At the close of these interesting services three hundred Bibles and Testaments were distributed among the soldiers. The military then formed and marched to the square, where the ladies presented Company No. 1 with a magnificent flag. The presentation speech was made by C Albright, Esq, and the flag presented by Mrs Donnelly, and received on behalf of the company by Lieutenant J. D Bartolette. The company then saluted the colors, and, with uplifted hands, pledged their lives and sacred honors to defend and protect it to the death. This scene was very impressive, and will long be remembered by the citizens of Mauch Chunk At an early hour this morning our town was astir, and thousands wended their way to the depot to cheer, encourage, and bid farewell to the gallant Andersons as they departed for the seat of war.

At 7 o'clock the special train left the station amid the deafening cheers of the vast multitude, and waving of handkerchiefs by the ladies

The following are the officers of the Anderson Grays: Company No. 1—Captain, E. T. Conner; first lieutenant, Thomas Wilbur; second do., Wm. Conner; third do., J. D Bartolette Company No 2—Captain, John Craig; first lieutenant, S Sherlock; second do., William Belford; third do., P J. Hughes. Two other companies will probably leave here in a few days.

Party lines are extinct, and but one sentiment pervades the minds of the people, and that is, "The Union must and shall be preserved." The people of the mighty North are aroused, and woe be to traitors and all who sympathize with them.

CARBON.

Cecil County, Maryland, for the Union.

At a Union meeting, held at Elkton, Md., on Tuesday last, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in the event of an act of secession being foisted upon the State of Maryland, by any effete Legislature or illegal Convention, the people of Cecil county, bound to the Government of the Union, will disregard such act, and call upon the General Government to sustain them; and that the Senator and Delegates to the Legislature be instructed to vote against any such action.;
