THE CITY.

MILITARY MATTERS.

PASSAGE OF TROOPS.

The four regiments now in progress of formation in this city are rapidly approaching completion, and, judging from appearances, the men will be of a better class than usual. Colonel Murphy has possession of the old United States building, Fifth and Chestnut streets. Colonel Fritz still has possession of Jones' Hotel, where the headquarters of the Keystone Regiment are located. Colonels Stees and Chantry are pushing matters forward with their respective regiments, and the four organizations expect soon to be able to take the field.

THE TWENTY-NINTH NEW YORK REGIMENT PASSES THROUGH PHILADELPHIA.

The Twenty ninth Regiment of New York Volunteers passed through this city early on Saturday morning. Fifty one half of the regiment were residents of Philadelphia, who had gone to New York for the purpose of joining a regiment whose services had been accepted. They are all Germans, and the Philadelphia portion of the regiment is composed principally of members of the Turner Guards, which have their headquarters in the Eleventh and Twelfth wards, and whose gymnastic exercises and jubilees at Lemon Hill and Girard Park have been so often witnessed by our citizens. The regiment reached Washington-street wharf at about twelve o'clock on Friday night. It was met there by a delegation of brother Turners, with a band of music, and an immense number of Germans of both sexes, and by other citizens. Cannon were fired, and the greeting was warm and hearty. An arrangement had been made by which the regiment was to land at Noble-street wharf, and, after spending a few hours in the old district of Northern Liberties, it was to march to Broad and Washington streets, and take the cars for Baltimore. This plan was altered, much to the disgust of many of the men, who were anxious to see their families before embarking for the war.

The soldiers partook of refreshments provided for them at the foot of Washington street, by the Southwark committee. The Turners also presented them with a handsome flag. The presentation speeches were in German. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed. After these matters had been disposed of, the regiment started to march up town before proceeding to the depot, but the colonel probably thought it would be difficult to get the men together promptly if they got among their friends. At all events, he changed his plan, and, proceeding out Christian street to Broad, he marched the regiment directly to the depot. The cars started South at half past two o'clock on Saturday morning. The men were escorted off by a great number of persons.

At Turner Hall, near Third and Noble streets, the German friends of the soldiers had provided a large quantity of bread, cheese, sausage, and beer for their refreshment. A large crowd of friends and relatives were assembled at the Hall, but they were all dismissed to be disappointed, and the eatables and drinkables were left on hand.

The Twenty ninth Regiment is known as the Astor Regiment, from the fact that the men were uniformed at the expense of Mr. William B. Astor, of New York.

The uniform of the regiment is a dark blue jacket, light blue army pantaloons, and blue fatigue cap. They are fully armed and equipped. The arms are the altered flint locks. The men wore sprigs of evergreen in their caps, which in Germany is the emblem of riflemen. In addition to these nearly every man had a bouquet of flowers in the muzzle of his gun. In the ranks of this regiment are many faces that bore the impress of former campaigns, and the steady and easy gait marked the veteran of bygone wars. Many of the men have been in active service in Hungary, Holstein, and in the Crimea, and nearly all have been in the Prussian or Austrian armies. The officers have been in active service in Prussia and Hungary. We give below a list of the officers:

Colonel, Adolph Von Steinwehr; lieutenant colonel, Clemens Goetz; major, Wm. P Wainwright; adjutant, J Von Xschinschenz; quartermaster, P. Livingston Rogers; surgeon, Chas. Neuhaus; assistant surgeon, Chas. H. Osborne.

Company A—Captain, A. C. Sass; lieutenant, W. T P. Warnicker; ensign, Henry Klein.

Company B—Captain, Charles Weinhold; lieutenant, Adam Kreuzfelder; ensign, Adam Fuchman.

Company C—Captain, Gustav Siedel; lieutenant, John Getterman; ensign, Julius F. De Cry.

Company D—Captain, Adam Eckel; lieutenant, Alfred J Brunderlein; ensign, H O Dircks.

Company E—Captain, Gustavus Melser; lieutenant, Edward Gindlet; ensign, Robert Stelpe.

Company F—Captain, Hans Von Nostiz; lieutenant, Use Francais; ensign, Ludwig Hosack.

Company G—Captain, Clement D Socaf; lieutenant, Herman O. Vontmensel; ensign, Daniel Meyer.

Company H—Captain, Ulrich Gullman; lieutenant, Max Berne; ensign, Andrew Keidt.

Company I—Captain Charles Boskwood; lieutenant, Lewis Schirmer; ensign, Julius Dirkman.

Company K—Captain, Adam Prahl; lieutenant, Charles F. Ruzner; ensign, Alexander Schlunenbach.

COLONEL CHANTRY'S REGIMENT.

This regiment will make its headquarters at the Girard House this week, and the different companies will be inspected, mustered into service, and equipped before the close of the week. Colonel Chantry will uniform the regiment at his own expense.

The Fencibles, Captain J S. Keys, of Colonel Chantry's Regiment, will be inspected this evening, at 7 o'clock, Armory, Crown street, between Race and Vine, and Fourth and Fifth streets.

The Scott Legion Guards, which is also attached to this regiment, will be mustered into service the coming week, and receive their uniforms. The rendezvous is No 603 Chestnut street.

THE PHILADELPHIA BATTALION.

Composed of the third company State Fencibles, Capt J. F Nagle; Wetherill Blues, Lieut. Com J Book; Grable Guards, Capt O B Griffiths; and the second company Garde Lafayette, Capt. Theodore H. Peters. Are attached to Col. D. R. Williams' regiment, of Pittsburg, accepted by the War Department, and they will be mustered into the United states service in a few days. The six companies from Pittsburg, and the western part of the State, which are now in camp, will be here to go into camp at Suffolk Park, when this battalion will join them. This regiment will go into service fully equipped for a three years' campaign. The officers are all men of ability and experience. The headquarters of the battalion is at No 505 Chestnut street, fifth story, where a few more recruits are wanted.

THE THIRTY SEVENTH NEW YORK REGIMENT.

This regiment, composed of eight hundred picked men, was expected to leave New York at two o'clock yesterday afternoon. In anticipation of their arrival, preparations were made to furnish them with refreshments at the Washington-street restaurant. They had not reached this city at midnight. The following is a list of the principal officers:

Field Officers—Colonel, John H. McCunn; lieutenant colonel, John Burke; major, D. C. Minton; adjutant, C Murphy.

Staff Officers—Doctors, John McNulty and William O Meagher; lieutenant, George W Clarke; colonel's aid-de-camp and quartermaster, Hoyt.

FROM CAMP CURTIN.

Col. Brady has just returned from Camp Curtin, and reports his command in excellent health and spirits. They all like the artillery drill for the agility and neatness of the detail movements practised by that arm of the service. Two batteries have been forwarded to the seat of war, and three more will follow as soon as their guns and equipments are inspected and pronounced ready. Col. Brady would like to have a few more practical gunners and teamsters of good physical development to return to camp with him on Tuesday. The quarters of the men are in fine order, most of the tents being floored, and two good cooks are attached to each company, who serve up beefsteak for breakfast, roast beef for dinner, coffee and fresh bread for supper, with abundance of cold meat, alternating every few days with a good sailors' duff and rice pudding. His rendezvous is at his own store, 515 N Second street.

CHAPLAIN OF THE SCOTT LEGION APPOINTED.

The Rev. William Fulton, pastor of the Reformed Dutch Church at Manayunk, has been, by the general wish of the regiment, appointed to the chaplainy of the Scott Legion, in command of Col. Gray. Mr. Fulton is a capital specimen of the stern and always reliable Scotch-Irish element. He has become much endeared to the people of his charge, and the people of his denomination in this city generally, and the ardor he now evinces to share the perils of his adopted country in the hour of her trial, and to make his labors as a minister subservient to the interest of the patriot's cause, will yet more entitle him to popular regard.

RELIEF MONEY DISTRIBUTED.

The committee to distribute the money appropriated by Councils to the families of the volunteers gave out during the last week, $6,219 27. It was divided in the several wards of the city as follows: First, second, third, and Fourth wards, $1,573; in the Eleventh, Twelfth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, and Twentieth wards, $1 400 75; Fifth, Seventh, and Eighth wards, $1 065 37; Ninth ward, $173 25; Tenth ward $242 50; Thirteenth and Fourteenth wards, $155; Fifteenth ward, $449 25; Eighteenth and Nineteenth wards, $479; Twenty-first, Twenty second, and Twenty-third wards, $377 75; Twenty-fourth ward, $175 50.

THE UNITED STATES ZOUAVES.

A company of United States Zouaves arrived in this city yesterday afternoon, and started for New York by the six o'clock evening train. There were about eighty men in the company. A portion of them were uniformed, in red pantaloons and blue blouses. The majority, however, were dressed as citizens. We hear that they intend to attach themselves to Sickles' brigade.

JACKSON REGIMENT—COL MURPHY.

The Pennsylvania Nurse Corps, Mrs. D. S. Bannell, president, meeting at 530 Arch street, have very kindly offered to make up under-clothing for this regiment, and for this purpose will meet in a large room in the second story of the Government building, Chestnut street below Fifth, now occupied as the head quarters of this regiment. Contributions of material are earnestly solicited.

THE ZOUAVE REGIMENT.

Company A, Captain Hildebrand, of the Zouave Regiment, was inspected on Saturday. This will be a crack regiment.

FIRES.—Between five and six o'clock, on Saturday afternoon, a dwelling at the corner of Mifflin and Church streets, in the First ward, was slightly damaged by fire

Between seven and eight o'clock, on Saturday evening, a frame mansion at Frankford road and Clearfield street, in the Twenty-third ward, and owned and occupied by Mr. Irwig, was entirely destroyed by fire. The loss, which is about $2,000 is fully covered by insurance The origin of the flames is attributed to a defective flue.

A dwelling at No 15 Benton street, in the Ninth ward, was slightly damaged by an accidental fire, on Saturday morning

THE UNFORTUNATE JOHN TRUCKS.—The wreck of the John Trucks met with another misfortune on Friday night. She was in shoal water opposite the screw-dock, Kensington, swung between two schooners, when the hindermost chain by which she was supported parted, and the stern slid off into deep water. Her bow is still above water.

CONTROLLER ELECTED.—At a meeting of the Board of School Directors of the Eighteenth section, held on Saturday, Dr. George W. Vaughan was unanimously elected to represent the section in the Board of Controllers, in place of Harry Baum, resigned

BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.—The board will hold a stated meeting this evening, at 8 o'clock, at Fifth and Noble streets. The newly elected representatives should attend, as the new board will organize on the same evening.

PEOPLE'S CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.—CHARLES O'NEILL NOMINATED.—On Saturday evening, the People's Convention, to nominate a candidate for Congress in the Second district, met at Shinn's hotel, Broad street, near Chestnut.

Mr David W. Sellers was called to the chair. Mr. S, in taking the chair, made a brief speech, urging the propriety of choosing a candidate who is in sympathy with the National Administration, and true to the country and its flag.

Mr. Tobias Huber was chosen to act as secretary; Mr Calvin H. Woodward was elected treasurer of the Convention. Ten cents a head was assessed upon the members of the Convention to meet expenses.

Messrs Wm S Stokeley, N L Miller, S E Kister, H McIntyre, and S S Kelley, were appointed a committee on credentials.

The committee reported that the credentials were correct, and that there were no contested seats.

Mr. Joseph P. Loughead now addressed the Convention, and proposed to offer a preamble and resolutions He was, he said, moved to this course because he thought, at a time when we are calling upon Democrats, Whigs, Americans, Republicans, and men of all parties, to ignore party, we should set the example, and show those who have gone abroad to fight our battles that we at home are at peace. He had no purpose to serve, no party to serve, and no candidate to serve. He came entirely unpledged, and he therefore presented the following resolutions:

MR. LOUGHEAD'S RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, The rebellion which ambitious traitors have inaugurated against the Government of the United States requires, for its annihilation, the cordial union of all good citizens and true patriots, to rally to the support of the General Government, for the preservation of our national existence, and the vindication of our insulted flag. And whereas, at a crisis like this, when men of all shades of political opinion have nobly and simultaneously rushed into the ranks with our gallant soldiers, and are ready to battle for our homes, our honor, and our very existence, standing, as they now do, face to face with desperate and ferocious rebels, we, who are left at home, should bury past political differences, party rancors, and party strife, and rally as one man to the support of the Government, recognizing in all past political opponents brothers of a common land, whose only emulation ought to be, who shall most unreservedly devote himself to the glorious cause of his threatened country: therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That in the opinion of the People's party of Philadelphia, in the Second Congressional district of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, it is inexpedient, unpatriotic, and destructive of the best interests of the whole country and its imperilled future, for this Convention, or the Convention of any political organization, to make a party nomination for member of Congress from this district to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of the Hon. Edward Joy Morris.

Resolved 2d, That a committee of three be appointed by the president of this Convention, to wait upon the Conventions of the Democratic party, and the Union Constitutional party of this district, and ask their concurrence in the spirit of the above preamble and resolution, and ask these Conventions for the appointment of a similar committee from their respective bodies, to confer with the committee appointed under this resolution for the purpose of uniting in presenting to the several conventions one gentleman, who shall be (should the Conventions ratify the action of their committees) the nominee of all the Conventions, and the nominee of all the patriotic and Union men of all parties in the Second district; the only qualifications of such candidate to be unimpeachable integrity, established ability, and a distinct pledge to discountenance all attempts, direct or indirect, to compromise with armed traitors; and to support the National Administration in all measures heretofore undertaken for the suppression of the present unnatural and unholy insurrection, and as a representative to vote without stint, flinching, or hesitation, all men and all money necessary to the thorough, speedy, and utter crushing out of the unhallowed schemes of secession and rebellion, and its wicked authors, though to do it should require a thousand million of money and a million of men.

Resolved 3d. That this Convention does now adjourn until Tuesday evening next, June 25th, 1861, at eight and a half o'clock, to receive the report of the committee hereby provided for.

In offering these resolutions he did not wish to be misunderstood as advocating the breaking up of the organization of the People's party. He had worked for that party long and faithfully; but now we should all engage in a common cause and put down the rebellion Now that the election had been inopportunely thrust upon us, it would be a glorious thing to show the national character of the struggle by ignoring party

A resolution from the People's Association of the Tenth ward was read. It sets forth that a candidate should be selected "upon his merits, for his capacity and integrity alone."

A motion was made to lay the resolutions of Mr. Loughead upon the table

This motion gave rise to a warm discussion, during which Mr. Loughead eloquently defended his preamble and resolutions

The motion to lay on the table was subsequently withdrawn, and the question then came up upon the resolutions. They were considered separately.

The first resolution was voted down. The second resolution shared the same fate. The last resolution was again amended to make it a simple motion of adjournment until Tuesday evening. The vote being taken, it was lost by a vote of 13 yeas to 20 nays.

The following gentlemen were then put in general nomination for Congress: Charles O'Neill, Wm M Pomeroy, Isaac Hazlehurst, William M. Bull, William M. Meredith, and Morton McMichael.

A letter from Mr McMichael was read, in which he declined to be a candidate if the Convention was to be of a purely partisan character.

The letter was as follows:

PHILADELPHIA, June 22, 1861.

DEAR SIR: As you were kind enough to assure me that you and other gentlemen intended to vote for me in the Congressional Convention of the People's party, which is to meet this evening, it is right that I should say that if the action of the Convention is to be of a purely partisan character, I do not desire my name to be presented to it. At this juncture in our national affairs, when there should be as near an approach to unanimity as it is possible to obtain, I regard it as a grave mistake to bring political contests which, for the time at least, had ceased, especially on the part of those who claim to be the friends of the National Administration. Believing, as I do, that the General Government, which, under circumstances of the severest trial, has shown a degree of vigor never hitherto surpassed, is entitled to the earnest support of all good citizens, I am not willing in any way to become an instrument in dividing their support.

Thanking you for the friendly interest you have manifested, I am, very truly, yours, &c,

MORTON MCMICHAEL

S S. Kelley, Esq.

Mr O'Neill was then nominated on the first ballot, the vote being as follows: O'Neill, 23; Pomeroy, 8; Hazlehurst, 3.

The result was greeted with loud cheers. A motion to make the nomination unanimous was lost.

Mr. O'Neill was introduced to the Convention. He was addressed by the chairman, who informed him of his nomination, and requested him that he would be expected to stand faithfully by the present Administration in the prosecution of the war against this rebellion.

Mr O'Neill, in reply, pledged himself to stand by the Government at all hazards in the event of his election. He spoke at considerable length in denunciation of the actors in the rebellion, and declared himself devoted to the work of crushing out the insurrection. He yielded to none in patriotism of spirit, and in his intention to help the Government in this crisis. He was willing to sacrifice every dollar and every man, if it was necessary, in support of the Administration in the prosecution of the war.

At the close of Mr. O'Neill's speech the Convention adjourned. There was considerable excitement outside the building where the Convention was held.

A "SELL" UPON THE LOTTERY-POLICY MEN.—A shrewd game has been practised upon the lottery policy shops of this city, whereby the "bookmen" or bankers, lost in the neighborhood of $30 000

Policy shops injure the "legalized" lotteries, inasmuch as the bettors in policies do not buy lottery tickets. A lottery-policy is predicated upon a lottery drawing, and the bettor wagers at odds with the dealer that certain rows of figures will be those drawn upon a stated day in a certain lottery.

To break up the lottery-policy dealers is a frequent aim of the lottery proprietors They so arrange matters at the drawing, that figures or rows previously selected shall be drawn Upon these they direct all their emissaries in the cities of the Union to wager largely. Of course, the wagerers win, and the entire capital of the policy-dealer is lost.

On this late occasion, the numbers selected were 4, 11, 44, or "the washerwoman's gig," or row; so called because washerwomen are partial to betting upon said row The losses in other cities were: New York, $100,000; Boston, 40 000; Baltimore, $35 000, etc. Of the results in Western cities we have not heard; but as the game was played in all the policy shops in the Union, it is probable that half a million dollars changed hands. "Set a thief to catch a thief."

RUN OVER.—George Emery, aged twenty-two years, was run over by the Lafayette Hose, on Frankford road, above Norris street, on Saturday evening. He was not seriously injured.

BOY DROWNED.—Samuel Buzby, fifteen years of age, was drowned in the Schuylkill, at Manayunk, while bathing, on Friday night. The body was recovered, and Coroner Conrad held an inquest in the case on Saturday morning.

DROWNED.—An unknown man was drowned at League Island Bridge on Saturday afternoon. The coroner will take charge of the body for identification.

POINT BREEZE RACES.—On Wednesday next there will be a race at Point Breeze Park. Several fast horses are entered.

SUICIDE.—Yesterday morning a man named Yeager was found lying in Camac's Woods in an insensible condition, having taken a dose of laudanum. He was conveyed to the Twentieth-ward station-house, where he died in a short time afterward.

FIRE.—An alarm of fire, at 8 o'clock last evening, was caused by the burning of a window curtain at a house near Fourth and Master streets.

SENT BACK.—On Saturday morning Detective Levy took Eliza Riley, alias "Liverpool Lize," to Westchester, where she was committed to await her trial for the larceny of a valuable gold watch. She was arrested in this city.

THE Rev. Dr. Griffen, of the New York Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, died on Thursday evening, at his residence, in Rye, Westchester county. Mr. Griffen was, with one or two exceptions, the oldest member of the Conference, and had attained the age of nearly seventy years.

New York Markets, Saturday.

FLOUR.—The market, with some concession in prices, closed with more activity, especially for shipping brands of State and Western The sales embraced about 15 000 bbls, at $4 30@4 50 for superfine State, and $4 30@5 10 for good to fancy and choice extra State.

WHEAT.—Prime lots were sustained, while inferior qualities were dull and nominal. The sales embraced 150 000 bushels, including white white Michigan at $1 35@1 40, mostly at $1 40 for Canada white at $1 35@1 36, Chicago spring at 87½c@$1 07, and Milwaukee club at 90c@$1 15.

CORN was firm and in fair export demand, with sales of 65,000 bus at 47@48c for heated and soft, 49@50c for Western mixed, and 49@50c for prime mixed Western, and 57c for round yellow.

PORK was heavy and dull, with sales of 800 bbls, including mess at $18 in prime at $19.

WHISKY was heavy; sales 500 bbls at 16@16½c, the latter for small lots.

CITY ITEMS.

SUMMER UNDERCLOTHING.—Gentlemen who have not yet patronized the popular Gents' Furnishing Goods Establishment of Messrs. R. C. Walborn & Co., No 4 and 7 North Sixth street, have yet to learn the philosophy of making hot weather comfortable. The elegant Summer Underclothing sold by these gentlemen, and all other goods kept and sold by them, are justly entitled to public attention.

THE PEOPLE'S CONVENTION.—The People's party held a Convention on Saturday night for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress in the Second district. The nomination was made, and it was unanimously agreed that, if he candidate should be elected, he should take his seat in the next Congress clothed in one of the elegant summer suits from the Palatial Depot of Granville Stokes, 609 Chestnut street. All our Congressmen purchase their garments at this one-price establishment.

THE MILITARY CLOTHING DEPOT.—Rockhill & Wilson's Brown Stone Clothing Hall appears to be the leading house for the manufacturing of military clothing, in the upper stories they have some seventy cutters employed, and about seven hundred hands are constantly engaged in making up the work. Over three thousand coats were made up by this firm in ten days, for the State, besides full suits for several companies of Home Guards, and for officers of the army and navy. The location of this well known establishment is Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.
