FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

THE MONEY MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, December 4, 1861.

The stock market manifests little spirit, and the transactions are unimportant. Prices fluctuate so little that it is difficult to make comparisons, the gain or loss of ¼ to one or two items constituting nearly the whole movement of a day. The President's message is looked upon as satisfactory, though it has not had the effect of overbalancing the suspense of operations until news shall be received from Europe touching the arrest of Mason and Slidell.

The New York Evening Post of to-day says:

"The Stock Exchange is very quiet to-day. The message, in the absence of the Secretary of the Treasury's report, has no marked effect upon Wall street, capitalists being more immediately concerned in the financial wants of the Government.

The principal business was in Erie and Rock Island. The former opened at 30¾, but, under the purchases of a leading house, rose to 31¼@31½. Rock Island rose to 65¾. The old story of a dividend is revived, but it is difficult to learn anything trustworthy in regard to it.

New York Central is rather weaker than yesterday. The sales have been mainly at 77½, which is ½ per cent. below the price of last evening. The transfer books close to-day, and reopen on the 12th inst.

Erie Preferred stock was among the firmest of the railway shares. It closes 53@53¼; the assessment scrip 75@78.

Galena closes at 70¼@70½, Michigan Central 48@48¾, Hudson 37½@37¾.

Cleveland and Toledo is firm at 32¾@32¾. This road shows over $4,000 increase on the fourth week of November, and the superintendent writes that the first week of December will give an equally satisfactory exhibit.

The Government list is very steady, excepting the coupon fives of 1874, which are ¼@¾ ⅌ cent. lower. The 12 ⅌ cent. Treasury notes sold at par, and that is bid for more.

State stocks were dull. Missouris were better, selling at 40½, against 39¾@40 yesterday. Tennessees are weak at 41. Georgias are scarce at 68@69.

Philadelphia Markets.

DECEMBER 4—Evening.

There is very little demand for Flour, either for export or home consumption, and the market is dull, sales being mostly to supply the wants of the trade, at $5 37½@5.50 for superfine; $5.62½@6.25 for extra and extra family, and from $6.50 to $7 for fancy brands, as to quality, at which rate holders are generally free sellers. Rye Flour is firm, with small receipts, and sales at $4 ⅌ bbl. Corn Meal continues scarce, but quiet at $2.87½ for Pennsylvania, and $3.15 ⅌ bbl for Brandywine.

WHEAT.—There is a fair demand to-day and prices are well maintained and firm; sales include about 17,000 bushels red at 134@136c, mostly at the latter rate, for prime Pennsylvania allout, and 3,000 bushels white at 142@145c, the latter for prime. Rye is in steady demand, with sales of about 1,000 bushels at 76c for Pennsylvania, and 71c for Delaware. Corn is scarce and in demand; about 1,500 bushels prime old yellow sold at 63c; edible. New Corn—Sales are limited at 50c for good yellow. Oats are unchanged; about 2,500 bushels Pennsylvania sold at 41c, and 2,000 bushels Southern, not prime, at 39c.

BARK.—Quercitron comes in slowly, and first No. 1 commands $28½ ⅌ ton.

COTTON.—The market is firm; further small sales at very full prices, at from 26 to 20c ⅌ lb cash

GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS.—There is very little doing in either, and holders are asking an advance on previous quotations.

SEEDS.—There is a good demand for Cloverseed; about 200 bushels have been taken, mostly at $4.75 ⅌ bushel. WHISKY is fair demand; further sales of bbls at 22½ cents, and drudge at 19½@20c ⅌ gallon.

CITY ITEMS,

SHAKSPEARIAN READINGS.—By an announcement elsewhere, it will be seen that Mr. Samuel M. Cleveland, son of Professor Cleveland, of this city, will commence a series of Studies of Shakspeare's Masterpieces on next Friday evening, at Concert Hall, to be continued once a week through the principal comedies and tragedies of the "million-minded poet." Mr. Cleveland proposes to devote two evenings to the analysis of each play, and to give the opinions of the best commentators, together with dramatic readings of the principal roles. They are designed not merely for the scholar, but for the intelligent reading public, and from Mr. Cleveland's acknowledged abilities for the elegant, though difficult, task he is about to undertake, we have no doubt that the entertainments will be liberally patronized.

FINE MESS MACKEREL.—Mr. C. H. Mattson, dealer in Fine Groceries, Arch and Tenth streets, has now in store a fresh supply of superior mess Mackerel, to which we invite the attention of our readers. His excellent brands of Buckwheat, and Wheat Flour, we may also state, are highly prized by all who try them.

A PEACE PROPOSITION.—Yesterday, in the Senate, a resolution was offered appointing a commission to meet a similar commission from the seceded States, and arrange for a cessation of hostilities and a restoration of the Union. The resolution was received with laughter and laid aside. Our members of Congress are as much opposed to any proposition of this kind as they are in favor of wearing the elegant styles of winter garments manufactured at the Palatial Clothing Bazaar of Granville Stokes, 609 Chestnut street. Clothing of all qualities at sacrificing prices.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN ON CAPITAL AND LABOR.—The President, in his message, takes some common-sense views of the relations of capital and labor towards each other. He does not believe that capital is superior to labor, and that the latter should be owned by the former. He believes in the respecting of the rights of all interests, in the showing of universal fair play, and in the procuring of garments for soldiers and civilians at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, where capital and labor combine harmoniously to produce elegant suits to make the body comfortable and to gladden the eyes.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

U S Consulate, Port of Paramaibo, Nov 4, 1861.—The undersigned would inform mariners that, on making this port, they must be on their guard when running down the coast during the night, as the fishermen all along the coast to the leeward of the Marowyn river have large nets, which have been repeatedly taken for the lightship anchored off the Surinam river.
