STATEMENT OF THE NORTHERN ASSURANCE COMPANY, OF LONDON.—We would direct attention to the statement of the Northern Assurance Company, of London, published in another part of our paper this morning. The agents in Philadelphia for this well-known and admirably-conducted company are Messrs. Getty and Listing, No. 425 Chestnut street.

LECTURE OF WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON.—To-morrow evening a lecture on "The War and its Relations" is announced to be delivered at the Spring Garden Institute, northeast corner of Broad and Spring Garden streets, by William Lloyd Garrison. We presume the interest felt by the admirers of this ultra progressive in his present view of things in general and the war in particular, will be sufficient to attract a large audience.

PURE OLD BRANDY FOR MEDICINAL PURPOSES.—Mr. G. H. Mattson, dealer in fine grocories, Arch and Tenth streets, has now in store a genuine article of pure old brandy for medicinal purposes; also a fresh invoice of Madeira wine, of the celebrated "Reid" brand, which is highly recommended by physicians for invalids.

TO HOMŒOPATHS.—Mr. F. E. Boericke, in this card, on another page of to-day's paper, announces to the public that he has taken the fine store No. 48 North Ninth street, where he will be happy to see his old customers. He has made extensive arrangements to supply those in the army with neat and compact medicine chests.

THE RESIGNATION OF GENERAL CAMERON.—The resignation of General Cameron from the Cabinet has taken the country by surprise, and rumors are rife as to the causes which have brought about the change. We do not pretend to solve the mystery, and we only know that the late Secretary of War has sent a private despatch to a friend in this city, saying that he would accept the mission to Russia, and that he would stop in Philadelphia on his road home to Lochiel, for the purpose of procuring a full outfit at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth. General C. has enjoyed abundant opportunities of judging of the excellence of the garments for soldiers and civilians made at this famous establishment.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.—One of the New York pilot boats lately picked up off Sandy Hook an India rubber bag, containing, as we are told by the daily papers, "a large number of Herralds, Times, Tribunes, Suns, and Worlds, of December 27." How the bag could have remained afloat, with such a lot of dead weight in it, was a puzzle to us, until having made inquiry in the proper quarter, we ascertained there was a copy of a Philadelphia paper, containing the advertisement of Charles Stokes' "One Price" Clothing Store in it, in the assortment. To this circumstance, doubtless, the happy family above referred to owed its escape.

ONE PRICE ONLY.—The fashionable clothing temple of Granville stokes, at No. 609 Chestnut, is the only establishment in the city where one price only, and this exceedingly low, is asked for garments. The clothing manufactured at this popular emporium is made of the best material in the market, and equal, if not superior, to that obtained elsewhere. Those who once patronize this Mammoth Emporium are sure to return, as they receive superior garments, warranted in fit, fabric, and fashion, and on the most reasonable terms. Remember the One Price Clothing Depot, No. 609 Chestnut street.

After the call for the meeting was read, the following resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we deem the call for the Election of Delegates, issued by the Central Republican Club, as impolitic and unwise at the present time, and an assumption of authority by them, they not being a representative body, and representing only the individuals composing the Club.

Resolved, That we, the Republicans of the Seventh Ward, decline to elect Delegates in accordance with the call of the Republican Club, and recommend a similar course, and in the event of any of the Wards electing to-night, they be requested to reconsider their action and to withdraw any Delegates so elected.

☞ APPEAL FOR THE SUFFERING POOR.—Hundreds in our city are now suffering from cold, hunger, and sickness. That loathsome and appalling disease, small-pox, prevails largely at present among the destitute. "THE HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA" appeals most earnestly to the public to furnish the means necessary to enable its agents to relieve this want and distress. This Society has been laboring among the poor of this community for twenty-six years, and many thousands whom it has aided by its timely assistance and counsel can testify of its efficiency and success in this very large community. In the last seven years it has rent, or bought homes in the country no less than eight hundred and four children—the offspring, mostly, of drunken parents—and nearly all of them have done well.

Donations of money, however small, may be sent to the Treasurer, Mr. THOS. T. MASON, No. 438 MARKET Street.

Donations of fuel, food, and clothing will be very acceptable at this time, and may be sent to the Office, No. 42 North FIFTH Street, or they will be called for on a note being addressed to Mr. JOHN P. ARRISON, same place.

ISAAC R. SMITH, Vice President.
R. K. HOFFLICK, Secretary. ja7-tuths6t
