Wendell Phillips' Lecture in Cincinnati.

THE OUTBREAK OF THE MOB.

[From the Cincinnati Commercial.]

The Opera House was last night densely filled with ladies and gentlemen, forming an audience as highly intelligent and respectable in all respects as ever assembled in the city. There were, however, some hundreds of the worst specimens of our population, who obtained admittance with tickets purchased with money raised for the express purpose of instigating a mob. The sum raised is said to have been one hundred and twenty-five dollars, with which five hundred tickets were procured and given away, principally to the frequenters of low doggeries. It is believed that the subscribers to this fund can be named, and they can be marked with the brand of infamy.

Mr. Phillips was introduced by Judge Stallo, and proceeded to speak in substance as he did last week in Washington. He regarded the question he proposed to discuss as of primary importance to the American people. We were undergoing a trial that no people had ever escaped, and that we could not have escaped in the nature of things. We were in the midst of a war of ideas. The war was between an aristocracy and the democracy of the country, and one or the other must conquer. We might consider ourselves fortunate if our children saw justice established and peace prevailing all over the land. As an anti-slavery man he had no interest in the war. Slavery had received its death blow, and not at the hands of the people of anti-slavery principles. These and similar propositions were advanced in plain terms, and with forcible illustrations; and some of their logical consequences were presented, without extravagance in denunciation of anybody, or epithets that were offensive. Mr. Phillips stated in so many words that he was an Abolitionist, and that he had for fifteen years been a disunionist, but now he was satisfied that the Union meant justice to all men and races, and he was for it—for the measures that in his opinion were essential to its safety.

At one of his trenchant observations there was some applause in the body of the audience, followed by hissing and hooting from the lobbies and the gallery, and a stone and several eggs were thrown from the gallery at the speaker. The stone crashed against the shade of a light at Mr. Phillips' foot, and one or two of the eggs struck the skirt of his coat, breaking and smearing it and dripping upon the stage.

The excitement was, of course, very great. Many gentlemen sprang to their feet and demanded that the perpetrators be put out. The villains were dared to make themselves known, and inquiries were made as to who had thrown the stone and eggs. A voice declared that, whether truthfully or not, we do not know, that "Bart Smith" was the individual.

The speaker firmly stood his ground, and his steady voice presently quieted the tumult. There was no further disturbance for nearly half an hour, but at a reference to the employment of the poor, ignorant whites of the South as tools of the despotism that was warring against the liberties of the nation, there was another uproar, and another shower of eggs, mostly striking near the speaker, and one or two spattering his person. He showed good pluck, however, and though it was manifest that some of the cowardly assassins might even attempt his life, he did not flinch. There was a prolonged row in the upper part of the house, which Mr. Pike, the proprietor, sought in vain to still, being without the assistance of a single policeman, the Mayor having ordered the police to keep away, though warned in the afternoon that trouble was brewing. It was even said that when the mayor was notified by Mr. Pike that the peace was broken, and the lives of citizens (to say nothing of property) imperiled, the answer was that the police should have nothing to do with it. The rowdies, holding themselves unchecked, crowded down the stairs, yelling and hooting vehemently, and succeeded in drowning the speaker's voice. The ladies, of whom there were several hundred, had passed through the exciting scenes of the evening with exemplary equanimity, but now began to leave in large numbers, the men accompanying them crowding through the mob close packed about the doors. Mr. Phillips continued to speak for some time. At length he remarked that, as he had spoken for an hour and a half, and had passed over the ground which he had intended to discuss, and as his voice was inadequate to further speaking, he would close

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

A Book for the Army—Departure of Mr. Van Wyck and Gens. Hunter and Fremont—Departure of the Africa—A Cool Captain—New York State Legislature Analyzed—The Newbern Heroes—Brooklyn Navy Yard—Stevens' Battery—The Police and the Runsellers—Cattle Market—Money Market, &c.

[Correspondence of The Press.]

NEW YORK, March 26, 1862.

The Army Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association are about to send a large contribution of "The Bible Reader, or, Scripture Reading Made Easy," to Port Royal, Roanoke, Newbern, and other points where the army is rapidly settling. The book is published by the American Sunday-school Union, and is highly recommended as being well adapted for the use of adults as well as children. Copies are to be distributed for the benefit of soldiers who may not be able to read, as well as the contrabands who are turning up with the appearance of our army.

The Hon. C. H. Van Wyck left the city, last evening, to join his regiment, which is about to move with the advancing army.

Major General Hunter and staff left the city, this morning, for Washington, whither they were ordered by telegraph. General Fremont will leave, to-morrow morning, for Western Virginia.

The steamship Africa sailed, to-day, for Liverpool. She has $243,000 in specie on freight.

Alfred Cohn, captain of the schooner J. McNeil, seized some time ago in the gulf, for running the blockade, arrived in this city last night, and was sent to the house of detention. His vessel and cargo have already been disposed of under the confiscation act. The captain is detained simply as a witness before the Prize Commissioners, and in a note to Marshal Murray he writes as follows:

"My case is a very simple one, and will occupy the attention of the court but a few moments. The vessel was a southern vessel, sailing under a South Carolina flag, and was taken in entering a port in Texas."

The statistical list of the New York Legislature is printed. It sets forth that the oldest member is Mr. Samuel Skinner, of Livingston county, his age being 65 years; the youngest is Mr. William G. Ottway, of New York, 24 years. The aggregate of ages is 5,110 years; making an average of 48 years and 3 months. The heaviest man is Mr. Royal Phelps, of New York, 230 pounds; the lightest, Mr. Andrew Smith, of New York, 125 pounds. The aggregate weight is 21,583 pounds; the average 168 pounds. The tallest man is Mr. Jas. S. Hasing, of Rockland, 6 feet 4 inches; the shortest, Mr. E. N. Thomas, of Wayne, 5 feet 4 inches. The aggregate height is 724 feet; the average, 5 feet 8½ inches. A very well proportioned body of men. There are 101 married men, six widowers, and 21 bachelors. The occupations show 42 farmers, 2 shipping merchants, 2 cast manufacturers, 10 merchants, 2 gentlemen, 2 bankers, 1 doctors, 2 editors, 2 clerks, 3 mechanics, 2 leather manufacturers, 28 lawyers, 2 manufacturers, 1 printer, 1 clergyman, 1 lithographer, 1 inventor, 1 dentist, 1 livery-stable keeper, 1 plumber, 2 engineers, 1 builder, 1 boat-builder, 1 miner, 1 politician, 1 gentleman. The place of birth shows that 102 were born in the State of New York; Connecticut, 5; Vermont, 4; Massachusetts, 3; Rhode Island, 1; Pennsylvania, 2; New Jersey, 2; New Hampshire, 1; South Carolina, 1, (Mr. Talmadge, of Westchester); Ireland, 6; Wales, 1. The number of bills introduced this session falls very little short of last year, so far. There have been introduced up to this time in Senate 238 bills, in Assembly 672; total, 1,010. Last year, Senate 332, Assembly 819; total, 1,151. Difference, 141.

Upward of 40 of the wounded soldiers from Newbern left the Park Barracks this morning, on their way home. They were much refreshed by a good night's rest, and a proper dressing of their wounds. About 15 were sent to the hospital, and the remainder will go East by the steamboat lines this evening. During the day the soldiers have been visited by hundreds of citizens, including many ladies, who supplied them with an abundance of fruits, bananas, and other luxuries. Nearly all of the men have with them trophies from the battle-field, including muskets, shells, &c.

Very few vessels are now at the Brooklyn navy yard, but there appears to be no diminution of business on that account. The frigate Roanoke is being dismantled and cut down for her spar-deck, and will be iron-plated. Men are at work upon her almost incessantly. Nothing further has been done with the sloops-of-war Savannah and John Adams since they were dismantled. The two new frigates, Lackawanna and Wyandenoga, are growing up rapidly under the builders' hands

The small Stevens battery Naugatuck is to be commissioned to-day, and will proceed at once on her trial trip. Annexed is a list of her officers: Temporary commander, W. W. Shipman; first officer, lieutenant J. Wall Wilson; second officer, E. L. Morton; engineer, Thomas Lindo; second engineer, Joseph White. She will carry also, a boatswain, gunner, carpenter, two quartermasters, fourteen seamen, a steward, cook and servant, making a total crew of twenty-seven, officers and men.

Steamship L. Boardman, Quinn, of Provincetown, Massachusetts, arrived this morning. The L. B. has been in search of the United States ship Vermont for the last three weeks, but did not succeed in finding her.

The "ring of war" has come between the rum-sellers and the metropolitan police. A case, involving new points of law, is now pending before the Court of General Sessions. The following card was issued by the interested parties yesterday:

"TO THE LIQUOR DEALERS OF THE FIFTH WARD.—All liquor dealers of the Fifth ward are requested to attend the examination of Alexander Matthews and John Ireland, at the Court of General Sessions, to-morrow, March 26, on the charge of liquor selling on sunday. Now is your time to strike for your own preservation."

"NEW YORK, March 25, 1862."

The receipts of cattle of all kinds this week at the several market places in this city number 3,299 Beeves, 155 cows, 551 veals, 2,978 sheep and lambs, and 12,402 swine; which is an increase on those of last week of 9 cows, and a decrease of 123 beeves, 2 veals, 177 sheep and lambs, and 1,680 swine. The beeves yarded at Allerton's were from the following States: New York, 311; Pennsylvania, 22; Ohio, 433; Indiana, 165; Illinois, 1,422; Kentucky, 373; Connecticut, 16; Iowa, 107; Michigan, 225; Canada, 22; and Missouri, 23; and from Canada 22 were received. They were brought by the following routes: Erie Railroad 877, Hudson River 1,439, Harlem 6,671, Camden and Amboy 167, on foot 8, and New Jersey Central Railroad 79.

We have to notice a further improvement in prices of one half a cent ⅌ lb on all grades of beef cattle. The stock this week was chiefly in the hands of speculators, who, in view of the small number on hand, were able to hold and demand advanced prices. Quite a number of droves were purchased at Albany, and several were again wholesaled here and then resold to the city trade. The army contractors took over 300 head of first quality of cattle, which operated to making sales brisk, and most of the stock sold yesterday.

We quote: Premium at 9¼@10c; extra at 8¼ to 9c; first quality at 7¼ to 8c; second do at 7 to 7¼c; third do at 6@6½c. The average of all sales about 7½ to 8c. Veals are dull. The best have been sold at 6c, but common grades are very slow at 5@5½c. Milch cows are lower. We quote at $30, $35, and $40. Sheep and lambs are in very short supply. The receipts are lighter than for any week since this time last March. Prices are firm, 25 to 50c per head better. We quote at 5¼@6¼c Very nice at 6¼ and good at 6c. Swine are without much alteration. Small thin hogs continue unsaleable. We quote corn-fed, live, at 3¾@4¼c; stillfed do at 3½ to 3¾c; dressed corn hogs, 4¾ to 5¼c, and do still-fed at 4¾@4¾c.

ARREST OF PICKPOCKETS.—On Tuesday evening Detectives Carlin and Henderson arrested two men at the Baltimore Depot, on the charge they charged with being professional pickpockets. They hail from Buffalo, and gave the names of Henry Sharp and Thomas Smithson. They were allowed to choose between going to prison for ninety days, or having their portraits taken for the Rogue's Gallery. They chose the latter, and after the operation had been performed they were released.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

THE MONEY MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, March 26, 1862.

The Stock market remains in the dull and spiritless condition noted yesterday. Government securities are more firm than at the close yesterday, but State and City loans are weaker. There is no falling off in the better class of railroad securities. Fancy stocks are neglected. Green and Coates-streets Passenger Railway shares sold at 23¾, and Race and Vine-streets at 5.

In the Money market there is no marked change. A slightly-increased demand is reported. The principal business transacted is in the certificates of indebtedness issued by the Government to its creditors.

Petersons' Counterfeit Detector for April 1 is issued to-day, with a descriptive list of thirty-five recently-issued counterfeits and the usual valuable contents.

According to the Rochester Union of the 24th inst.:

There is not the slightest probability that the canals of New York State will open for navigation before the 1st of May, and it is likely to be even later than that period. There are yet large banks of snow and ice along the Erie Canal in that section, and it will be well into April when the necessary work of repair is commenced.

Buffalo creek is preparing to break up to-day, but the bay outside is full of ice. It may be a month yet before vessels can get in or out of Buffalo. Until Lake Erie is paviga ble throughout it is not important that the canal should open.

Lake Ontario is ready for business, but the St. Lawrence is closed. The Oswego Times says the American steamers will be ready for business by the 1st of April. This may be, but they are not preparing to start at that time, and it has not been contemplated to bring them out so early. The boats are all in this harbor in good order, and may be out by the 15th or 16th of April.

A well-executed counterfeit $5 on the Atlantic Bank, New York city, has just been discovered.

The New York Evening Post of to-day says:

The feature of the Stock Exchange to-day is the continued heaviness in railroad shares, with a decided decline in the Western stocks. Some attribute this change in the market to fears about the Erie Canal, but the true explanation, no doubt, is the sluggish condition of the grain markets here and at the West, and the consequent falling off in the earnings of the lines centering at Chicago.

The Galena and Chicago and Chicago and Rock Island railroads are among the first to feel the stagnation in breadstuffs and show its effects in their traffic returns. The Galena gives a decrease on the third week of March of $10,000, the Rock Island $7,000. The decline in grain in this market since February is as follows:

	February.	March.
Milwaukie club wheat.....	$1 08	$1 29
Western mixed corn.....	69	58
State flour.....	6 00	5 25

The course of the receipts of grain at Chicago are watched very closely by the grain speculators, who are losing heavily. The losses in Liverpool are also large, and not much recovery in prices is looked for on the other side in face of the large shipments arriving out. An unfavorable change in the weather in England would at once stimulate the Liverpool market, and in turn infuse new life into the movement from the West to our seaboard.

The Government list does not sympathise with the weakness in other stocks, rather, the shares do not respond to the confident feeling in Governments, for it has been a peculiarity of the market for several weeks past, that, as soon as business on the railroad stocks opens, extreme apathy prevails, the orders of the commission houses being chiefly for the long sizes and fives.

Government sixes of 1881 close at 94⅛@94¾; for the coupons, and 94@94¼ for the registered, with less sagacious to buy than at any time of the past fortnight.

The 7-30 treasury notes are quiet, at 99⅞@100. The willingness of Mr. Chase to meet the demand at par has somewhat dampened the ardor of buyers.

The decline is heaviest in Erie Preferred, Cleveland and Toledo, Galena and Michigan Central. The few stocks which stand steady are Prairie du Chien, Cleveland and Pittsburg, and Columbus and Cincinnati.

After the board there was little doing. New York Central 53, Erie 36⅞@37, Erie preferred 60¾, Toledo 45½@45¾, Rock Island 55¾.

The sales of Toledo were large, one broker selling about 3,000 shares at 44¾@45. The operators for the rise still aver that a dividend will be declared to-morrow, but this fails to check the fall in the stock.

The Southern State stocks are heavy, especially Tennessees and Missouris, which feel off ¼@1 per cent. The Northern stocks are firm and rather higher.

Money is active at 6¾@7 per cent on call. The transactions at 6 are altogether exceptional. The rates for paper are a trifle higher this week, 6@7 per cent., the inside figure for short dates.

Gold is dull, at 101¼@101¾. Exchange on London is quiet, at 111¼@112 for first-class bills.

The Africa, for Liverpool to-day, takes out $263,000 in specie.

The trade are buying in a small way $5@5.25 for superfine, $5 37½@5 62 for extra, $5.70@6 for family, and $6.25@6.75 for fancy brands, according to quality. Rye Flour is steady, with further sales at $3 25 ⅌ bbl. Corn Meal is dull, and only 100 bbls Penna found buyers at $2 75 ⅌ bbl.

WHEAT.—The receipts are light and the market steady, with further sales of 4,000 bush at 132@134c for Penna. reds, mostly the latter rate for choice lots in store, and white at 140@145c. Rye is firm, and 2,000 bus Penna sold at 70c, in store. Corn continues in good demand, and about 10,000 bus Southern yellow sold at 64c afloat. Oats are dull, and Penna unsaleable at 35@36c.

BARK.—There is very little Quercitron offering; a small sale of first No. 1 was made at $33.50 ⅌ ton.

COTTON.—There is little or nothing doing, and the market is dull and unsettled.

GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS continue as last quoted, with a limited business doing in the way of sales.

SEEDS.—The demand for Cloverseed is less active, and about 400 bus have been disposed of at $5 12½@5 25, mostly at the latter rate for prime. Nothing doing in Timothy and Flaxseed.

CITY ITEMS.

THE DARK DAYS AND GREAT PERILS OF WASHINGTON CITY.—This celebrated lecture, by the Rev. C. M. Butler, D. D., is to be delivered in Concert Hall, on Monday evening, April 7th, for the especial benefit of a very useful mission of the Episcopal Church. It is offered instead of the one-dollar subscription system. The object is to pay off the entire floating debt of the Church, which will be secured, if there is a generous response on the part of the Church and the public. The suggestion of the subscription was made by Bishop Potter, and originated in the Board of Missions. The interest of the subject, the ability of the reverend lecturer, and the importance of the object, with the high source from which it emanated, all conspire to give promise and character to the occasion. We trust the ample hall will be filled to its utmost capacity by this Christian and patriotic community. We advise all to secure tickets immediately.

ICELAND MOSS PASTE FOR COLDS.—The delicious Iceland Moss Paste, manufactured and sold by Mr. A. L. Vansant, Ninth and Chestnut streets, is an excellent remedy for colds on the chest, sore throat, etc. Mr. Vansant's Confections are the finest and purest manufactured in this country, and his prices are remarkably moderate.

ENGLISH PICKLES AND SAUCES.—Mr. C. H. Mattson, dealer in fine groceries, Arch and Tenth streets, has now on hand a general variety of English Pickles and Sauces, of the best quality, to which we invite the attention of our readers.

STIRRING NEWS EXPECTED.—The continual silence respecting the movements of the main body of the army of the Potomac is continued. It is certain that movements of the greatest importance are being made. Within a few days stirring news will be along; but, in the interim, we would advise all loyal citizens to visit the Mammoth Clothing Depot of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestnut street, where Spring garments of the latest styles are being disposed of daily at greatly reduced prices.

THE TAX BILL.—The consideration of the tax bill now before Congress is demonstrating the fact that everybody is patriotically willing that a heavy tax should be levied upon everybody but himself; while the said everybody insists that, in his special case, taxation would be oppressively burdensome. That is not the way to help the Government to carry on the war and crush out the rebellion. Let each man pay up his taxes cheerfully and willingly, and, if he feels the necessity of retrenchment, let him consult true economy, and buy his wearing apparel at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

FATALITY OF UNIFORMS.—It would appear, from numerous observations made by military writers, that soldiers are hit during battle, according to the color of their dress; in the following order: Red, the most fatal; the least fatal, Austrian gray. The proportions are: Red, 12; rifle green, 7; brown, 6; Austrian bluish gray, 5. Thus we see how unwise has been the adoption of the gay and fanciful uniforms by some of our regiments at the commencement of the war. Of course, it is only necessary to consult these statistics in reference to our dress as soldiers; but, as civilians, we are only influenced by taste. Beautiful garments, of all shades of colors, and of all descriptions, for Spring wear, are on offered at Charles Stokes' "One Price," under the Continental, at remarkably low prices.
