THE MONEY MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, April 5, 1862.

The stock market continues dull, with very little change in prices. United States sixes, 1881, sold at 92¾; Pennsylvania coupon sixes at 99¾; city sixes at 95¾. Reading Railroad shares receded to 21 1-16, and Long Island advanced to 13¾.

The stocks of the coal-carrying companies are adversely affected by the troubles arising out of the bad conduct of the Pennsylvania Coal Company. Dividend-earning railway securities not dependent upon the coal trade are firm.

Holders of past-due treasury notes, issued under the acts of December 23d, 1857, and March 2d, 1861, should bear in mind that the interest on these notes ceases April 7th, Monday next, in accordance with the public notice given by the Secretary of the treasury, February 3, 1862.

The following is the official notice:

"TREASURY DEPARTMENT, February 4, 1862.

"Notice is hereby given of the real ness of this department to redeem the Treasury notes payable in one year from date, authorized by the act of Congress approved December 23d, 1857, and the Treasury notes payable in sixty days from date, authorized by the act of Congress approved 23 March, 1861.

Philadelphia Markets.

APRIL 5—Evening.

FLOUR.—There is a little better feeling in the Flour market, and more inquiry for export, with sales of 200 barrels standard superfine at $5.12½; 100 barrels good Lancaster do. at $5.25; 400 barrels good do. extra at $5.62½; 200 barrels low grade Western family at $5.50, and 1,000 barrels W. B. Thomas' superfine on terms kept private. The sales to the trade are limited within the above range of prices for superfine and extras, and from $5.75 to $6 ℔ barrel for extra family and fancy brands, as in quality. The receipts are light, and the market at the close rather firmer. Rye Flour is steady, with sales of 100 barrels at $3.25 ℔ barrel. Corn Meal is dull, and nearly nominal at $2.75 ℔ barrel for Pennsylvania meal.

GRAIN.—WHEAT.—There is not much offering, and the market is steady and rather more active at the late decline, with sales of 3,000 bus, all that could be had, at 127@128c, mostly at the latter rate, for good Penna red, in store, including a lot of Southern do. at 132c, afloat, and white at 138@140c, the latter for Southern. Rye is steady, with further sales of Penna at 70c. Corn comes in slowly, and prime yellow is wanted at 54½c, afloat; 2,000 bus Southern sold at prices to be fixed; 2,500 bus, in the ear, and in store, at 53½@54c. Oats continue dull and neglected at 35@36c for prime Penna. Barley and Malt are quiet.

BARK.—There is a steady demand for Quercitron, with further small receipts and sales of 1st No. 1 at $33 50 ℔ ton.

COTTON.—The market is firm but very quiet to-day, at previous rates.

GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS.—There is very little doing, and no change to note in either.

CLOVERSEED.—There is a steady demand, and further sales of good and prime lots at $5@5.75 ℔ bus. Nothing doing in Timothy or Flaxseed.

WHISKY is selling in lots, as wanted, at 24c for Western bbls, and 22c for drudge, and quiet.

CITY ITEMS.

"THE DARK DAYS OF WASHINGTON CITY."—This will be the subject of a lecture to be delivered at Concert Hall this (Monday) evening, by the Rev. C. M. Butler, D. D. Those who know, pronounce this lecture to be one of the most interesting for a popular audience, at this particular juncture, ever given in this city. The proceeds of the lecture will be for the benefit of a mission of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this city. A rich treat and a crowded house may be anticipated.

CARD PHOTOGRAPH OF COLONEL LYLE.—The numerous friends, in this city and elsewhere, of Colonel Lyle, of the Ninetieth Regiment P. V., formerly of the National Guard, will be glad to learn that an admirable carte de visite of the gallant Colonel has just been executed by Mr. Gutekunst, No. 704 Arch street, where copies can be obtained. Mr. Gutekunst now offers at his new establishment a splendid line of Photographs of distinguished persons, and Photograph Albums in every style, to which we invite the attention of our readers.

WARBURTON'S IMPROVED ARMY HAT AND CAP.—Mr. W. F. Warburton, the celebrated Philadelphia Hatter, No. 430 Chestnut street, has lately invented an improved Army Hat and Cap, the great merit of which consists in having a Cape attached to them, which answers practically the purposes for which the "Havelock" was intended, with imperfect success. This addition is so arranged as to be worn inside the hat, or flowing over the neck, as occasion may require. The last number of the Scientific American devotes an illustrated article to Mr. Warburton's invention, and bestows upon it high praise. It is certainly a common-sense article, and ought to be generally adopted.

FINE FAMILY FLOUR.—Mr. C. H. Mattson, dealer in fine groceries, Arch and Tenth streets, has constantly on hand the best brands of flour for family use, together with an elegant line of all the choicest articles in the grocery line adapted for the best family use.

THAT GHOST.—Much speculation exists as to the ghostly visitor that was seen recently upon the tower of St. Peter's Church. Some insist that the thing was a reality, while others hold that it was an illusion, the eyes of the spectators being made "the fool of their other senses." For our own part we are no believers in ghosts; we have faith in corporeal realities, and we believe in genuine men and women, particularly when the former have sufficient good taste to wear the elegant and substantial suits that are made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth. A real man thus attired is a very agreeable object to behold.

THE PHOTOGRAPH MANIA.—The photograph makers must be in luck, with the present rage for cartes de visite. Only think of supplying every young lady with your "counterfeit presentment," at two shillings a head! And not because the damsel "cares a cuss" for you or your picture, but because she wants to get her album filled with fine-looking individuals, all of whom, beforehand, should procure a handsome and neat-fitting suit of Spring clothes from the cheap Mammoth Emporium of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

THE ORGANIZATION OF THE ARMY.—A company is the unit of an army, and is supposed to average, on the war basis, one hundred men; officers included. The general rule for organization of such a company gives one captain, two lieutenants, five sergeants, four corporals, and eighty-five men. The first sergeant is called the orderly sergeant, and is, next to the captain, the most important man in the company—carrying the books of the company and calling the roll morning and evening. The company is formed, when in column, of two platoons and four sections, each platoon commanded by a lieutenant, and each section by a sergeant. Officers and privates can have their Spring clothing, whether military or civilian, furnished to order at the shortest notice, at Charles Stokes' Clothing Store, under the Continental Hotel.
