FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

THE MONEY MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, June 19, 1862.

There was an unusual lack of interest in the money circles to-day. The many rumors of disasters to the Federal cause in Virginia has created a suspense and a doubt in spite of the firm belief existing that our arms can be nothing else than victorious. But little is heard of McClellan, around whom the principal attraction centres, and the stories that are told of the reinforcements sent to the rebel army, are having a great effect here. It would be well, if our forces are being increased in that direction, that our people know it. It could give no possible aid to the rebels, and would silence the beating of many financial hearts, and tend to give a general feeling of security to our people and their purses.

A very moderate business was done on the street; the principal feature being large sales of gold, the premium rising to six per cent., and closing with an upward tendency. Premium demand notes were slowly called for, but prices were a little better than yesterday's.

At the Stock Board a slight improvement was noticeable, but there was a general desire to hold off awhile. Passenger railways were quite freely offered, and we have to note an advancement in most of them. Girard College was firm at yesterday's price 23; the same may be said of Chestnut and Walnut, which, at the second board, advanced ¼; Second and Third rose to 75, an advance of 3; Green and Coates brought 33, an advance of 1; Spruce and Pine advanced ½; Arch-street was steady at 25; Thirteenth and Fifteenth brought 10¼, a decline of 1¼ on last sales; 56 was bid for West Philadelphia; 43 for Frankford and Southwark; Seventeenth and Nineteenth had sales at 8.

United States 6s '81 advanced ¼ on the closing price of yesterday, and brought 106¼; the seven-thirties also advanced ¼, with but few offerings. Pennsylvania Railroad second-mortgage bonds advanced ¼. First-mortgage declined 1¼. North Pennsylvania 10s declined ¼; 82 was bid for the 6s, a decline of ½. Pennsylvania coupon 5s were steady at 93; the ordinary 5s at 90¾, ¼ advance; the 4½ per cents. brought 82. Schuylkill Navigation 6s '82 declined ¾, and Elmira chattel 10s 1¼ on last sales. Susquehanna Canal 6s were firm at 33¼, and Lehigh Scrip unsteady at 31¾. Reading Railroad shares fluctuated at prices ranging from 28⅞ to 28 56-100, about 1,000 shares changed holders. Pennsylvania Railroad showed unsteadiness, starting at 48¾, declining to 48—closing bid 47¾. Catawissa common brought 8⅞@4, closing at the latter; the preferred was very uneasy, falling from 12 to 11¾, ice latter was ¼ advance on yesterday's sales. Minehill firm at 47¼. North Pennsylvania declined ¼ on sales, ½ on closing bids. Morris Canal shares, consolidated, advanced to 47, Delaware Division to 40, Schuylkill Navigation preferred to 16¼@5¾ bid for the common. In bank shares there was but little movement. We noted one sale of Mechanics' at 25¾. 108 was bid for Philadelphia; 48 for Commercial; 40 for Girard; 62 for Western, and 43 for City.

Rates for money continue the same, with but few calls. Nothing doing in land warrants. Drexel & Co. quote:

New York exchange	Par to 1-10 dis.
Boston exchange	" to 1-10 pre.
Baltimore exchange	" to 1-10 dis.
Country funds	¼ to 5-10 dis.
Gold	5 to 6¼ pre.
7-3-10 Treasury notes	105½ to 106
Old demands	2¾ to 3¾ pre.

A comparison of the footings of the weekly bank statement of the Boston banks, with those of last week, exhibits an increase of $532,143 in the items of loans and discounts, $179,198 in circulation, and a decrease of $674,973 in deposits, and $88,526 in specie. We annex the principal footings for the past two weeks, with the corresponding weeks last year:

Date.	Loans & Disc.	Specie.	Deposits.	Circulat'n.
June 9	$62,060,198	$7,983,425	$26,277,921	$5,069,413
June 16	62,591,341	7,894,399	25,602,948	5,876,612
Same time last year
June 17	$60,740,830	$6,213,739	$18,293,060	$6,452,517

The Chicago Tribune of the 17th gives the following account of business in that city:

Business at the bank was active, and the demand for money large; but they were fully able to accommodate customers. At some of our leading houses it is curious to see, when three o'clock approaches, the crowds waiting their turn to get their well-filled bank books into the hands of the receiving-teller. One can here get an index to the activity which prevails in business circles that is not to be mistaken.

New York exchange continued abundant. Most of the larger banks take it from customers at par, and sell at ¼ premium to customers; but ¼ quarter is charged by many houses on small drafts, and this is the rate on collections.

The market for gold was decidedly feverish. The buying price was 5@5¼ @ per cent. premium, and upper figures towards the close. During most of the day 5¼@5¾ were the rates. The selling range for the day was 6@7 per cent. About 6¼ was the prevailing figure. Of course, the premium has depended upon the rate ruling in the New York market, where it was 6¼ premium.

The following is the award of the New York State $300,000 six per cent. loan to make up a deficiency in the sinking fund, and to pay a portion of the general fund debt:

To John Cook	$50,000	113.00
" Silas Brouson	10,000	111.50
" Read, Drexel, & Co.	300,000	111.35
" Silas Brouson	15,000	110.50
" T. W. Olcott	10,000	110.50
" A. G. Stery	5,000	110.25
" Trevor & Colgate	300,000	110.17
" G. W. Cuyler	15,000	110.17
" J. R. Southworth	5,000	110.16
" G. W. Cuyler	90,000	110.05
Total	$800,000

The loan is payable in specie. This, with the premium on gold, runs up the average bids to 116 per cent.

The New York Evening Post, of to day, says:

The market for gold and Government stocks advanced ¼ per cent. this forenoon, under a firm demand for both. The State stocks were steady. The railway shares were about the same as at the close of the dealings on yesterday, the improvement on the early sales of Wednesday being fairly sustained on New York Central, Erie, and the Western roads, but without the additional rise anticipated early in the day, from the preliminary bidding on the street. Central sold as high as 95 per cent. outside the board, as against 93¾ per cent., the lowest sales of yesterday; but at and after the board the price fell off to 94¼ per cent.

The advance to 106¼ per cent. in gold has stiffened the rates of exchange on Europe, and 117¼ per cent. is called the figure on London for first-class bankers' signatures.

The bidding at Albany, yesterday, of the new State loan of $800,000, amounted in the aggregate to $5,400,000. The awards average about 110¾ per cent. in gold, equivalent to 117 in currency. The result is every way creditable to the high financial position of the State of New York. One of the successful bids was made by Thompson Brothers, at 109 61 for entire amount.

The distribution was commenced yesterday by Mrs Smith, who personally distributes all articles sent to her. The oranges and lemons will, of course, be rapidly given to the noble men. Nothing can be more grateful to them. You would all be happy to see the face radiant with emotion when on each bed a lemon or an orange is kindly bestowed. * * *

OAKFORD & SON'S SUMMER HATS.—Messrs. Charles Oakford & Son, under the Continental Hotel, have now in store the largest, best-selected, and most stylish stock of Gentlemen's Summer Hats in this city, with which they are daily crowning hundreds of our first citizens. Their Gentlemen's Furnishing department is also rich in novelties, and contains many choice articles not met with elsewhere.

FINE TEAS AND COFFEE.—Mr. C. H. Matteson, dealer in fine Groceries, Arch and Tenth streets, has now in store a supply of fine Oolong and other desirable table teas, at moderate prices; also, a fresh lot of pure Old Government Java Coffee, to which we invite the attention of our readers.

GRAND UNION BATTLE is the title of a new Polka, composed and published by C. Munzinger, 922 Callowhill street. It is said by critics to possess much merit as a musical composition.

A CONVENIENT SUMMER RESORT.—Those of our citizens who desire to secure comfortable summer quarters, convenient to the city, in a delightful and healthy location, we would recommend them to the boarding house of the Misses Harrison, near the summit of Chestnut Hill. For particulars, see advertisement in another column.

A REBEL DRAFT AT SAVANNAH.—A draft was recently made in Savannah for soldiers to serve in the rebel ranks. When the time came for making excuses, there was a scene which, as an uninterested outsider, one could only hold his sides and laugh at. Hats were crushed, ribs punched, corns smashed, and clothes torn. Every hand held its magic bit of paper, from the begrimmed digits of the individual just from a stable or a foundry, to the dainty gloved extremity of the dry-goods clerk, just from his counter. Young and old, rich and poor, neat and nasty, Americans and foreigners, all wanted to get out of the liability to don uniforms, and prayed for the opportunity to wear civilian garments from the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, Philadelphia.

IMPORTANT LETTER FROM ABRAHAM LINCOLN TO THE GRAND SULTAN.—To his Sublime, Venerable, Middle-aged, Youthful Brother of the Golden Horn, Harem Scarem Highness, &c., &c.—May you live a thousand years! It is with undisguised satisfaction that we hear of your refusal to admit in your waters the private flag of the C. S. A., in which action you have placed yourself in the van of European civilization. May you live two thousand years! Mrs. Lincoln sends her respects to your ladies. May they live three thousand years! Accept the thanks, also, of General McClellan and Professor Lowe.

(Signed) ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

P. S.—If you get tired of your loose, ill-fitting trowsers, we will be happy to furnish you with a comfortable suit from Stokes' one-price, under the "Continental."

HOW TO BE MISERABLE.—Think about yourself, about what you want, what you like, what respect people ought to pay you, what people think of you; and then to you everything will be pure. You will spoil everything you touch; you will make sin and misery for yourself out of everything, and you will be truly miserable. Another way to insure misery would be to purchase your clothing elsewhere than of Granville Stokes, the fashioner and clothier, No. 609 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, where the garments are far superior and the prices 25 per cent lower than any other establishment.
