BRIMSTONE.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

All things that earth produces
Have their benefits and uses,
And their mischiefs and abuses;
For example, Brimstone takes—

By a fiction so ridiculous
That it cannot fail to tickle us,
It is rumored that Old Nicholas
Loves it better than plum cake.

But no medicine is better
For scrofula or tetter;
And our land is such a debtor
To this Emperor of drugs—

That, without it, scarce our nation,
Could perform a celebration,
Or afford a fumigation
To the rebels, rats, and bugs.

Oh yes, 'tis Brimstone raises
In our cooking-stoves the blazes,
And on battle-field amazes
Traitor Chieftains stout and bold.

But the amazement of each traitor
Would certainly be greater,
Could he be a calm spectator
Of the Goods by BENNETT sold.

The quality, style, and low prices of our CLOTHING have always astonished those who, like the Southerners, have never had a practical acquaintance with the cash system of doing business; how much greater would they astonish them now, when contrasted with the present exorbitant prices of every necessary article in that misguided portion of our country. Our stock of Ready-made Clothing is the largest and most complete in Philadelphia, adapted to the tastes and pockets of all—comprising all desirable styles and all prices, from the finest that can be purchased in Philadelphia or elsewhere, to medium and low grades. Being guided by long experience, the style and workmanship of our goods cannot be excelled, and buying and selling for Cash only, enables us to sell at the lowest possible prices.

Obituary—A Young Soldier.

Dulce et decorum est pro patria mori—i. e., "It is sweet and splendid to die for one's country."—Horace.

The love of Heaven as a country is the highest form of patriotism. That is the "better country."—Heb. xi 16.

The love of one's country in this world is only one degree lower or inferior, as a form of patriotism, to the Christian's love of Heaven! Both forms are sweet to the taste and splendid in manifestation! So thought the grand old Roman patriot and poet, HORACE.

There is nothing in the true patriotism of Heaven or earth, which is rude, bombastic, repulsive, or profane. The patriotism, which commands admiration, includes justice, prudence, temperance, fortitude; is dignified, silent in its own praise, retiring, modest, but firm, and indubitably courageous.

These thoughts arose on reading in the Inquirer, of the 13th instant, an account of "The battle of Fair Oaks," near Richmond. In the list of casualties, among the killed is found the name of EMLEN RITTER, Company E, of Baxter's famous Fire Zouaves. This young man was the son of Mr Jacob K. Ritter, of this city, and entered the army when but 17 years old. He was noble in stature, robust and handsome.

He was in the employ of ALFRED M. HERKNESS, Esq., for nearly three years, and was highly esteemed by that gentleman. The criminal and infamous rebellion now raging in our beloved country caused the death of this fine young patriot, and thus threw his family circle into "mourning, lamentation, and woe." His remains were interred in Glenwood Cemetery on the 16th instant. His last words were noble, even sublime—Lieut. Allen says of him, "He was sensible to the last, and wished me to tell his father and mother that he had fallen in a good cause, and not to sorrow about him, as he would soon be with his Maker." His Chaplain, Rev. McCollins, attests, "I do know that he lived honorably and died nobly, the death of a soldier and patriot." A Testament and daguerreotype, found on his person, were sent to his parents. His officers styled him "a hero!"

O, thou wicked spirit of Rebellion!

Why art thou not drowned before now in the flood of tears shed by bereaved parents, wives, and children, scattered over our fair land?

"The Lord rebuke thee," thou foul spirit! Who can deserve a record of "everlasting remembrance," more than the pious, gallant soldier, who gives his life to save his country?

"All that a man hath will he give for his life!" But the heroic soldier gives his life. "It is sweet and glorious to die for one's country."!

Americans! especially American ladies, your fame is fair and wide-spread; see that amidst the constellation of virtues attractively blended in your characters that your constant attention to the wants and comforts of the sick and wounded soldiers in our hospitals will shine with brilliant lustre. See that you will prove what has already been written of you—namely, that you are

"Ready at every battle-call
To bind up wounds and cheer the heart."

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, TO THE MARSHAL OF THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA, GREETING:
WHEREAS, The District Court of the United States in and for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, in a certain cause of prize, moved and prosecuted in the said Court in the name of the United States of America, against the schooner ROWENA, whereof Edward Ward is master, her tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the goods, wares, and merchandise laden on board thereof, captured by the United States gunboat Penobscot, inside of Stono Inlet, South Carolina, as prize, and brought into the port of Philadelphia in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, rightly and duly proceeding on the day of the date hereof, upon the libel filed by the Attorney of the United States, on behalf of the said United States, hath decreed the arrest of the said schooner ROWENA, her tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the goods, wares, and merchandise laden on board thereof.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.
CONGRESS SPRING
WATER DEPOT, 79 CEDAR STREET,
NEW YORK.
SARATOGA, July 16, 1861.
An attempt has been made to deceive the public by persons offering what they call "CONGRESS WATER" from fountains, and at the price of six (6) cents per glass. The wholesale price of the genuine Congress Water, at New York, being about 7½ cents per glass, the impossibility of pretending to sell at retail at less than cost, and without allowance for freight, cartage, or breakage, is apparent; but their probable course has been to empty one bottle of genuine Congress Water into a fountain filled with their trash, and thereby christening its total contents.
We have NEVER sold Congress Water in fountains, nor in vessels of any other description than ordinary-sized glass bottles. The cork of every bottle of the genuine is branded,

And any without letters on the cork is whether from fountains or bottles.
