ENTHUSIASTIC WARD MEETING.—In response to a call, the citizens of the Nineteenth ward, irrespective of party, assembled last evening at the corner of Frankford road and York street, to form a National Union Association for the War. Mr Fletcher Budd was elected temporary chairman, and a committee of one from each precinct appointed to nominate a permanent officers. During their absence, the meeting was addressed by Dr. Hamilton and Mr Jeremiah Eldridge, and other local speakers, who, in an eloquent and forcible manner, portrayed the rise and progress of the present iniquitous rebellion against the Government, and pledged the resources of the ward to the last man, and to the last dollar, for its suppression. Their remarks were received with every demonstration of applause. At this point, the committee on officers returned, and Mr Samuel P Hall was, upon their recommendation, elected chairman of the association. Mr. Hall, upon taking the chair, returned thanks for the honor conferred upon him, in a neat and patriotic speech. The meeting was, by all odds, the largest and most enthusiastic ever convened in the ward. But one sentiment seemed to pervade the assemblage, that of sustaining the Government at all hazards in all its measures for the suppression of the rebellion. The old Nineteenth is unmistakably loyal.

MILITARY ITEMS.—A portion of the troop known as the Anderson Cavalry have gone into camp at Carlisle, Pa. The men have been enlisted in Philadelphia; a number remaining here left yesterday for the above place, where they will remain until ready for the march. A squad of two hundred and twenty-six recruits for regiments now in service passed through our city last evening from New York. They were the recipients of a collation at the Cooper Shop Saloon. The two committees at the place have made an arrangement by which they wait upon squads or companies alternately. In case of the arrival of a regiment, they labor conjointly in their good offices. The firm Exchange Regiment has now over nine hundred men in camp, and bids fair to be the first completed regiment of the new regiments. Every officer has received instructions to report at the camp immediately, and none are permitted to leave without a written pass from the officer in command. The extra bounty is awarded to the men by Samuel L. Ward, Esq., treasurer of the fund. Quartermaster Addicks supplies the necessary rations.

DROWNED.—About seven o'clock last evening, John Moore, aged ten years, was drowned at the Falls of Schuylkill. The deceased was a son of Alderman Moore, at Fourth and Shippen streets.

PERSONAL.—President Roberts, of Liberia, passed through the city yesterday, and is now stopping at Atlantic City. He will return in a few days.

The hero of Cache, Arkansas, Gen. Alvin P. Hovey, has had another conflict with Hindman's rebel army, near Clarendon, Arkansas, in which he routed the traitors and took seven hundred prisoners. The battle is reported to have been a very fierce one, but Hovey was victorious. His is the "Banner Division" of Curtis' army.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

THE MONEY MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, August 19, 1862.

Some disappointment is being manifested at the non-appearance of the new postage stamps for circulation, many being under the impression that they would be ready at the time the law was to go into effect. From what we can learn they will be delivered in large amounts within the next ten days, or about the first of September. They will no doubt make their appearance in small lots in a day or two. It is understood that the Post Office Department will receive and immediately turn them over to the Treasury, which will distribute them only through the regular Treasury Depositories. At first, it is said, no orders will be filled except for small amounts, so as to throw them into as general circulation as possible at once. They will be delivered to the public in sheets. A sheet of five-cent notes will be one dollar; a sheet of ten-cent notes will be two dollars; a sheet of twenty-five-cent notes will be four dollars; a sheet of fifty-cent notes will be eight dollars.

The above plan of distribution will be objectionable, unless the Department is ready to furnish the notes of less denomination than five dollars if they require them to be exchanged only for treasury notes, as there is a very severe penalty against selling them at a premium. The plan to be adopted is entirely unnecessary, and will impede rather than facilitate their general and speedy circulation, as every one having fifty or one hundred dollars of them becomes a depositary for their distribution.

The stock market was again active, and prices well maintained, closing very firm; and, with a favorable report from our army in Virginia, which may be received at any moment, would cause a very general advance, especially among the fancies. 101¼ was bid for United States coupon sixes, '81, and the 7-30 loan closed at 101¼ bid, and 105 asked. State fives were very firm at 90, and the coupons rose ¼. City loans were very stiff at yesterday's figures. The shares of the Pennsylvania Railroad were in active request at an advance of ¼, and the bonds were held higher. All the better class of securities were offered very sparingly. Reading Railroad rose a fraction at the opening, but this was afterwards lost. The other fancies were without essential change. Bank shares were steady at 130 for North America; 110 for Philadelphia; 50 for Farmers' and Mechanics'; 45 for Commercial; 60 for Northern Liberties; 25 for Mechanics'; 60 for Kensington; 23¾ for Manufacturers' and Mechanics'; 44 for Tradesmen's; 44 for City; 82 for Commonwealth; 25¼ for Consolidation; and 28 for Corn Exchange. In passenger railway securities the only sale was a lot of Arch-street at 25—½ more than was bid yesterday.

Gold fluctuated but little to-day, opening at 14¼, with large sales, and closing dull at 14. Silver is in more demand, at better rates than yesterday.

There was more inquiry from outside parties for demand notes, but little change in price.

Drexel & Co quote:

New York Exchange	par@1-10 dis.
Boston Exchange	par@1 10 pm.
Baltimore Exchange	par@ ¼ dis.

These is extraordinary activity on the Stock Exchange to-day. The absence of unfavorable news from the seat of war, coupled with the rapid recruiting of the new regiments, gives the operators for the rise a decided advantage, and the orders to buy this morning are larger than we can say since the buoyant market just previous to the battles before Richmond. The large earnings of the railroads and the great abundance of money enable speculators to run prices up very rapidly, and with good military news the improvement may become permanent. The transactions in stocks, it will be seen upon reference to the printed list, are larger than for a long time past. Speculation runs strongest upon the railway shares, particularly on the two Eries, Michigan Southern and Toledo.

After the board prices did not maintain the full prices of the morning, but on the whole, the market retains its firmness with a tendency to further improvement in Erie and Michigan Southern.

The railroad bonds are very strong, especially the bonds of the Michigan Southern, Erie, Michigan Central, Toledo and Wabash, and Cleveland and Toledo companies. Michigan Southern seconds jumped 5 ⅌ cent, selling at 71. Chicago and Northwestern firsts rose 1 ⅌ cent.

The feature of the Government list is the rise of 1 ⅌ cent in 7 30 treasury notes, sales making at 105¼. The issue of five of 1874 rose to 90¾@91, the coupons of 1881 to 101¼.

Money is very easy to-day at 3@4 per cent. on first-class collaterals.

Gold was steady early in the day at 115, but after the board there were sellers at 114¾. The fresh supply on the market from the sub-treasury induces the brokers to lower their buying rates.

Reliable demand notes are selling to-day at 107¼@107½. Certificates of indebtedness sold freely at 99¾, and that was bid for more.

CITY ITEMS.

MR. F. GUTEKUNST, Nos. 704 and 706 Arch street, has just executed at his gallery fine cartes de visite of the following well-known clergymen, copies of which can be had at his counters: the Rev. Robert Dale Owen; Professor William Morris, M. D.; Rev. Mr. Jeffrey, pastor of the Fourth Baptist Church; Rev. W. H. Schenck, of the Presbyterian Board of Publication, and Rev. Dr. Plummer (Seceah), of Pittsburg; also a superb picture of Mrs. Backhouse, a preacher in the Society of Friends.

PICKLES, CATSUPS, AND SAUCES.—Mr. C. H. Matteson, dealer in Fine Family Groceries, Arch and Tenth streets, has constantly on hand a supply of Crosse & Blackwell's English Pickles; also the celebrated Catsups of this firm, together with Worcestershire and other favorite sauces, to which we invite the attention of our readers.

SOLDIERS who are accustomed to Homœopathic treatment, can have Pocket Cases with the principal Homœopathic remedies; weight two ounces. Price $1 (mailable.) Homœopathic Pharmacy, 635 Arch street.

A MODERN SCENE.—

"Tis eve! the midnight hour is hastening on,
The clock will soon announce the night half gone;
Why flickers then the light from that low cot,
While others sweetly sleep, their care forgot!

A fragile form sits bending by the light,
Plying her needle on the muslin white:
Wearied her looks and weak her straining eye,
Yet still she stops not e'en to heave a sigh.

"Kind lady, are you thus compelled," we said,
"To labor late to gain your daily bread?"
She smilingly replied, "Oh, dear ma, no!
I'm working me a skirt—they're all the go!"

What a pity that the daughters of Eve cannot be provided as the sons are, with ready-made clothing establishments similar to Charles Stokes' "One price," under the Continental.

RECEPTION OF GENERAL CORCORAN.—This brave Irish hero, who has just been released from a Southern prison, is expected to arrive in town to-day. Ample arrangements have been made for his reception, and he is to be received in a style becoming a patriot and a veteran. The General will tarry but a short time North, as he intends immediately to organize a brigade of the brave sons of the Emerald Isle, and return to more active scenes. It is to be hoped that while he is among us he will have an opportunity of visiting the renowned Mammoth Clothing Emporium of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestnut, where the finest summer garments in the country are manufactured.

GENERAL MCCLELLAN RETIRES FROM HARRISON'S LANDING.—General McClellan has changed his base of operations, and vacated Harrison's Landing, on the James river. It is not quite clear what his next step will be; but there is a whisper that he is coming North to Philadelphia. We cannot vouch for the correctness of this rumor; but we will venture to guess that if he comes hither, he will take advantage of the opportunity to procure for himself a new outfit at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NO RUNAWAY.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

When that order was sent
From Uncle Sam, t'other day,
Timid wights to prevent
From running away,
An officer copied
A gent with a bundle,
And towards Delaware's side
Did he rapidly trundle.

The officer popped
'Round the corner right soon,
And the gent quickly stopped,
As a dog would a coon.
"Don't fly from the draft,
And your country forsake!"
Then the gentleman laughed
At the funny mistake.

"Don't suppose," did he say,
"That I mean far to roam,
For in Camden, N. J.,
Is my permanent home,
And this bundle holds nothing
Like baggage at all—
But a Cheap suit of Clothing
Bought at famed TOWER HALL."
