Philadelphia Markets.

SEPTEMBER 18—EVENING.

There is very little demand for Flour, either for export or home use. The sales are in small lots, at $5@5 12½ for superfine; $5 31@5.50 for extra; and $5 75@6 25 for fancy brands; and $6 50@7 ⅌ bbl for fancy lots, according to quality. Rye Flour is wanted at $3.75 ⅌ bbl. Corn Meal is held at $3.12½ ⅌ bbl for Pennsylvania.

Grain.—The demand is moderate, and prices have fallen 1@2c per bu; sales of 3,500 bus Pennsylvania Western red, at 125@130c; 6,000 bus Southern do, at 120c; white ranges at from 135@150c; 1,200 bus Rye sold at the former figure. Rye is selling at 90@95c. Corn is dull, and yellow is offered at 67c. Oats are steady at 55@35c for Penna, and 58@60c for old Pennsylvania.

Seeds.—There is more demand for Quercitron, with sales of 33 hhds at $32 ⅌ ton for fine ground No. 1.

Whiskey.—There is very little doing in the way of sales, prices are rather lower.

Groceries are unchanged; 120 hhds Cuba Sugars are offered at 8¾@ ⅌ lb.

Provisions.—There is a firm feeling in the market, with sales of Mess Pork at $12@12 25; Hams at 10@13c; Sides at 7c, and Shoulders at 5@ ⅌ lb usual credit.

Butter is very quiet; sales of Ohio bols at 33c, hhds and firkins at 31@33c ⅌ gallon.

CITY ITEMS.

ARRIVAL OF THE WOUNDED AT MIDDLETOWN.—A kind gentleman sent to the field of battle by the Sanitary Commission announce their welcome by surgeon and the provost marshal, who have kindly offered every facility for getting their stores to Middletown, where the wounded are brought in from the field. So great was the demand for vehicles of every kind to bring the wounded that none could be had for love or money for any other purpose. They found their services greatly needed, and also their stores for relief of the suffering. The munificent bounty will add to the numbers of those attracted for. O Dennond, Esq, of Boston, and George Grant, Esq, of this city, both members of the Sanitary Commission, accompanied by Dr. C. A. Kingsford of Philadelphia, left here by last night's train for the field of conflict. Rev. R. J. Parvin left also for Philadelphia, on behalf of the Christian Commission, to make an urgent appeal for a chaplain to our own paroled prisoners, encamped two and a half miles out of the city. They now number 12,000 or more. They have no library and papers and stores. Those from Ohio were without shoes. Money any other necessaries should be sent immediately to George H. Stuart, No. 15 Bank street.

PATRIOTIC FIRM.—Messrs. E. & T. Fairbanks & Co., widely known as the manufacturers of the celebrated "Fairbanks' Scales," have, in their solicitude for the interest and welfare of the nation, made not only pecuniary sacrifices, but they have encouraged a number of their employees (among whom are some of the best workmen) to enlist for the defence of the country, so that now, with all their extensive facilities for manufacturing, they are finding it difficult to keep pace with the demand. As, however, they deem their work of secondary importance, they are contributing all their energies to aid in maintaining the stability and dignity of the Government. Such an example is praiseworthy, and deserves general emulation.

MILITARY FURNISHING GOODS.—Messrs. Charles Oakford & Son, Nos 834 and 836 Chestnut street, near the Continental Hotel, have now in stock the most varied and extensive assortment of Military and Furnishing Goods, for both officers and privates in the Army and Navy, to be found in this city; also a superb stock of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, for civilians, to which they invite the attention of military men and the public in general.

CANE MUSTARDS, SAUCES, ET CETERA.—Mr. Mason, dealer in Fine Family Groceries, Arch and Fifth streets, has just received a fresh invoice of fine Chinese and French Mustards; also, Worcestershire Sauce, Catsup, and a variety of Pickles, all designed for the family use.

GOVERNMENT LAND MEASURE.—A township is one mile square, and contains 36 sections, 23,040 acres. A section is one mile square, and contains 640 acres. A quarter section, half a mile square, 160 acres. As this is a mile square, a strip one rod wide, for every rod in its square. A half quarter section is half a mile north and south, almost universally, and a fourth of a mile wide, 80 acres. A quarter-quarter is one-fourth of a mile square, 40 acres, and is the smallest sized tract sold by the Government. The price is $1 25 per acre, so that a good sized farm would cost but $50, just the price of a complete suit of winter clothing at Charles Stokes & Co's, under the Continental.

MANLY LIFE.—If it is well for a man to live as he should endeavor to avoid all those influences that detract from the beauty and harmony of human life. In other words, he should "make the most of himself," and not allow himself to be distracted, annoyed, or interrupted by anything. He should fully possess himself, living at peace with his own soul, and having a good will for all mankind. He should, like all other men, wear the fine and fashionable garments manufactured at the one-price Clothing Emporium of Rockhill & Wilson, No. 609 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, where may also be obtained the best and cheapest military uniforms in the city.

HOPE AND SIGEL.—Major General Pope had a reception at Chicago on Friday night. In his speech he declined to speak of recent matters so far as they related to himself, save to say most emphatically that the stories of unkindness or disagreement between him and Gen. Sigel were unfounded. Their relations had been, and were like to be, entirely cordial, and it was due to state that he had ever contradicted the assertion of Gen. Sigel, that the best, the most comfortable, and the most elegant uniforms in the country, were those made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street.
