POSTAGE STAMPS, WHICH HAVE BEEN USED AS CURRENCY, TO BE REDEEMED.
Public notice is hereby given that, on and after MONDAY, the 15th DAY OF DECEMBER, POSTAGE STAMPS, which have been used as currency, will be received at the Philadelphia Post Office, and registered for redemption, between the hours of 9 A. M. and 3 P. M., daily if presented within THIRTY DAYS from that date.
Stamps presented for redemption are to be separated by the owner according to the different denominations, and enclosed in small parcels, and upon these small parcels must be marked the amount of each denomination, and then the entire lot enclosed in one envelope or wrapper, and the aggregate value claimed endorsed thereon, together with the name and residence or place of business of the owner, and but ONE DEPOSIT of Stamps will be received from the same person, firm or association.
The following is quoted as part of the instructions received from the Department:
"The Postmaster General desires that you give most emphatic notice that the time for making application is limited to THIRTY DAYS, and that the public be fully warned that if the use of postage stamps as currency is continued it must be entirely at their own risk."
Circulars, giving full conditions upon which Stamps will be received for redemption, may be obtained on application at the Chief Clerk's desk.
