HORN.—Killed, at the battle of Fredericksburg, on the 13th inst., Capt. John Horn, of Co. D, 40th Regiment, New York Volunteers in the 29th year of his age.

Oh, and on the hearts of the dear ones to-day,
For the loss of the gallant and brave,
Who thus in the morning of life passed away,
To rest in a patriot's grave.

He lies with the sword that he wore at his side,
The flag of our country his pall,
While the deep muffled drum, with its echoing tide,
Tells the world of a hero's fall.

He fell at his post with his tried armor on,
In a moment of triumph and pride,
And thus from the scene of the conflict has gone,
Yet in honor and glory he died.

Come, gather, ye comrades, in grief round his bier,
And gaze on the form ye loved well,
Each quivering lip and each sad falling tear,
Of his value and worth will tell.

Come, twine ye the laurel above his pale brow,
Lay the evergreen wreath by his side,
For fadeless his name and his fame will be now,
Who defending our flag nobly died.

His friends, and those of the family; also, Roxborough Lodge, No. 135, A. Y. M.; the State Council of the O. U. A. A. McClennan, Ripple's lane, above Washington street, Manayunk, on Tuesday, December 30, at 10 o'clock. To proceed to the Roxborough Baptist Cemetery.
