Weekly Review of the Phila'a Markets.

FEBRUARY 20—Evening.

The Produce markets have been rather quiet this week, owing to the fluctuation in gold and the unsettled state of the weather. Breadstuffs are less active, but prices are rather better. Provisions are firm and in demand. There is a good demand for iron, and prices are very firm. Lead is scarce and high. Cotton is quiet, there being very little disposition to operate. Coffee is scarce, and prices are well maintained. Fish and Fruit are very firm. There is a fair business doing in Provisions, and prices are firm. The Flour market is firmer and more active, and holders are less anxious to sell. Sales comprise 12,000 bbls, mostly Western extra family, at $7.50@8 for common and good brands, including extras at $7@8, the latter for choice Lancaster county; $6.62½@6.87 for Northwestern do.; $6@6.50 for superfine, and $8.50@9 for fancy Ohio. The sales to the trade are moderate, within the same range of prices, and the receipts and stocks light for the season. Rye Flour sells slowly at $5 ⅌ bbl. Corn Meal is wanted, and Pennsylvania scarce at $4. Brandywine is held at $4.75 ⅌ bbl. In Dry Goods there is no new feature. Cotton keeps very quiet and firm, and Woolens very active, and on the advance.

GRAIN.—There is rather more demand for Wheat, and prices are 5@7c. better with sales of 60,000 bushels fair to prime Pennsylvania and Western reds at 138@175c, the latter rate for choice lots; white is selling at 180@200c ⅌ bushel, the latter price for prime Kentucky. Rye is in demand, with small sales of Pennsylvania at 86@91c ⅌ bushel. Corn—prime lots are in good demand, with sales of 30,000 bushels at 80@81c for new yellow; old corn is scarce and wanted at 85@92c ⅌ bushel. Oats are in demand, with sales of 25,000 bushels Pennsylvania, mostly at 64c for 32lbs; light oats are selling at 60@62c ⅌ bushel. New York Barley is selling at $1.50, and Barley Malt, $1.60@$1.65 ⅌ bushel.

PROVISIONS.—The want of supplies from the West restricts operations, and the stock is light. Sales of Mess Pork at $14.62½@14.75 for old, and $16@16 for new, the latter for city packed. Mess Beef ranges from $13@15 for country and city. Beef Hams are held at $16.75, cash; 500 bbls were taken at that figure. Dressed Hogs are held higher, ranging at $6.50@7 the 100 lbs. Bacon—The stock is very light, with sales of plain and fancy Hams at 9@11½c Sides, 7c for new, and Shoulders at 6½c for old, and 6@6½c for new. Green Meats are in fair request, with sales of 600 bbls and tcs Hams at 8½@9c for pickled, and 7½@7¾c for lots in dry salt; 450 tcs do sold on private terms; 6¼@6½c is asked for Sides, and 6¼@6½c for Shoulders, in soil. Lard is firmly held at the advance, and the stock continues very light. Sales of 1,500 bbls and tcs at 10½@11½c, cash, now held at the latter rate. Including Bond Lard, 10½ and kegs at 11½c, cash; country is selling at 9½@10½c ⅌ lb. Butter—There is a fair inquiry. Sales of old at 18@22c, and roll packed 15 @17c ⅌ lb. Cheese is worth 13c ⅌ lb, and Eggs 19@20c ⅌ dozen.

Scotch Pig Iron has been sold at $36 ⅌ ton, Bar and Boiler iron continues very firm. Lead—There is very little Pig here, and it is held firmly at 9½c. cash. HOPS have an upward tendency, as the exportations from New York have been unusually large. Sales of first sort Eastern and Western at 26@30c ⅌ lb, now held at the latter rate

LUMBER.—The business in all kinds has been limited, but it is anticipated that the coming building season will be one of unusual activity, and the trade are confidently looking for higher prices.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

Columbia's chief! thy natal day
Will dawn upon this land to-morrow,
Could'st thou thy country now survey,
In pity, anger, or in sorrow.
How changed that country would appear,
From what it was when thou was't here!
Thy last farewell!—oh had we heard
With reverence due, that solemn warning,
How bright Columbia had appeared
Upon her hero's birthday morning:
Then hideous war-clouds had not come
To cast their shade o'er Freedom's home.
Oh citizens, resolve we must
To mend our former faults and errors;
When men are resolutely just,
Misfortune loses half its terrors.
And if we would be truly wise,
Good counsel we must not despise.
The People, when they know the right,
Will certainly make haste to do it,
Oh may we have abundant light
To see our path, and then pursue it
As earnestly as those who his
Good clothes at Tower Hall to buy.
