TO MY FRIEND JACOB SLOCUM.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

My friend, you make
A sad mistake
In idolizing Kitty Blake.
Your reverend air
And snow-white hair,
Your wintry time of life declare.
The girls, you know,
Will seldom show
Much kindness for a wrinkled beau.
But I'll admit,
A man of wit
May sometimes make a lucky hit,
Though age has shed
Upon his head
Those frosts which lively maidens dread.
And, Jacob, you
May prosper too
If you my counsel will pursue:
On Bennett call
At Tower Hall,
(You can't mistake that building tall,)
By dressing there,
In form and air
With younger beaux you may compare.
We have the largest and most complete assortment of Ready-made Clothing in Philadelphia at TOWER HALL,

☞ UNITED STATES CHRISTIAN COMMISSION FOR THE ARMY AND NAVY.—THE NATIONALITY, AIM, ECONOMICAL FACILITIES, AND UNBOUNDED OPPORTUNITIES.

The United States Christian Commission is NATIONAL, embracing all States of the Union, all parts of the Army and Navy, and all denominations of Christians, and has the full sanction of the National authorities, civil, military, and naval.

ITS AIM is to minister to the religious and temporal wants of all wearing the National uniform on land and sea.

The Christian Commission regards our brave defenders as men, having both bodies and souls. Bodily relief to suffering men is important and imperative; without it, religious admonitions are in vain, and a mockery. Therefore, the Commission receives and distributes clothing and comforts, and sends them to the sick, wounded, and destitute, by every one of its delegates.

Religious instruction and consolation are more priceless still, and the Commission, while meeting bodily wants, does not forget that God made men living souls to live by His own precious Word, and that "there is none other name given under heaven amongst men whereby we can be saved" but the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and therefore sends as delegates only such men as love the Saviour and his Word, and delight to point others to the Lamb of God.

ITS PLAN
is to have ministers and laymen as delegates in every Military Department and Naval Station to aid Chaplains, preach the Gospel, hold prayer meetings, relieve the sick and wounded, instruct and console the dying, write to their friends at home, receive and distribute the Scriptures, books, papers, and tracts, with clothing and comforts, and accompany all with words of cheer to the men from home, and with prayer to God for His blessing upon them.

Over four hundred men have already enlisted as delegates, many of whom are still in the field and at work; thirty-one in the Army of the Potomac, others in the Army of the Cumberland, the Army of the Mississippi, at Memphis and near Vicksburg; the Army of Missouri and Arkansas, amongst our soldiers at Harper's Ferry and Winchester, Va.; in the Parole Camp, near Annapolis, and Convalescent Camp, near Alexandria; at Newport News, Norfolk, Newbern, Port Royal, Pensacola, New Orleans, and Baton Rouge.

ITS ECONOMICAL FACILITIES.
Nearly every office and store-room of the Commission is given rent free for its use; nearly every employee gives his services without salary; all railroads afford their facilities either free or at half price; over the wires of twenty-five thousand miles telegraphic companies transmit despatches to and from the Commission without charge; and the Government gives free transportation over all its lines.

For economy, directness, comprehensiveness of aim, and certainty of execution, no other agency has ever collected this; and as a field the world never presented one of greater interest or promise.

ITS UNBOUNDED OPPORTUNITIES.
A million of patriot soldiers and sailors, eager for the benefits we bestow.

Urgent calls coming daily from the various parts of the army and navy.

Great movements and bloody fields at hand.

What an opportunity offers for the Christian Commission and for the Christian public! Let it be lost. Money and stores are greatly needed.

For further information, directions, and documents, address the Rev. W. E. BOARDMAN, Secretary, No. 13 BANK Street, Philadelphia.

All stores should be addressed to GEO. H. STUART, Chairman, No. 13 BANK Street, Philadelphia; and money be sent to JOSEPH PATTERSON, Western Bank, Philadelphia.

PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED at the Treasury Department, Office of Construction, Washington, D. C., until 12 o'clock M., of May 11, 1863, for all FIRE AND BURGLAR-PROOF SAFES required by the Treasury Department prior to the 1st of July, 1864.

Bidders must submit descriptions of the Safes they propose to furnish, accompanied by drawings showing the mode of construction, and full-size sections of the material used. Also, schedules of sizes, with prices attached, and the price per superficial foot, including doors and all necessary fixtures, at which Safes of extra size to those mentioned in the schedule will be furnished and put in place. The Safes to be delivered when required, and the prices named in the bids must be inclusive of all expense of freight, and the actual travelling expenses in those cases when the Safes require to be put in place by the contractor.

All bids must be accompanied by the written guarantee of two responsible persons that the bidder will enter into a formal contract, and that he will accept it if awarded to him.

The Department reserves the right to reject any or all the bids it is be considered for its interest to do so, and no bid will be considered unless it conforms to the requirements of this advertisement in all respects.

Locks will be furnished by the Department, but must be put in place by the contractor for Safes.

Bids to be enclosed in a sealed envelope, and endorsed "Proposals for Fire and Burglar-Proof Safes."
