CITY ITEMS.

WENDEROTH & TAYLOR'S NEW OPERATING ROOM.—Messrs. Wenderoth & Taylor, late Broadbent & Co., have just opened, in connection with their old rooms, the most beautiful and spacious Operating Room in the city, rendering their great establishment, Nos. 912, 914, and 916 Chestnut street, one of the most complete Photographic institutions in either Europe or America. Both Mr. Wenderoth and Mr. Taylor have long been members of this well-known firm—the former at the head of the artistic department, being the inventor of the popular Ivorytype and Wenderotype, whilst the latter has had charge of the business department and Reception Room. We congratulate the new firm upon the really elegant and important alterations and improvements which they have just made in their establishment, and have no doubt that a still wider fame than they have heretofore enjoyed awaits them in the future. Certain it is that their Ivorytypes, Wenderotypes, oil paintings, plain and finished Photographs, cartes de visite, et ceteras, are unequalled by any other firm in the country.

STEAMED SPICED OYSTERS.—The proprietors of the popular old grocery stand of C. H. Mattson, dealers in fine family groceries, Arch and Tenth streets, have just received a large invoice of steamed spiced oysters, of the very finest quality.

STRAW HATS MADE TO ORDER.—Messrs. Wood & Cary, No. 725 Chestnut street, are prepared to repair, alter, or get up any new styles of Straw Hats for men and boys, to order, at the shortest notice.

STRAW HATS FOR MEN AND BOYS.—Messrs. Wood & Cary, No. 725 Chestnut street, have now in store a superb stock of Straw Hats, embracing every style and variety, which they are selling at the lowest prices.

HUMANITY AND PATRIOTISM.—We understand that our friend, Colonel William H. Maurice, is to deliver a lecture and recite the "Sleeping Sentinel," before the "Chester County Soldiers' Aid Society," in Chester county, on Thursday evening next. We can promise our friends there a rich treat, as Colonel Maurice is one of our most gifted and eloquent orators, and is becoming a great favorite as a special lecturer before popular audiences. His subject for the lecture will be "The Father of his Country," a most appropriate one for these times.

THE NO. 9 Manufacturing Machine (Shuttle Stitch) recently brought out by Grover & Baker, and sold at forty-five dollars, must, we think, take the preference over every other. Examine it at 730 Chestnut street.

WORMS, AND HOW TO TREAT THEM.—This profound subject at present is agitating our entire community. Some suggest let them "stand bitmstone;" others, coax the birds to eat them, and still others (they being measuring worms); to sell them by the quart; but we would suggest to the Mayor and Council to introduce fish into the squares, as we remember when a boy having heard that fish were very fond of worms. To be sure the worms perch on the trees, but then we believe there are perch fish, which would be appropriate. Then there are the suckers, to gather around the base of the trees in front of the House, that ought not reject the "Diet of Worms." (This joke is of fish-all.) If the Mayor will adopt these suggestions we will present him with a "Linen Duster" made at Chas. Stokes & Co.'s celebrated one-price, under the Continental.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE FOURTH.—Philadelphia is going to celebrate the Fourth of July immensely. President Lincoln has promised to be here, and the Loyal Leagues are going to have processions, speeches, arches, dinners, toasts, and illuminations of the finest kind. The participants in the demonstration will have a breathing space of the interval between now and the Fourth to procure for themselves new suits at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

THE fashionable dance of Paris is now the "Marche Cocasse." It is danced backward, each gentleman holding the lady before him by clasping her round the waist. When well practiced it is said to be highly entertaining; and the Empress is said to have a peculiar talent for its execution; while the Emperor still declares his preference for the neat and fashionable styles constantly being introduced by Granville Stokes, Merchant Tailor, No. 609 Chestnut street.

COG-WHEEL WRINGERS—COG-WHEEL WRINGERS.—The Universal is the only wringer with cog-wheels; they will wear for years without repair; no caution or skill required in their use; the water can be pressed from articles more thoroughly than by the old-fashioned back-breaking, wrist-straining, and clothes-destroying process. They save their cost in clothing every six months, and are warranted in every particular.

THE SUMMER MOON WAS SHINING
All alone the purple sky;
My wife and I, we tossed about,
And could not close an eye.
I cursed and swore, she scolded me,
All through the weary night;
But 'twas enough to vex a saint,
The bedbugs' savage bite.
You may be sure I certain went
Next morn to Lyon's store,
And home in joyful triumph I
Th' Magnetic Powder bore,
Which quickly slaughtered every bug,
Mosquito, roach, and flea.
Lyon's Powder kills all insects. Lyon's Magnetic Pills are sure death to rats and mice. Sold everywhere.

IN MEMORIAM
OF LIEUT. JUSTIN E. DIMMICK, U. S. A.

Among those brave officers, who have in this rebellion sealed their devotion to their country with their blood, was the late Lieut. JUSTIN E. DIMMICK, 1st United States Artillery, who commanded Battery H at the recent battle of Chancellorville. He was the son of Colonel Justin Dimmick of the regular army, and nephew of General Port Warren, and graduated at West Point in 1861. During the engagement of May 3d he was wounded in both legs, from the effects of which he died on the following Tuesday. Amidst the roar of the cannon, his voice was heard above the din, as he rode from gun to gun, crying out for more grape and canister. The number of rebels mown down by his pieces, was ample evidence to the bravery and skill with which he served his pieces. He was a bold and efficient officer, a dutiful son, and an affectionate brother, and the country has suffered a severe loss in his death. His remains now lie buried in the cemetery at Portsmouth, N. H.

THE LATE CAPTAIN HENRY GILTINAN, COMPANY "F," 73D REGIMENT, P. V.

At a meeting of the officers of the 73d Regiment, P. V., held at the camp, near Stafford Court House, Va., June 3, 1863, the following resolutions in regard to the death of Captain HENRY J. GILTINAN, 73d Regiment, P. V., who was killed at the battle of Chancellorville, Va., May 2, 1863, were adopted:
Whereas, The Almighty God in His providence, has pleased to take from our midst our esteemed brother-in-arms, Captain Henry J. Giltinan, who fell nobly contending against superior numbers of the enemy in the midst of a glorious career; therefore be it
Resolved, That the officers of this regiment have lost an esteemed companion and a gallant officer, and the cause of the Union one of its truest and noblest defenders. No nearer patriot, no braver soldier, hath laid down his life on the gory field of battle. He died a hero, true to his country and the Constitution, for which he so long has fought! His country will honor his memory with universal respect.
Resolved, That in his noble life and heroic death we recognize the eternal principles of rectitude and honor; thereby renewing our resolves to crush out this hateful and wicked rebellion.
Resolved, That his friends and relatives have our deep and heartfelt sympathies, in this, their sad bereavement.
Resolved, That a copy of this be sent to the brother (Mr. David Giltinan, in Philadelphia) of our noble, deceased companion; also, to the Philadelphia Press and Philadelphia Inquirer for publication.
DANIEL F. KELLY, Captain,
Commanding 73d Regiment, P. V.

The Managers of "The Beneficial Saving Fund Society of Philadelphia" will meet at the office of the Institution this morning, at 9 o'clock, to attend the funeral of their late associate, FRANCIS M. DREXEL, Esq.
By order of the Board,
JAMES M. SMITH, Secretary.

TO THE UNION AND LOYAL LEAGUES AND ASSOCIATIONS, AND LOYAL CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES:
PHILADELPHIA, May 25, 1863.
FELLOW-CITIZENS: By direction of the UNION LEAGUE of Philadelphia, the undersigned have the honor to invite your attention to the following Resolutions, to wit: Resolved,
"1. That the League will celebrate the approaching Anniversary of American Independence by appropriate ceremonies, at the Hall of Independence.
"2. That all the Union Leagues and Associations in the United States be invited to participate in the celebration, and that they be requested to send deputations from their respective bodies for that purpose.
"3. That it be recommended that the deputies be authorized to represent their respective constituents in any action that may be deemed necessary and expedient to perfect the organization of the friends of the American Union and Government throughout the United States.
"4. That the Committee of Correspondence be authorized to prepare a circular letter, communicating these Resolutions to the Union Leagues and Loyal Citizens of the respective States, and to adopt such measures as may be necessary to carry them into effect."
For the first time in the history of our Country, the masses of the American people are now invited to commemorate the birth of the UNION, at the place where it was born:
To re-assert the great principles of the Declaration, that "All men are created equal, and are endowed by their CREATOR, with the INALIENABLE RIGHTS of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness:"
To acknowledge our obligations to mankind, to maintain those principles as our fathers did, "with a firm reliance on the protection of DIVINE PROVIDENCE:"
To declare the INDIVISIBILITY of the AMERICAN UNION:
To declare the inflexible purpose of the American people, as GOD shall give them strength, to subdue the enemies of the Union, and re-establish and perpetuate the NATIONAL AUTHORITY, wherever it has been overthrown by treason or rebellion:
To declare to foreign nations, that while we desire peace with them, we shall hold them responsible for any encouragement they may give to the rebellion against the Government of the United States:
To give to history an appropriate expression of our gratitude to the patriot-armies and navy of the Republic:
To declare our determination to sustain the constituted authorities of the Government now and hereafter, in all measures adopted and prosecuted by them for the suppression of the rebellion WITHOUT COMPROMISE WITH TRAITORS, as the only means of securing an honorable and lasting peace.
The Committee are gratified to announce that the PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES has accepted an invitation to participate in the proceedings.
Fellow-citizens of the United States, we call upon you to co-operate with us in this FIRST NATIONAL CELEBRATION, and to adopt such measures as you may deem proper, to make it worthy of a great people who have inherited, and now possess and appreciate, the blessings of liberty.

THE LADIES OF THE UNION VOLUNTEER REFRESHMENT COMMITTEE open their FAIR at the Saloon foot of WASHINGTON Avenue on the 16th inst., to continue one week, or longer. From the proceeds of their first Fair, with contributions from other sources, we have been able to thus far, to meet all our obligations and discharge our assumed duties. The many calls on our citizens for other charities compel us again to solicit their aid to replenish our nearly exhausted treasury. Contributions will be thankfully received, and articles for fancy sale supplied by any of our Committee or authorized agents.
As there appears to have been from the first a misunderstanding on the part of the public regarding the Soldiers' Refreshment Saloons, some persons thinking they are open to all the same, we may, with propriety, state that we have no connection with any other institution for the feeding of Soldiers, but have always possessed a separate and distinct organization and fund, and our location is at the foot of Washington avenue.
