CITY ITEMS.

BROADBENT & Co's NEGATIVES.—As it is found impracticable to retain for a longer period than one year the largest stock of Negatives taken by Messrs. Broadbent & Co., now Wenderoth & Taylor, they have given notice that, after the 1st of July next, all Negatives taken prior to the 1st of July, 1863, will be liable to be effaced. Parties having proper authority, can purchase any of these Negatives for preservation, or procure duplicates from them before they are destroyed, by applying at the Gallery, Nos. 912, 914, and 916 Chestnut street, at once.

THERE are certain exciting epochs in a woman's life that are never forgotten—such as, for instance, the first time she carries a parasol; the first time she goes to an evening party; the first time a proposal is made to her; and the first time she puts on a wedding ring. The most memorable period in a man's life is when he shows his wisdom by purchasing his garments of Granville Stokes, the fashionable clothier and merchant tailor, No. 609 Chestnut street.

FACT AND POETRY.

THE GREAT "FOURTH OF JULY" MEETING IN FAIRMOUNT PARK.—The most extensive arrangements are being made in this beautiful Park for the proper entertainment of the President of the United States, the Governor of Pennsylvania, and the heads of Government, which, together with the "trades" procession, will make this one of the grandest fêtes ever witnessed in Philadelphia, and the feasting and jollity will be in strong contrast to the want and terror reigning throughout the rebellious part of our country on this heretofore happy day. Let every loyal man be prepared to join in the celebration of the day, and the first proper step will be to get an new suit of clothes at Charles Stokes & Co.'s "Oak Hall," under the Continental.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE SUMMER MOON WAS SHINING
All in the purple sky:
My wife and I, we tossed about,
And could not close an eye.
I cursed and swore, she scolded me,
All through the weary night;
But 'twas enough to vex a saint,
The bedbugs' savage bite.
You may be sure I certain went
Next morn to Lyon's store,
And home in triumph I did trimph I
Th' Magnetic Powder bore,
Which quickly slaughtered every bug,
Mosquito, roach, and flea.
Lyon's Powder kills all insects. Lyon's Magnetic Pills are sure death to rats and mice. Sold everywhere.
