CITY ITEMS.

FLORAL FAIR FOR THE BENEFIT OF A CHURCH.—A Floral Fair and Strawberry Festival was opened at Musical Fund Hall, on Monday evening last, to continue open all of this week, under the auspices of the Church of Evangelists, located at Eighth and Catharine streets, of which the Rev. Samuel L. Durborow is rector. This church, as many of our readers are aware, was organized about six years ago; and the excellent influence it has exerted in the vicinity where it is located has often been remarked. They now make their appeal to the public in this popular and agreeable way, in order to raise the requisite funds to make certain necessary repairs, and we bespeak for the ladies who have the festival in charge a liberal recognition on the part of our citizens.

THE INVASION OF PENNSYLVANIA BY THE REBEL HORDES.—The invasion of our Commonwealth by the rebels is no longer a subject of doubt or speculation, but a reality which stares every freeman in the face, and challenges his patriotism. All who can, will, of course, prepare to "meet the invader." We understand that Alter, the popular coal dealer, Ninth street, above Poplar, has given permission to as many men as can be spared from his immense force to proceed at once to Harrisburg; though, in the meantime, our citizens will be able to supply themselves, as usual, at Alter's yard, with the best coal in the country, at moderate prices.

MAGNIFICENT STOCK OF SUMMER-CLOTHING.—Messrs. C. Somers & Son, No. 625 Chestnut street, under Jayne's Hall, have now ready for their numerous patrons, and the trade in general, the most elegant stock of Summer Clothing for men and boys of all kinds, of the most fashionable materials that has ever been offered in this city, and their prices are lower by a handsome per centage than a similar quality of goods can be obtained for elsewhere. This establishment has, deservedly, won for itself a great name, and all who wish first-class clothing, at reasonable prices, should patronize it.

TEAS AND COFFEES.—The proprietors of the popular old grocery stand of the late C. H. Mattson, Arch and Tenth streets, have now in store a fresh supply of all the choicest Green and Black Teas; also, a genuine article of Old Government Java, and other Coffees, to which we invite the attention of our readers.

FINE CONFECTIONS AND FRUITS.—To persons leaving the city, we would suggest that they carry with them a budget of Mr. A. L. Vansant's celebrated preparations, done up in his handsome boxes for that purpose. His confections have no parallel in this country. His rich display of Peaches, Grapes, and other choice hot-house fruits, during the last few days, has also excited much interest. For invalids these delicious fruits are invaluable.

MILITARY TRAPPINGS, of every description and in best style, can be had at Oakford & Sons', under the Continental Hotel.

THE BEST-FITTING SHIRT of the age is made by Mr. George Grant, and sold exclusively at his well-known Gentlemen's Furnishing Establishment, No. 610 Chestnut street.

GENTLEMEN'S SUMMER HATS.—Messrs. C. Oakford & Sons, under the Continental Hotel, have now in store a superb stock of Summer Hats for Men and Boys, at reduced prices.

INDUSTRY.—Every man who acquires a fortune by industry is a treasure to himself and family, and a profit to his country, by adding to the common stock. It becomes a bond which unites him to society, teaches him refinement, and eventually leads him to the Mammoth Clothing Emporium of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestnut street, where he can purchase his garments at greatly reduced prices.

THE NEW "LOCK-STITCH" Sewing Machine, No. 9, recently produced by the Grover & Baker S. M. Company, 730 Chestnut street, seems to leave nothing more to be required in that branch of the sewing-machine art. All who have witnessed its simplicity and marvellous efficiency in operation wonder how the complicated and noisy machines of this class heretofore in use have been tolerated so long. The price of the machine is only $45.

CELEBRATED AUTHORS.—Steele wrote expressly well on temperance—when sober. Johnson's essay on politeness is admirable, but he was himself a perfect boor. The gloomy verses of Young give you the blues, but he himself was as brisk as a bee. Thomson's praises of early rising were written in bed after ten o'clock in the morning, and Goldsmith's homilies on neatness of dress were exemplified by the most slovenly of habits in their author. All these inconsistencies are among the strange things of human nature. If a man wishes to discourse on "neatness" or "economy in dress," and to be consistent, he must purchase his Clothing at Charles Stokes & Co.'s "One Price," under the Continental.

THE INVASION OF PENNSYLVANIA!—PHILADELPHIA THREATENED!—The rebels have invaded Pennsylvania, threaten Harrisburg and Gettysburg, and now threaten the seat of government and Philadelphia. In such a crisis, the State expects every man to do his duty, and all who are able should shoulder their muskets, and meet and drive back the invaders. Every man can be useful in his own sphere, and Rockhill & Wilson, of the Brown Stone Clothing Hall, No. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, are ready to make uniforms at the shortest notice.

CHILDHOOD.—

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

Nothing is half so sweet to me,
In all the range of harmony,
As childhood's joyous, festive glee,
From every saddening influence free.
'Tis true, alas! the time draws nigh
When clouds must veil the morning sky,
And childhood's sun, gilt scenes must fly
Before the dark and stormy strife,
The frightful turbulence of life.
But oh! it is a heartless crime
To hasten on that dreary time,
To check the glow of childhood's heart,
And bid its joys too soon depart.
Be mindful that relentless fate,
Will give those joys too soon a date;
And sorrow cannot come too late.
Then let no harsh reproof destroy
The evanescent reign of joy;
And oh! let childhood's merry voice
In tones most musical rejoice.
I love to hear such gladsome peals;
My pleasure such as Bennett feels—
When all his customers are pleased,
And joy and gladness are increased.

Having the largest stock and best assortment of Ready-made Clothing in Philadelphia, of all sizes, styles, and prices, we are enabled to suit all who visit our establishment, without delay or trouble. Our prices are much below present market value.

THE SUMMER MOON WAS SHINING

All in the purple sky:
My wife and I, we tossed about,
And could not close an eye.
I cursed and swore, she scolded me,
All through the weary night;
But 'twas enough to vex a saint,
The bedbugs' savage bite.
You may be sure I certain went
Next morn to Lyon's store,
And home in joyful triumph I
The Magnetic Powder bore.
Which quickly slaughtered every bug,
Mosquito, roach, and flea.
Lyon's Powder kills all insects. Lyon's Magnetic Pills are sure death to rats and mice. Sold everywhere.

TO THE CITIZENS OF PHILADELPHIA.—The undersigned is instructed by the General Commanding the Eastern portion of Pennsylvania to furnish transportation for all troops from this vicinity to Harrisburg. The emergency is most pressing, the time is very short. The call is for the DEFENCE OF PENNSYLVANIA, and for the PRESENT EMERGENCY some organization is necessary, and the smallest organization, that by companies, is adopted. Troops, then, will be received only in Companies of Eighty Men, including the non-commissioned officers. Battalions and Regiments will be formed at Harrisburg. Battalions of four or six companies, or regiments of ten companies, already organized, will be accepted and forwarded immediately; but the emergency is too great to admit of any delay for the purpose of organization beyond that of company organization. Transportation, is already provided, will continue to be provided for all, and will be furnished to CAPTAINS of Companies on their personal application to Colonel RUFF, U. S. A., at the office of the Mayor of the City of Philadelphia; and it is particularly requested by the General Commanding that applications for transportation of troops from Philadelphia will not in any case be made to him, but invariably addressed to Colonel Ruff.

Captains of Companies are requested by the Governor of the State to report by telegraph to the Adjutant General of the State, the number of men in their respective companies, when they start, and by what road hence to Harrisburg. Captains of companies will, on their arrival at Harrisburg, immediately report in person to the Adjutant General of the State.

Arms and ammunition will be furnished at Harrisburg. C. P. RUFF,
