Ridgway, Pa., April 1st, 1874-t3. DROWNED .- Mr. James Elgin, of Scotch Hill, this county, was knocked off a ratt on Friday last, at Wilson's Bend, on the Clarion river, and before any assistance could be rendered him, was drowned. Mr. Elgin formerly resided at Reidsburg, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him, and this sad event is not only a source of deep sorrow to his grief-stricken family, but also to the community in which he resided. May that God who is the wid ow's stay and the orphan's help, bind up the lacerated hearts of his bereft family and lead them safely through the check. ered scenes of life by His unerring

Since writing the above, we have received the following additional particulars from Mr. Harmon Knight of Scotch Hill, in reference to the drowning of Ir. Elgin: "On Friday last, the 20th ost, as I was running a raft on the Clarion river, at Wilson's point, Mr. Elgin, who was on the front end of the raft, was thrown into the water by the oar; he got hold of some boards and floated down the river about two miles: assistance was within four or five rods of him with a skiff, when he sank to rise no more. He leaves a wife and four small children to mourn their loss. At last accounts his body had not been ound." - Clarion Jacksonian.

THE MONTHLY REVIEW .- To-day there was a general review. The day before, a programme had been made out, and to-day the questions were asked from it, the answers being written upon paper, that they might be examined by the teacher, and corrections made, if there were any to make. The programme was about as follows: for the B grade, arithmetic, grammar, and drawing the map of Elk county; for the A grade, Constitution of the United States, a gebra, grammar, history, and arithme-

The examination in the constitution was very rigid, but they seemed to have no difficulty in answering all questions out to them regarding it. If they can answer all the questions on the programme, they are much better versed in the foundation of their country than many of our would-be politicians. The other departments came up stairs toward the close of the afternoon, and read some selections, after which the afterno n's exercises were closed by next, being the 13th day.

Mr. Martin gave a short address, and then the school was dismissed.

The average total attendance last menth was two hundred and five; but we are glad to see that the school is growing small, as it is too large for the number of teachers employed.

A BILL has passed our Legislature in which candidates are interested. It is to define the necessary and proper expenses incident to the nomination and election of Senators, Representatives, provides that no condidate "shall pay or scribed real estate to wit: contribute, directly or indirectly any money or other valuable thing, or knowingly allow it to be done by others for him, either for the nomination, election or appointment, except necessary expenses as follows, to wit:

First-For printing and traveling ex-

Second-For dissemination of information to the public.

Third-For political meeting, demonstrations or conventions. COMPULSORY ATTENDANCE

SCHOOL CHILDREN .- The bill to secure the attendance of children at school, which was before the Honse of Representatives at Harrisburg, has been reported favorably by the Committee on Education. It provides that every child between the ages of eight and fourteen shall attend school for at least twelve weeks every year, eight of which shall be consecutive. Parents and guardians will be subject to a fine of fifty cents to five dollars for every week not excceding twelve in a year in which they neglect to send their children to school. School directors are to enforce the law and are themselves liable to fine if they neglect to do so. Children whose parents or guardians are in indigent circumstances are to be furnished with books free of cost. The application of the bill is limited to districts where school is taught for three mouths or more annually, and to parents and guardians who reside within one mile of a school. 11th, A. D. 1814, the greater part of Admitting the principle of compulsory school attendance to be all that its advocates claim for it, the bill above sketched will not go very tar towards carrying it into effect.
