Extortion in Maryland.

CAMP OF THE 9ZD N. Y. S. V.,
NEAR GETTYSBURG, Pa., July 6, 1863.

To the Editor of The Press:

SIR: I find the accompanying extract in the columns of the Baltimore American and Commercial Advertiser of this date. It is perhaps a discordant note among the pæans of victory to allude to matters of this character, but the extortions of the people of Maryland, on the route from Frederick to Gettysburg, are too notorious to be passed without comment:

"Some of our Philadelphia papers have grossly slandered the unfortunate people in the vicinity of the battle-field and those of the adjoining counties of Maryland, by asserting that they have charged exorbitant prices to the soldier for the slightest refreshments. The fact is, that never was an army received by a grateful people with more cordial hospitality. They have not waited to be asked for food, but their doors are thrown wide open, their tables kept constantly spread, and the children sent out on the road to invite their defenders to partake of their abundance. On some occasions they have even sent food out on the roads, and everything that can be done to relieve the exhausted soldier has been cheerfully performed. Their houses are now filled with the wounded, and many of their barns, and they receive no grudging attendance from the wives and daughters of the farmers. It has been a common remark among the soldiers, that campaigning in Maryland and Pennsylvania is a different matter from operations in Virginia. Here there is an abundance of food, and kind hearts and willing hands to prepare it, whilst in Virginia starvation is the rule and abundance the exception. Near every bush in their present campaigning ground they find a friend, whilst from every bush in Virginia there was a miserable bushwhacker ready to waylay and murder them."

It is no trifling outrage to demand from the poor soldier, worn by long and wearisome marches, and longing for some alleviation of the army rations, prices which would cause the most shameless sutler to blush. To be specific: I know that the common prices paid by the soldiers of our regiment, on the route from Frederick to Gettysburg, and from Taneytown to Westminster, were, for loaves of bread, weighing from two to three pounds, from thirty-five (35) to fifty (50) cents. Sweet milk usually sold from ten to twenty-five cents per quart. Skimmed milk was often sold for ten cents per quart. Pies, which would sell slowly in your bakeries for twelve cents, were sold for twenty-five. These prices were the rule, were not the prices of second-hand speculators, but of farmers, whose fields were covered with splendid harvests, and whose buildings gave evidence of ample wealth. There were exceptions, which will always be held in grateful remembrance by the Army of the Potomac; but I am afraid that the general wish of the soldiers consigned these rich and miserly farmers to the tender mercies of rebel rule.

I am, sir, very respectfully, yours,
Lieut. E. S. CORSER,
93d Regiment N. Y. S. Volunteers.

BECOMINGLY DRESSED.—That the majority of women prefer being fashionably to becomingly dressed, is a fact that the universal wearing of high bonnets has tended firmly to establish; and it is an extraordinary one, since the majority of women are, at the same time, well aware that the eyes of those they dress to gladden invariably prefer the "becoming" to the "fashionable." Every man, also, is fond of being well dressed, and it is on this account that we recommend him to the Salatoga Clothing Emporium of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestnut street.

A FIRST-CLASS NOTICE (A GOOD WAY), AFTER SHAKSPEARE.—When the hump-backed tyrant had that extraordinary courting scene with Lady Anne, on the occasion of her husband's funeral, and after he had got about a hundred and fifty pounds to the square inch of conceit on in consequence of his success in his suit, he talked about employing a score or two of tailors to study fashions to adorn his body. We consider this speech of Richard's conclusive evidence that the London schneiders were far behind the present age in respect to professional skill. We know two gentlemen who are of the tailoring persuasion—Messrs. Rockhill and Wilson by name—who of themselves can turn out garments good enough for Mr. Gloster, "or any other man," and by way of testimony to that fact, we invite all persons of an inquiring turn of mind to pay a visit to their Brown-stone Clothing Hall, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

HO! FOR THE PRESIDENCY.—We see it stated in the New York Times that Gen. Meade is not eligible to the Presidency, on account of his having been born in Spain, to which correspondent thus replies: "Such was the law, but in 1855 or 1856 it was amended so as to declare all persons born of American parents, temporarily abroad, native born. The amendment included all of those born before the enactment, as well as those to be born." For goodness sake! don't let Gen. Meade know that he is eligible to the Presidency (if he don't know it), before he "bags Lee," or there will be no more planning of battles but planning for nominations. A good general should think of nothing but giving the enemy a "good dressing;" he himself can get one at Charles Stokes & Co.'s One Price, under the Continental.

SCROFULA, CANCER, EPILEPSY, AND ALL Disorders and Diseases originating from a depraved or imperfect state of the Blood, are permanently cured by DR. D. JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE. In proof of this thousands of testimonials have been received from persons restored to health by its use, a few of which are here subjoined:

SCROFULA ENTIRELY CURED.

Miss O. A. COVELL, of Prattsburg, New York writes:

"About two years ago, a swelling came in appearance on the left side of my neck, which at first we thought to proceed from cold. It increased in size, and became very painful and sore. A physician pronounced it scrofula, or King's Evil, and for a year various remedies were used to scatter it, but without avail. I commenced taking Dr. D. JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE, which at first made the disease grow worse. It was lanced, and then it became a painful, eating sore. with deep places in it, half a finger deep. I continued to take the Alterative, and used poultices of flaxseed and slippery elm, and in five months from commencing the use of the Alterative the sore was healed, and became entirely well, and has continued so until now—seven months since."

SCROFULA FROM INFANCY.

Mr. ENOCH CLEM, of Main Locust, near Scottsville, Missouri, writes:

"My little daughter was, from infancy, afflicted with what my physician termed Scrofula. I tried JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE, which performed a perfect cure, in less than three months."

CANCER ON THE BREAST.

Mrs. P. L. BOUTON, of Altona, Louisa county, Iowa, writes:

"I was suffering for two years with a cancer on my breast. The different physicians to whom I had applied advised me to submit to a surgical operation, which I could not summon fortitude enough to undergo. I used four bottles of Dr. D. JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE, which cured me."

CANCEROUS TUMOR.

Mr. HENRY H. SHOEN, of Woodland, Barry county, Michigan, writes:

"I had a small tumor near my right shoulder blade for years. Last season this tumor began to enlarge and inflame, troubling me very much. My physician pronounced it a scirrhous tumor. Other physicians had previously called it a cancerous tumor, and advised me to have it cut out, which I refused. I commenced using the tumor night and morning, with a solution of iodine and hydriodate of potassa, it has disappeared."

EPILEPTIC FITS THOROUGHLY ERADICATED.

Mr. ISAAC HERSHEY, of Lincoln, Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, writes, under date of September 11, 1862:

"For two years my son was troubled with Epileptic Fits, which dreadful affliction continued to grow worse, the fits getting gradually more severe, with shorter intervals between them, notwithstanding constant efforts were made for his relief. A trial was given all medicines which were properly recommended, but with no beneficial effect. At length I was handed, by your agent, Mr. S. P. A. Weidman, a copy of your 'Medical Almanac,' and reading there the certificates of cures effected by your medicines, I was induced to give them, also, a trial. My son commenced to use your ALTERATIVE, January 29, 1861, and until the last of May enjoying had taken twelve bottles Alterative, three of Vermifuge, and six boxes of Sanative Pills, the result being all that could be desired. For sixteen months he has been entirely free from the complaint, and, in all thankfulness, I attribute his cure solely to the use of your medicines."

SALT-RHEUM ENTIRELY CURED.

Mr. ALFRED STEWART, of Columbus, St. Clair county, Michigan, writes:

"I was for several years afflicted with Salt Rheum. I had applied frequently to physicians for relief, but received but little from their treatment. I was cured by using six bottles of JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE and three boxes Sanative Pills."

TERRIBLE CASE OF DROPSY.

Mr. DAVID BROOKS, of Potter township, Centre county, Pennsylvania, writes:

"I, David Brooks, aged fifty-seven, do certify that I have been terribly afflicted with dropsy. My case was considered hopeless, having been twice tapped, and wishing to undergo the operation again, the doctor refused my request. Thus I was induced to try your medicine. I used eighteen bottles of JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE, and one box of your SANATIVE PILLS, and now feel entirely cured, and am in the enjoyment of good health."

GOITRE FOR MORE THAN TWENTY YEARS.

CATHARINE SHEELES, of Sheshequin, Bradford county, Pa., writes:

"For more than twenty years I have been afflicted with Goitre, or Swelled Neck, and it had increased so much that I was in danger of suffocation. The disease baffled the skill of physicians, and about a year ago I was induced to try your Alterative. In one week the circumference of my neck was reduced three inches. I continued its use for about six months, when I considered myself cured. I have no hesitation in saying that my life has been saved by the use of your medicines."

RESTORED TO PERFECT HEALTH.

Mr. A. S. ARNES, of Fentonville, Mich., writes, September 19, 1862:

"It gives my duty to express to you my gratitude for the cure your Alterative and Sanative Pills have wrought in me. I was troubled for a long time with PAINS IN MY BACK, SHOULDERS, AND SIDES, which gave me a great deal of annoyance, and led me to consult several good doctors. Experiencing no relief from their treatment, I was in doubt what to do next, when I accidentally picked up a leaf of your Almanac, and finding my case fully explained therein, was induced to try your ALTERATIVE. I speedily found great benefit from its use, and in a short time was as well and hearty as ever, and I cheerfully recommend it to the public."

The ALTERATIVE is prepared only by Dr. D. JAYNE & SON, 242 CHESTNUT Street. jy9-thsm3t
