THE CONSCRIPTION.

It Progresses with Order and Quiet.

THE DRAWING IN THREE DISTRICTS.

The 12th, 20th, 23d, and 25th Wards Included.

The enforcement of the draft, in three different parts of the city, yesterday, was characterized by an unusual degree of quiet, and was in no instance attended with the slightest indication of riot or bad feeling. The names were called out to the people who assembled at the respective headquarters, and were received more in humor than in anger. Cheers for the Union were freely given, and the harshest words one spectator addressed the other was the taunt, "How are you, conscript?" True, the civil and military authorities were amply prepared for any riotous demonstration, but it is only truth to say that order reigned, not because of these preparations, but for the more creditable reason that the people, seeing the justice of the conscription act, submitted willingly to its enforcement, and gave all assistance to those appointed to carry it out.

The draft took place in the Twelfth, Twentieth, Twenty-third, and Twenty-fifth wards. The first named at the office of the Provost Marshal of the Third district, at No. 511 Brown street; the Twentieth ward at the building of the Spring Garden Institute, corner of Broad and Spring Garden streets, and the Twenty-fifth ward at the Odd Fellows' Hall, Frankford. The Twelfth ward is bounded by Third, Sixth, Vine, and Poplar streets; the Twentieth ward by Poplar street on the south, and along Sixth street to Susquehanna avenue on the east; along Susquehanna avenue to Eleventh street; along Eleventh street to Montgomery street; along Montgomery street to the Schuylkill, and along the Schuylkill to Poplar street. The Twenty-fifth ward is formed of the upper portion of the original Nineteenth ward and the lower part of the Twenty-third ward, taking a considerable portion of the district of Richmond within its bounds. The result of the drafting in the wards named was as follows:

THE FIFTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

The drawing of the names of the drafted men in the Fifth Congressional district was commenced yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, at Odd Fellows' Hall, Frankford. A large crowd was present during the drawing, but the utmost order prevailed. Capt. Yardley, the provost marshal of the district, announced that the enrollment had been made in nine districts, and the names would be called off according to that arrangement. There were fifty-one subdistricts, and the whole number of men to be drafted was 1,989. The commissioner, Mr. Taylor, stated that the sub-district names were announced separately in boxes, and sealed within a large box, and that the ballots would be counted by the assistants appointed to superintend the drawing, so that there would be no reason to suspect that any fraud had been committed. The first sub-district, embracing the First and Second election districts, was first called off, and the names were thrown into the wheel. The committee to superintend the drawing was composed as follows:

Democrats for the Twenty-fifth ward—Edward J. Brody and Patrick Reilly. Republican—Barton H. Jenks.

Democrat for the Twenty-third ward—T. W. Duffield. Republican—Richard Garsed.

The other members of the committee were not present.

The drawing of the names yesterday was continued until 3 o'clock P. M., and will be resumed to-day. Of the number drafted, there were about eighty employees of the establishment of Mr. Jenks, Bridesburg. Thirty-one gunsmiths were drafted. There were four persons named Smith—two John and two George of that name. Three brothers named Jones, and three brothers named Swope, were also selected from the wheel. UNITED STATES, EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA, SCT.
THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,
TO THE MARSHAL OF THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA,
GREETING:

WHEREAS, The District Court of the United States in and for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, rightfully and duly proceeding on a Libel, filed in the name of the United States of America, hath decreed all persons in general who have, or pretend to have, any right, title, or interest in the steamer Charleston, whereof Henry Swan is master, her tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the goods, wares, and merchandise laden on board thereof, captured by the United States navy, or vessel of war called Seminole under command of Captain Rolando, to be monished, cited and called to judgment at the time and place hereinafter mentioned, and to the effect hereafter expressed, (justice so requiring.) You are therefore charged, and strictly enjoined and commanded, that you omit not, but that by publishing these presents in at least two of the daily newspapers printed and published in the city of Philadelphia, and in the Legal Intelligencer, you do monish and cite, or cause to be monished and cited, peremptorily, all persons in general who have, or pretend to have, any right, title, or interest in the said steamer Charleston, her tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the goods, wares, and merchandise laden on board thereof, to appear before the Hon. JOHN CADWALADER, the Judge of the said Court, at the District Court room, in the city of Philadelphia, on the twentieth day after publication of these presents, if it be a court day, or else on the next court day following, between the usual hours of forenoon, to show, if any they have, why the said steamer Charleston, her tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the goods, wares, and merchandise laden on board thereof, should not be pronounced to belong, at the time of the capture of the same, to the enemies of the United States, and as goods of their enemies or otherwise, liable and subject to condemnation, to be adjudged and condemned as good and lawful prizes; and further to do and receive in this behalf as to justice shall appertain. And have you then and there duly executed, or cause to be intimated, unto all persons aforesaid, generally, (to whom by the tenor of these presents it is also intimated,) that if they shall not appear at the time and place above mentioned, or appear and shall not show a reasonable and lawful cause to the contrary, then said District Court doth intend and will proceed to adjudication on the said capture, and may pronounce that the said steamer Charleston, her tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the goods, wares, and merchandise laden on board thereof, do belong, at the time of the said capture, to the enemies of the United States of America, and as goods of their enemies, or otherwise, liable and subject to confiscation and condemnation, to be adjudged and condemned as lawful prize, the absence, or rather contumacy, of the persons so cited and called in judgment notwithstanding. And what you shall do in the premises, together with these presents, you shall make to appear unto the said Judge of the said Court.

Witness the Honorable JOHN CADWALADER, Judge of the said Court, at Philadelphia, this 17th day of July, A. D. 1863, and in the eighty-eighth year of the independence of the said United States.
G. R. FOX, Clerk District Court.

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE!
PHILADELPHIA, May 30, 1863.

M. C. Sadler, Req., Agent for Lillie's Safes.

DEAR SIR: During the night of May 19, 1863, our Grocery and Provision Store, at North Second and Willow streets, took fire at about 2 o'clock A. M.; and as the store was a two-story wood building it burst rapidly, and before the fire-engines could act, was, in fact, one whole stock of goods, including much combustible material, and amounting to over $1,000, were wholly destroyed. We had one of your No. 11 Chilled Iron Safes, which was in the hottest part of the fire, and it came out of the fire not in the least injured, except the melting of of the name, plate and paint. The contents inside were not affected in the least, and we have no doubt but that a good protection against fire now as before, and shall use it hereafter with increased confidence. The lock works as perfectly as before.
Yours truly, McMANUS & CROFT.
Late 239 North SECOND Street.

Attention to the above certificate is particularly requested, as it is the first trial of LILLIE'S SAFES in an accidental fire in Philadelphia.

I would say to all parties who want a Fire and Burglar-proof Safe that LILLIE'S WROUGHT AND CHILLED IRON SAFES are much the cheapest and the best article, and Burglar-proof Safes made; and to those who want simply a Fire-
