THE SUBSTITUTE BUSINESS.—The city population is being augmented daily by large arrivals of stalwart men from New York city and other places, who are residing in Philadelphia under the United States service "for a consideration." They are in the market, and offer themselves for sale to the highest bidder, after the manner of the slave traders. They are less moved by a desire to serve as soldiers, than to load down with big sums pockets that before were empty as well as small. With a financial question, the drafted men of this city look with favor on the exemption of the New York conscripts by municipal action. Such action keeps down the price of substitutes, for it throws upon this community a vast number of men, who have been kept back from entering the army by the low wright doctrine which makes no army at all, and enables thereby the people of this city not only to be exempt, but exempt at a low price. The "poor men" of New York will now enter the service, not credited to New York, but to Philadelphia. Thanks to the short-sighted wisdom of New York Councilmen.

The price of substitutes ranges from fifty dollars to one hundred and fifty. We have heard instances of the payment of as high a sum as two hundred and fifty. The latter is certainly an exorbitant figure in view of the fact that there are so many men offering themselves. Those who pay such high amounts will learn the mistake of acting too hastily. It is estimated that of those drawn from the wheel, about one-fourth will enter the service. The remainder will be exempted by disability or by the procurement of substitutes. Very little hope may be entertained that an escape can be effected by those who are among the overplus of fifty per cent. The applications for exemption on account of physical disabilities are very large, and it is quite likely that so many of the claims will be honored that the fifty per cent. of names will not cover the deficiencies.

Many of the "substitute" men are holding back in the hope of higher prices. Such a hope, we suggest, will turn out an illusion. The returning volunteers who enlisted for the Pennsylvania "emergency," having a taste for the military life, are anxious again to enter the service. Already some two or three hundred have enlisted in volunteer regiments, and were satisfied with the extent of the Government bounty. They will naturally enter as competitors in the substitute market, and inasmuch one hundred dollars will be considered a high bounty, independent of what a substitute obtains from the Government.

CORONER'S INQUEST IN THE MCKEE MURDER.—At eleven o'clock yesterday morning, the coroner commenced an investigation into the facts and circumstances connected with the murder of Enos McKee.

It may be stated here that a young man named Henry Hazzard voluntarily surrendered himself to the custody of officer John Darragh, at Race and Eleventh streets, on Thursday night. He admits having a billy, and says that David Hazzard did the shooting. Hazzard bears the character of being a notorious rowdy. So far, he has escaped the police, but his final arrest may be considered a certainty. He cannot long escape.

Some of the evidence, however, seems to implicate Young in the shooting.

Wm. Keigler, who was in the car at the time the shooting occurred, testified that a disturbance was caused by the intrusion of two men, one of whom seated himself on the lap of a man; saw Young have a pistol in his hand; heard a report, but did not see Young fire; I saw a man lying in the road; he was short.

William T. Roberts sworn.—I was in the car when the disturbance occured; heard the report of a pistol, but did not see any person fire one; I remained in the car until reaching the depôt; when I arrived there I heard Patrick Lyon and William Cooper say they could point out the man who fired the pistol; Henry Young and David Hazzard were pointed out, the last-named as the one who fired the pistol; he was taken into custody, and handed over to a police officer, who proceeded to the office of Alderman Hutchinson with him; the prisoner, by some means or other, slipped away from the officer; I heard Young say, after the disturbance, "I have lost my watch and pistol."

Francis G. Lukens sworn.—I saw Young get into the car; he had a billy in his hand; did not see him hit anybody with it.

James Craig testified that he was on a car going up; saw a man chasing another around the car where the disturbance was; they ran across the street; saw the chasing man fire a pistol; think that man was Young.

Patrick Lawrence saw a man run around the car and fire a pistol; did not see Young do anything.

James McClure recognized Young as one of three men standing in the doorway of the car; think Young had a billy in his hand.

Matthew Tully testified that a man alongside of him fired a pistol; the lock went through the clothing of witness; Young was one of the party engaged in the disturbance.

John Ritter was with McKee when he got into the car; heard the report of a pistol, but don't know who fired it; did not miss McKee until reaching the depôt; went back after him, and found him shot.

Chas. Beck testified that he found McKee lying wounded near a fence; he said he had been shot by two New York rioters.

Wm. Cooper, a soldier, testified that he was on the car when the disturbance took place; after the firing, Young came to him and tried to take his musket from him.

Dr. E. B. Shapleigh testified that he made a post mortem examination of deceased; found a contused wound over the left eyebrow, as if from a blunt instrument; there was no fracture of the bone of the head, nor any effusion of blood upon the brain; there were two gun-shot wounds, one of entry and the other of exit; the ball entered through the body of the tenth rib, right side, at the posterior angle, passed through the lower edge of diaphragm through right lobe of liver, through the stomach, and made its exit under the cartilage opposite the end of the rib on the off-side. This wound caused death.

The case was adjourned over till this morning.

THE AMERICAN DENTAL ASSOCIATION—MORNING SESSION.—This association reassembled yesterday morning in the Assembly Building, situated on the corner of Tenth and Chestnut streets. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Dr. Taft, and adopted. Dr. H. A. Smith was then called upon as essayist, but asked to be excused.

Dr. Geo. W. Ellis then read an essay on the Extraction of Teeth. It was referred to the Publishing Committee, after which Dr. W. H. Allen read a paper on Irregularity and its Treatment. It was also referred to the same committee.

Dr. Flagg next read a paper from Dr. J. C. Haws, which was very interesting. Dr. Atkinson followed in the reading of an essay on Institutes and Dental Science.

The report of the Committee on Dental Societies was then read by Dr. Taft. After he had finished reading it was resolved to publish it in all journals that will consent to do so.

Dr. C. Palmer next read a paper describing the instruments for extirpating dental nerves. He also made a few remarks concerning the method of making and using them. Dr. Butler also spoke on the same subject.

On motion of Dr. Kingsbury, the thanks of the association were returned to Dr. Jansen for his invitation to them to visit his Natatorium.

Adjourned to meet again at 4 o'clock P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The members met at the appointed hour agreed upon at the previous meeting.

The minutes of the morning session were read by the secretary and approved. The whole afternoon was occupied in the passing of resolutions concerning the association. An invitation to visit the Union League House, on Chestnut street, was received and accepted. Votes of thanks to various societies in the city, for the kindness they had shown the members, were adopted. Before the close, the president, Dr. W. H. Allen, made a few appropriate remarks. The association then adjourned sine dic, to meet next year at Niagara Falls.

THIRD REGIMENT UNITED STATES COLORED TROOPS.—The 3d Regiment of the United States Colored Troops will make a parade to-day, and will partake of refreshments at both the Union and Cooper Shop Saloons. These men are well drilled. They will make themselves felt in the saloons, they will make a short parade, passing by the Hall of the Philadelphia Institute, on Lombard street, near Sixth, and then return to their camp at Chelton Hill.

RECRUITING.—Volunteer recruiting has somewhat abated of late, though there is still quite a number of recruits offering themselves at the various rendezvous, under the inducement of high bounties. Captain George H. Roberts, who was taken a prisoner at Gettysburg, is recruiting in this city for the 19th Pennsylvania Cavalry, and an opportunity to join one of the best regiments of the service is now offered.

ARMY HOSPITALS.—The following deaths of soldiers located in the city hospitals were reported at the medical headquarters yesterday:

Satterlee Hospital.—Zach. Barber, Company K, 136th New York Volunteers.

Mower Hospital.—Wm. Harager, Company H, 1st Pennsylvania Rifle Regiment.

SLIGHT FIRE.—About half past 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon an alarm of fire prevailed in consequence of the burning of a small hole in a shingle in a shop at 144 Dock st. A small spark from a neighboring chimney and an enthusiastic police officer caused the fire department of half the city to be thrown into commotion.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM.—Treasury notes—ones altered to tens—were put into circulation last evening. Persons are apt simply to look at the denomination of the notes when receiving notes offered. A close inspection of the edges of the paper will reveal the green paint. As there may be plenty of tens offered, it would be well to scrutenize them.

JAY COOKE, subscription agent, reports the sale of $1,563,350 worth of five-twenties on Friday, 31st ult., at the office. Deliveries of bonds are now being made to July 17th, inclusive. The sales for the week will probably reach eleven millions.

INQUEST.—The coroner held an inquest yesterday morning on the bodies of James Frances Leahey, aged five years, whose parents reside at No. 755 Swanzon street. The little fellow was drowned on Thursday evening in the dock at Meadsley wharf.

A VERDICT.—The coroner's jury in the case of Christian Schincel, whose death was reported yesterday, rendered a verdict that deceased came to his death by a pistol-shot wound, at the hands of his son.

OHIO SOLDIERS.—An order was received last evening that all the Ohio soldiers now in our hospitals are to be sent to that State. They number 351, and will start to-morrow (Sunday) morning from Broad and Prime streets.

GONE.—Several hundred drafted men and substitutes started for Alexandria yesterday morning, where they will go into a temporary camp of instruction.

ACCIDENT.—A man named B. Kern had his right arm badly mangled at the steam bakery on Dock street yesterday afternoon.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

Supreme Court of Pennsylvania—Chief Justice Lowrie, and Justices Woodward, Thompson, Strong, and Read.

THE CONSTITUTIONALITY OF THE CONSCRIPTION ACT TO BE TESTED—AN INJUNCTION AGAINST PROVOST MARSHAL LEHMAN APPLIED FOR.

William Francis Nichols vs. William E. Lehman, N. H. Marsells, Charles Murphy, and Ebenezer Scanlan. This is an application by the complainant, a citizen of the Third ward, who was drafted on the 27th inst., for an injunction against Provost Marshal Lehman and the Board of Enrolment of the First Congressional district, to restrain them from further prosecuting the conscription of said district, the complainant, the ground laid being that the act is unconstitutional.

The bill sets forth in substance that the complainant is 24 years of age, and is a citizen of the United States and of the State of Pennsylvania, residing in the third ward of the city of Philadelphia; that his rights have been violated, and his personal liberty is about to be invaded by the defendants under the pretence of executing a law of the United States.

The bill then goes on to set forth the conscription act and its provisions, with which your readers are familiar, and avers that the complainant was, on the 27th instant, drafted under the provisions of that act, and that he is in daily expectation of receiving a notice, which it is confidently believed is to be served for duty at a designated rendezvous, on pain of being regarded as a deserter from military service, and of punishment by death for desertion under the Articles of War.

That he is advised that the act of Congress under which he was enrolled and drafted for military service without his consent and contrary to his will, is in derogation of the reserved rights of the States, and of the liberties and rights of the citizens thereof, and that the same is unconstitutional and void, there being delegated by the States and the people thereof to the Federal Government no power to enact such a law.

That by reason of the omission from the enrolment of many individuals, able-bodied male citizens of the United States, and foreign born citizens, who have declared on oath their intentions to become citizens, between the ages of 20 and 45, not excepted by the provisions of the act, and not resident in the Third ward of the city of Philadelphia, the said enrolment and draft were fraudulent and void.

That the proceedings under the draft are against common justice, inasmuch as the draft is being enforced against the loyal citizens in rebellion and insurrection; certain States and districts, and parts of States, are not being drafted in, and the complainant charges that by reason thereof the draft is unlawful and void.

The bill concludes with a prayer for a writ of injunction against the defendants to restrain them from further proceeding with the said enrolment, requisition, or draft of citizens of the Commonwealth, and of all persons of foreign birth who shall have declared their intention to become citizens in pursuance of the laws to perform compulsory military duty in the service of the United States, and from enrolling those which relate to the complainant, and invade the personal liberty of such persons, under pretence of executing the said law of the United States, and particularly from all proceedings under such pretence against the person of the plaintiff.

Messrs. Ingersoll, Geo. W. Wharton, and George W. Biddle, Esqs., appear for the complainant. No time was fixed for the hearing, but it will take place before a full bench at an early day.

THE POLICE.

[Before Mr. Alderman Good.]

One Soldier Robs Another.

John McKeever, a soldier at the Chestnut Hill hospital, was arraigned yesterday before Alderman Good, on a charge of robbing a comrade of part of the sum of $24.98. The money was taken from a table in the soldier's room. The magistrate was of the opinion that a probable cause was made out, and therefore required the defendant to enter bail to answer.

[Before Mr. Alderman Miller.]

Alleged Larceny.

James Pratt, who hails from the rom antic regions of Delaware county, was arraigned yesterday on the charge of stealing a number of articles of female apparel which he had in his possession, and of which he failed to give a satisfactory account. The article consisted of several white basques and undersacks, table-cloths and pillow-cases. They can be seen at the Twenty-fourth ward station house. The accused was committed.

[Before Mr. Alderman Butler.]

Another Hearing.

Francis Fetters and Wm. Horn, alias Schlagle arrested some time since on the charge of committing a number of robberies at and in the vicinity of Germantown, came up for a further hearing, at the Central Station, yesterday afternoon. Some articles that were traced to the possession of defendants were identified as the property of Mr. Reed A. Williams, and stolen from his house on the night of July 18th. The prisoners were committed.

[Before Mr. Alderman White.]

Must Be Beaten.

Joseph Bennett, a mule driver, was arraigned before Police Magistrate White yesterday, on the charge of beating a mule in a most unmerciful manner at Front and Dock streets. He struck the animal over the head with the butt end of a whip, and bystanders were so shocked at the cruelty as to call the attention of a police officer to the fact. The defendant did not heed the remonstrances of the officer, but repeated the blows even heavier than before. He was bound over to answer at court.

Before Mr. Alderman Dougherty.

Going to Law.

The "States Union" presented some rather amusing scenes of pugilism, ground and lofty tumbling, yesterday, in which several of the boarders and waiters, male and female, had a hand.

That which occupied our attention was adjudicated before Alderman Dougherty, about six o'clock last evening.

Two young lady boarders felt themselves annoyed or aggrieved at what they called impudence of one of the domestics. Domestic had her mouth slapped several times and a pitcher of water thrown over her. Young ladies were held to bail in the sum of $600 each to answer.

There were other scenes enacted there which gave rise to half a dozen parties being bound over. It seems an American boarder had the honor of being drafted. Conversation ensued on the subject, within the hearing of a pretty stout waggish sort of a son of the Green Isle.

American to Irishman. "You ought to have been drafted as well as me."

Irishman to American. "Why so, don't you know I'm a British subject?"

American. "I think's a coward's talk."

Irishman. "Ye can't take me down on that score."

American. "If you come out in the yard I'll thrash you."

Irishman. "That's just me handwriting."

Both parties proceeded to the yard, and squared for action. They were good on the muscle, and the contest depended on the powers of endurance. Finally the son of the Emerald Isle began to grow weak, whereupon he seized a shovel. Other parties interfered; among them were some females, who added a peculiarity to the scene by throwing soapsuds over the belligerents, while another female threw a tin cup into the crowd. This affair resulted in a suit before Alderman Dougherty, and a crossing of the actions before Alderman Beitler, at the Central Station. The magistrate facilitated the parties in going to law, by docketing the case to be returned to court.

CRESSON SPRINGS.—THIS DELIGHTFUL MOUNTAIN RESORT, immediately on the line of the Central P. R. R., located on the summit of the Allegheny Mountains, 2,300 feet above the level of the sea, will be open for the reception of visitors on the 10th day of June, 1863, and will be kept open until the 1st of October.

The water and air at this point possess superior attractions. The analyses made in the laboratory of Professors Booth, Garrett, and Camac, of Philadelphia, show the existence of valuable mineral elements, the waters of some of the springs being of the iron or chalybeate class, and others containing saline or aperient salts. Pure mountain water abounds; and the guests will also be supplied with mineral waters from other springs, such as Blue Lick, Bedford, and Saratoga Waters.

Ample facilities for bathing have been provided, new plunge and douch baths erected, and Hot and Cold Bath-tan at all times be obtained.

The grounds, walks, &c., have been highly improved, and are of a varied and picturesque character.

Excursion Tickets to Cresson Springs at office and two daily mails from Philadelphia and Pittsburg and intermediate points.

Excursion Tickets can be obtained at the Office of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, corner of ELEVENTH and MARKET Streets.
