CITY ITEMS.

EFFECTS OF THE WARM WEATHER.—It is quite true that if this temperature continued at the same high rate as now, all the year round, there would be little use for heaters, or coal to heat them. But the processes of cooking, ironing, and a hundred other things, requiring fires, are constantly in progress, so that the prospect of materially diminishing the consumption of fuel is not much enhanced, even by the thermometer at 95 in the shade. So at least we judge from the enormous quantities of coal now being forwarded to all parts of the city by Mr. W. W. Alter, from his great yard, Ninth street, above Poplar.

A GREAT CONFECTIONERY ESTABLISHMENT.—Messrs. E. G. Whitman & Co., No. 318 Chestnut street, have succeeded in presenting to our citizens the greatest Confectionery establishment in this country. They not only manufacture the largest quantities for shipment to all parts of the world, and get up the greatest variety, but they use the purest and finest materials, and, on account of their immense trade, sell at the lowest prices. They are now selling large quantities of goods to persons going to the country.

MESSRS. C. SOMERS & SON, the popular Clothiers, No. 625 Chestnut street, under Jayne's Hall, are now selling their magnificent stock of Summer Clothing at greatly reduced prices, in view of the advanced state of the season. Their styles and quality of clothing will be found unsurpassed by any other in the city.

PHOTOGRAPHS AND PHOTOGRAPH FRAMES.—Messrs. Wenderoth & Taylor (formerly Broadbent & Co.), the celebrated Photographers, Nos. 912, 914, and 916 Chestnut street, have constantly on hand a splendid assortment of Frames of all sizes and styles, which they sell at—lowest manufacturing prices. They are also executing to order, for Messrs. McAllister & Brother, a splendid set of card photographs of distinguished persons for the album.

DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS, S. T. 1860, X.—This brand is familiar to every eye, and the article has really become an indispensable medicine in almost every household. A supply of it is constantly kept on hand by the proprietors of the celebrated old Grocery stand of the late C. H. Mattison, Arch and Tenth streets.

MILITARY GOODS of every description, suitable for Army and Navy officers, can be had at Oakford & Sons', under the Continental Hotel.

THE BEST-FITTING SHIRT OF THE AGE is made and sold at Mr. George Evans's Gents' Furnishing establishment, No. 610 Chestnut street.

MESSRS. CHARLES OAKFORD & SONS, under the Continental Hotel, are now selling the most beautiful headgear for misses and children at and below cost.

HINTS TO THE DRAFTED.—It is not expected that you will make any considerable effort to get substitutes, but will yourself shoulder the musket and show what "stuff you are made of." We, therefore, have prepared these hints:

1. Remember, that in a campaign more men die from sickness than by the bullet.

2. Line your blankets with one thickness of brown drilling. This adds but five ounces in weight, and doubles the warmth.

3. Buy a small India rubber blanket to lay on the ground, or throw over your shoulders when on guard duty during a rain storm.

4. Let your beard grow, so as to protect the throat and lungs, and keep your entire person clean.

5. Wear during the winter a "bullet-proof vest," sold at the agency, Charles Stokes & Co.'s, under the Continental Hotel, then you may return a wiser and a stronger man.

WE SPEAK from experience when we say that, after having tried all the principal sewing machines, we must accord to that of Grover & Baker the pre-eminence. Those indispensable features of sewing, strength, uniformity, and elasticity—all of which are brought out in this incomparable invention—make it the best sewing machine in our country.—New York Christian Advocate and Journal.

VERANDAH AWNINGS.—Those delightful outside summer shades made to order by W. Henry Patten, 1408 Chestnut street. aug12-4t

OFF TO CHARLESTON.—How strangely it sounds to hear that a regiment of colored troops had proceeded to Charleston. It is in keeping with the revolutionary character of the times, and it must be followed in the course of a year or two by the announcement of the proceedings of the Southern Abolition Society, held at Richmond. Times change and things change with them; but in all our recollection there has been no change in the degree of public esteem in which the garments made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, has been held. Their character is fixed and their popularity as unchanging as the laws of the Medes and the Persians.

MOSQUITO NETS.—The only sure bar to mosquitoes are the nets made and put up by W. Henry Patten, 1408 Chestnut st. aug12-4t

THE COMING GUBERNATORIAL CONTEST.—The approaching election for Governor is creating considerable excitement among the politicians, and the camp-fires of both parties are already lighted. The contest will be a spirited one, and although we have our preference, yet we shall keep mum and say nothing, except to advise all our political friends of both parties that, in their excitement, they must not overlook the fact that Granville Stokes, Merchant Tailor, No. 609 Chestnut street, furnishes the cheapest and most substantial clothing at the lowest cash prices.

WINDOW SHADES.—Wm Henry Patten, the manufacturer, 1408 Chestnut street. jy12-4t

DYSENTERY, summer complaint, diarrhœa, cramps, colic, cholera, and all affections of the bowels, are cured promptly and effectually by Dr. Tayner's Celebrated Diarrhœa Balsam. Being pleasant to the taste, it is readily taken by children, and having maintained its popularity for over thirty years, it is confidently recommended as a safe and household remedy.

Prepared only at 242 Chestnut street. aug3-tham3t

$275 to $325 will get an elegant 7-octave rosewood over-strung Piano, warranted five years. J. E. Gould, Seventh and Chestnut. jy25-swtf

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE RAVAGES OF TIME.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

How soon the days of youth depart!
That thought brings sadness to my heart:
And yet how much cosmetic art
Can for our consolation do!
Tho' Time, remorseless tyrant! sheds
His horrid frost-work on our heads,
We can restore the nut-brown line,
Or black, or auburn locks renew.

Tho' Time dislodges every tooth,
That all the world may see our youth
Is passing like a dream, forsooth;
The skillful dentist can supply
A set more durable and white,
Enabling us to grin or bite,
Or dazzle the beholder's eye,
As erst we did, in times gone by.

And tho' (as says the hard sublime)
Our nerves, alas! are shrunk by time,
And forms that pleased in youthful prime
Beneath the weight of years must bend;
Yet Tower Hall has artists skilled
The wasted figure to rebuild,
Time's cruel ravages to mend,
And either youth or age befriend.
