machine, that fans the operator the whole time the machine is moving. Our lady readers will do well to understand that none of the objections applicable to heavy-working machines apply to Grover & Baker's. They are worked even more easily than the pedal of smallest size melodeons. We have seen many children of ten years old, who used the Grover & Baker to precisely the same purpose as an adult. We know of one case in which a physician, who had interdicted to a lady patient the use of her parlor melodeon, for fear of injury to certain muscles of the limb, made no objection to the use of her Grover & Baker Sewing Machine.—From the North American. August 19th.

FURNITURE SLIPS, those great preservers of furniture, cut and fitted at Patten's, 1408 Chestnut street.

TROUBLE ABOUT THE HAYTIEN MINISTER AT WASHINGTON NOT BEING THE RIGHT COLOR.—One writer to the press says he is as black as the "ace of spades." Now, we being anxious to see the nice shade of black the writer so finely describes, got the "documents," and lo! there the "ace of spades" was blue—no approximation to black—except some dirty finger marks on them, which is about the color of all Southern gentlemen at Washington. We hope the Haytien minister will not look blue, much less feel so, during his stay in the diplomatic circle; color isn't much now-a-days, but it must "be warranted not to run," and when it has that quality, we don't care whether it is white, black, or "copperhead" color. Men of all colors and all shades shades stand "fast" now; after a while you may discuss your colors; whether you are as black as the "ace of spades," or as black as the "deuce," should make no difference now. Clothing, in the meantime, black, brown, and gray, and fast colors, at Charles Stokes & Co.'s, under the Continental.

CARPET WORK or Upholstering of any description done quickly and and cheaply at Patten's, 1408 Chestnut street.

THE ANTIQUITY OF MAN.—The learned Agassiz declares that facts will force us sooner or later to admit that the creation of man lies far beyond any period yet assigned to it, and that a succession of human races, as of animals, have followed one another upon the earth. He also infers that the present generation is the wisest of any that has flourished upon the face of the globe, from the fact that in the present era the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, was established and sustained by all persons who understand their own interests.

PATENT-HINGE SPRING MATTRESS at Patten's, the best Spring-bed manufacturer, 1408 Chestnut street.

CHOICE OF WORDS.—When you doubt between two words, choose the plainest, the commonest, the most idiomatic. Eschew fine words as you would rouge; love simple ones as you would native roses on your cheeks. Let us use the plainest and shortest words that will grammatically and gracefully express our meaning. For instance, we say in plain words to our readers, "Buy your garments at the one-price palatial establishment of Granville Stokes, No. 609 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NEWS FROM CHARLESTON.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

Mistress Popkins, while reading
The paper, cried out,
"Ah! here is a story
I very much doubt:
Here's a letter from Charleston,
Its date—thirty-first,
And it says,—goody gracious!
That a parrot has burst!

"Yes, while it was speaking
In tones just like thunder,
This newspaper says that
It split right asunder!
Some curious fish stories
I've certainly heard,
But nothing so queer as
The tale of that bird.

"It's a fib, past all question,
Though told with much skill;
But if parrots won't burst, I know
Pantaloons will.
This pain my dear husband
From Bennett DIDN'T buy:
And I never can mend them—
Indeed, I won't try."
