MR. EVERETT'S ORATION.—Mr. Everett has been making another of his classical and highly finished orations, which will add fresh laurels to his fame as an orator. The distinguished gentleman is as practical as he is elegant and accomplished, for he designs, we understand, before returning to Boston, to make a short stay in this city for the purpose of procuring for himself a first-class suit from the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

IMPROVEMENT.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER.

Some people say the world has not
Improved in intellect a jot
Since Noah's Flood:—'tis true (they say,)
We're more enlightened at this day
Than those who lived in times of old.—
For instance, in the "Age of Gold."
But the old fellows who lived then
Were wiser—yes—and better men
Than those who, at the present time,
Practise rascality sublime.
Discoveries will be made, of course,
But not by intellectual force;
One lucky thought to others leads,
And so invention's course proceeds.
As time advances, every age
Adds something to the spacious page
Of human knowledge; but be sure
Men are no wiser than before;
For if they were, the world would see
Less tumult and ferocity.
And yet, for all, the world has moved,
And men in arts have much improved,
That sure improvement has gone far
Is shown at Tower-Hall Bazaar;
Where is always to be found the largest and best assortment of Gentlemen's Ready-made Clothing in Philadelphia. TOWER HALL, 518 MARKET Street.

The fame of these instruments has extended to every part of Europe.
