SAILMAKERS' STRIKE AT THE NAVY YARD.—Some time since the sailmakers in our navy yard struck for an advance of wages; $2.50 per day, or 25 cents per hour, the same as paid outside. An offer was made to work the ten hours per day at 25 cents per hour, but the authorities refused, or did not think they had authority to light up the sail loft. Some time elapsed, and finally the question was settled by Uncle Sam allowing the loft to be lighted, in order that the workmen could make full time at 25 cents per hour, and thus realize $2 50 per day.

The sailmakers, we understand, refuse to comply with this arrangement, and now demand $2 50 per day, short or long. To this the officers of the United States Government do not seem willing to submit, and the probability is, never will. The present demand now made by the sailmakers is equivalent to about 33 cents per hour, being 8 cents per hour more than is given outside. The hands in the navy yard commence work in these short days at three-quarters of an hour after sunrise, and stop at sundown. The actual time, therefore, employed to-day in the navy yard will be about seven hours and a half. For this short time the sailmakers demand the sum of $2 50. For the same length of time employed, the sailmakers outside would only receive at full rates the sum of $1 50. We are thus particular in noticing these few points, so that the people may understand the affair, and form their own opinion.

HANDSOME SUIT OF COLORS FOR THE 48TH PENNSYLVANIA.—The citizens of Pottsville are about to pay a graceful and well-deserved compliment to the 48th P. V., in the presentation to that gallant regiment of an elegant suit of colors, comprising a beautiful standard and full set of guide flags. The former is made of heavy blue silk, with the State arms of Pennsylvania on one side, and the arms of the United States on the reverse, both of which are surrounded by scrolls containing the names of the following battles, in which the regiment has been engaged: Bull Run, Chantilly, South Mountain, Antietam, and Fredericksburg, with their respective dates. The work of the artist in these colors has been superbly executed, and the mountings, including heavy bullion fringe, ebony staff, and silver spear, are correspondingly rich. The whole reflects the highest credit upon the ladies—Mrs. E. R. Bohannan and Miss Miesse—to whom the getting up of the flags was entrusted, as it also does upon Messrs. Evans & Hassall, at whose establishment, 418 Arch street, they were made, and where we may state the flags will remain on exhibition to the public during to-day.

IMPEACHMENT.—The committee appointed by Common Council to prepare the preliminaries in regard to the impeachment of certain members of both branches, have a much more voluminous duty to perform than they generally supposed. All the evidence that has been elicited must be taken over again by the recently-appointed committee. After this is done, another committee must be formed to prepare a specification of charges against the officers of the branch thus organized as a tribunal must be sworn as a court jury. Then the trial is to proceed, which may be continued for an indefinite period. In the meantime, the new Councils will come into power, and for several months all have assured us they are sick of the business, leaving the usual business of the city. After the trial and argument, which may last several years, then a vote will be taken, and if there be two-thirds members or members, if found guilty by the Select branch.

PROMOTION.—John Savage, a well-known printer of Philadelphia, has been promoted to the rank of captain of Company B, Scott Legion. He entered the ranks as a private. At the battle of Gettysburg, Captain Savage was wounded and his first lieutenant was killed. The command now devolved upon Mr. Savage, and bravely did he lead the gallant men on to a glorious victory; thus the printer-hero made an impression upon a page of his country's history that will become more indelible as time progresses. Captain John Savage received his commission a few days since.

THE LADIES' UNION ASSOCIATION.—The Ladies' First Union Association for the amelioration of the condition of discharged and disabled soldiers and their impoverished families is now ready to relieve the wants of those who may apply at the rooms of the association, No. 541 North Eighth street, Handel and Haydn Hall. A committee of ladies will be in attendance daily from nine o'clock until twelve.

THE NATIONAL LOAN.—The subscription agent reports the sale of $598,950 five-twenties on Saturday, and for Monday, $300,000. It is expected that the deliveries of bonds will soon be made with the usual promptitude, the heavy orders about the end of November being now in hand, or beyond the ability of the Department to furnish bonds as promptly as was anticipated.

NAVAL.—The U. S. gunboats Quaker City, Hosack, and State of Georgia are now lying at anchor in the river, off the Navy Yard, waiting for orders from the Navy Department to leave for active service. Orders to this effect will probably be received this week. The "Pocahontas" is undergoing a thorough overhauling at Queen-street wharf, and will be finished shortly.

THE REFRESHMENT SALOONS.—Crowds of persons, both young and old, visit the Refreshment Saloons every evening, when they are open to the inspection of all curious when they are open. Patriotic institutions are worthy of the support of loyal citizens, and we would call the attention of the people, all should manifest their love for the soldiers, contributing something for the support of these saloons.

PUBLIC OFFICES.—The office of the Water Department will be removed to the Public Building, Fifth, Fifth, below Chestnut, to-day. The office of the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department will be moved to the office vacated by the Water Department.

ARSON.—At early hour on Sunday morning, a small frame building, located at Fortieth and Market streets, was discovered to be on fire. The flames were speedily extinguished. A man was arrested on suspicion of having set the building on fire. He was held for a hearing.

GOOD NEWS.—Mr. Samuel Ward has received and will distribute several thousand dollars to the families of members of the Corn Exchange, 118th Regiment P. V., at the office, Second and Gold streets. Time, from 10 to 12 o'clock to-day.

FOUND DEAD.—Robert Ray, aged 22 years, was found dead in his bed, at his residence in the Twenty-first ward. It was supposed that he died from natural causes.

ACCIDENT.—Hugh Buchanan, residing in Dixie's court, was thrown from a horse at Pine and Twenty-first streets, on Saturday evening, and had his ankle broken in consequence.

THE POLICE.

(Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.)

Fever at the Soldiers' Polls.

On Saturday afternoon two of the residents of Fourth ward, giving their names as Patrick O'Brian and James Henry, were arraigned at the Central Station on the charge of assault and battery upon Patrick Haly, with intent to kill. Mr. Haly appeared upon the witness stand with his arm in a sling. He was questioned by the gentlemen he had received at one of the polls in the Fourth ward, on the last election day. He testified as follows: I voted in Bedford street, below Eighth; on the day of the election there were two split tickets, one a democratic party in the ward; they were called the old and the new party; I was a subscriber to the new party; this man (pointing to one of the defendants) showed signs of hostility to me, and commenced by calling me a Republican; about half an hour before the lamps were lighted he asked me how I made out with the Republican ticket; I told him I had no such ticket, he then went away, and mixed in the crowd; then Mr. O'Brien mixed in, and said to me that I had been talking enough at the polls during the day; with this, he caught me by the neck, and the other man struck me in the eye, which knocked me across the sidewalk; when I was down, I was kicked in the breast, which turned into an abscess, and my arm was swelled up until it was as big as a stove pipe; I laid at home five weeks because of the injuries I had received; I was arrested by Sergeant Neff, on that evening; I have been under the doctor's hands ever since.

The defendants had no questions to ask. They were ordered to enter bail in the sum of $1,500 each, to answer at court.

[Before Mr. Alderman Hutchinson.]

Inhumanity.

Joseph Noner is the name given by a man who was arraigned on Saturday by Sergeant Godwin, on the charge of wife-beating. It seems from the evidence adduced that, on Friday afternoon, Mrs. Noner paid a visit to a neighboring house, in the vicinity of the Spring Garden Waterworks. The husband, it is alleged, proceeded to the same place, and behaved in an outrageous manner, breaking the furniture, and then attacking his wife, whom he beat in a most brutal manner. Two women who lived in the house interfered to save the woman from such inhuman treatment, and they came in for a few blows. The husband then seized a knife, and commenced hacking or slashing his wife's head and face. Her wounds are considered dangerous. The defendant was committed, in default of $1,500 bail, to answer.

[Before Mr. Alderman McMullin.]

Another Victim.

Julia Clark, the professional name of a resident of Trout street (formerly Pine alley), was committed, on Saturday morning, on the charge of relieving a soldier of the sum of $20 on Friday night, in the aforesaid classic thoroughfare. Soldiers or citizens entertaining self-respect should keep clear of such places, or not complain if they go there and get drugged and robbed.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

United States District Court—Judge Cadwalader.

The United States vs. Henry L. Acker et al. Before reported. The evidence in this case closed on Saturday on both sides. The argument of counsel will be heard to-day, when, under the instructions of the court, the case will go to the jury.

In the other courts the motion lists only were disposed of.
