FINE OVERCOATS, AND RICH WINTER CLOTHING.—Messrs. C. Somers & Son, No. 625 Chestnut street, under Jayne's Hall, have now in stock a magnificent assortment of Overcoats, made from the most elegant materials, as also full suits for gentlemen, in every variety, all made up in "the tip of the mode," by the most skilful workmen. Being their own importers, also, their prices are unusually reasonable.

MESSRS. WOOD & CARY, 725 Chestnut street, have just opened an elegant invoice of Misses and Children's Hats in great variety.

"THE CRY IS, STILL THEY COME."—We allude to the customers that are now flocking to the popular Coal Emporium of our enterprising townsman, W. W. Alter, Esq., Ninth street, above Poplar. We verily believe that Mr. Alter sells more coal in a day than any other dealer in a month—cause why? He sells the best and cleanest coal, and gives more of it for the money.

MR. GEORGE GRANT, proprietor of the popular Gentlemen's Furnishing Store, No. 610 Chestnut street, has now in store the most magnificent stock of goods in his line suitable for presents, embracing elegant scarfs, mufflers, wrappers, and everything else, in first style, and at reasonable prices.

LADIES' BONNETS in elegant variety, at Wood & Cary's, 725 Chestnut street.

MR. A. L. VANSANT, Ninth and Chestnut streets, now offers, in anticipation of the holidays, a perfectly-sumptuous stock of Confections, Fruits, and fine Imported Boxes. His delicious Sweet Jordan Roasted Almonds, all kinds of fine Chocolate Preparations, French and American Mixtures, large-size Sweet Almeria Grapes, splendid Exchols Grapes, and other choice Fruits, are attracting the admiration of all lovers of good things.

SQUEEZED OUT.—An Indianapolis paper says that many of the families of that city are moving away because of the prospective high prices of rent, wood, beef, pork, and other things generally during the winter. All we can say is, they had better not move here, for the high prices are not in prospective here, but sternly present and real; the only thing that maintains a decent mediocrity in prices is the first-class clothing of the house of Charles Stokes & Co., under the Continental.

ON ITS LAST LEGS.—The rebellion seems to be on its last legs. Between Vicksburg, Gettysburg, Port Hudson, and Chattanooga, Secesh is coming out second best most severely, and about the best thing he can do is to throw up the sponge and acknowledge himself beaten. How is he to get through the winter with an empty larder and with his knees and elbows out of his ragged garments, we cannot say; but we do know that he cuts a sorry figure in contrast with the well-to-do loyalists who have all they need to eat and drink, and who will never want for elegant and comfortable wearing apparel while they have the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, to resort to.

WE ARE RUINED, not by what we really want, but by what we think we do; therefore, never go abroad in search of your wants. If they be real wants they will come home in search of you; for be that buys what he does not want will soon want what he cannot buy. But the clothing sold at Granville Stokes', No. 609 Chestnut street, being cheap and near at hand, is within the reach of all.

THE MONEY MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 1, 1863.

Gold was rather quiet and steady to-day, with a strong market, ranging from 147¾ to 148¾. The absence of news from General Meade causes some alarm, and until it is certainly known what he is doing, an unsettled or an advancing gold market may be expected. The report that the campaign is ended in Georgia, also tinges the complexion of opinions unfavorably.

Money is unchanged; the rates are mainly 6@7 ⅌ cent. with a steady demand. In Government securities there is no change. The demand being moderate at prices firm.

Prices of the fancy stocks at the Board are decidedly weak, and a general, though slight, decline took place to-day. State fives sold at 99¾; new City sixes declined ¼; North Pennsylvania sixes sold at 95; 103¾ was bid for Pennsylvania Railroad 1st mortgages; 105 for 2d do.; 106 for Reading '70s; 120 for the convertibles.

Reading shares declined to 60¾; Catawissa preferred to 29¾; North Pennsylvania to 22; Minehill sold at 61; Lehigh Valley at 84¾; 40 was bid for Long Island; 50 for Little Schuylkill; 71 for Pennsylvania; 29¾ for Philadelphia and Erie. Race and Vine sold at 19¾; Tenth and Eleventh at 11¾; Girard College at 27; West Philadelphia at 70¾.

Schuylkill Navigation sold at 17; the preferred at 32¾; sixes 1882 at 89; Susquehanna Canal at 15¾; Wyoming sixes at 100; Lehigh scrip at 49; Penn Mining at 4¾; Big Mountain at 4¾; Philadelphia Bank at 125; Western at 95. The market closed weak.

The New York Evening Post says:

Gold has been less excited to-day. Having opened at 148 and sold as low as 147¾, and as high as 148¾, it closes dull at 147¾. Exchange has been held as high as 163. The principal business of the morning has been done at 162@162¼.

The loan market is fairly active at 7 per cent. The continued accumulation of capital seeking investment has a tendency to make loans less difficult of access, while a similar influence is expected from the new equalization system of the banks, which will have the temporary result of releasing some of the currency that has been locked up and withdrawn from circulation.

The stock market is depressed and irregular. Governments are firm. Close coupons of 1881 were wanted at 109, and coupon fives of 1865 sold at 120. Seven-thirties are more scarce, the October and April issues being held at 107. Currency certificates are heavy, in consequence of the large issue during the last month.

State stocks are quite dull, bank shares dull, coal stocks drooping, and railroad bonds steady. Railroad shares are depressed by an increasing money stringency.

Before the first session gold was selling at 148¾@148¾, Erie at 100¾@100¾, New York Central at 183¼@184, Cleveland and Pittsburg at 102½@102¾, Chicago and at 36@36¼, Fort Wayne at 81½@82, Reading at 122@122¼.

The appended table exhibits the chief movements of the market, compared with the latest prices of yesterday:

THE RUSH OF EVENTS.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

Events come so thickly,
So sudden, quickly,
So mixed up in batches,
So spread out in despatches,
Such conglomerations,
And great botherations,
And people crowd 'round you,
And with questions confound you,
"Now in confidence strict,
Tell us what you predict."
To such applications
We make prompt negations;
For we deal not in guessing,
Or in doubts most distressing;
But the facts that we know
We are willing to show;
And we venture to bet
That the wisest course yet
Is to leave idle chatters
On all doubtful matters,
And boldly declare
That the best of men's wear
Tower Hall can display,
In its usual large way.

STEINWAY'S PIANOS.

The fame of these Instruments has extended to every part of Europe. We find on the programme of the Philharmonic Concerts in Bremen and Brunswick a note stating that the grand piano fortes used were "from the manufactory of Messrs. STEINWAY & SONS, New York." We also see by a London paper, noticing the fact of WILLIE PAPE playing before the Prince and Princess of Wales during the bridal festivities, that "the piano used at the castle was one of STEINWAY & SONS', New York, which took the prize medal at the World's Fair."
