AT A STATED MEETING OF COMPANY C, 1ST REGIMENT RESERVE BRIGADE (Gray Reserves), held at their Armory, December 7th, 1863, the undersigned were appointed a Committee to draft resolutions expressive of the feelings of the Company in reference to the death of our late fellow members, Capt. JOHN S. JARDEN, 112th P. V., and Capt. DENNIS CHARWOOD, 18th P. V. The following resolutions were presented and unanimously adopted:
Whereas, It has pleased God, in His all wise providence, to remove suddenly from us our much-esteemed and worthy fellow-members, Captain John S. Jarden and Captain Dennis Sharwood, while in the discharge of their active duty:
Resolved, That, in the deaths of the above-named officers, their respective regiments have lost brave and efficient soldiers, the cause in which they were engaged two devoted advocates, and we two highly esteemed and beloved members; that, while we deeply regret their loss, we will endeavor to emulate their noble example, and will ever cherish their names and memories among the most honored remembrances of our Company.
Resolved, That we respectfully extend to their families our sincere sympathy and condolence in their bereavement in the great loss they have sustained.

A RARE CHRISTMAS GIFT.—NOTHING can be more acceptable to friend or relative than its "counterfeit presentment" of your own face. The perfection attained in the production of PHOTOGRAPHIC PICTURES render them the very next thing to life itself, hence their value. Among those who have, by research, application, and taste, arrived at perfection in this wonderful art, is Mr. ROBERT SEWELL, No. 724 ARCH Street, Philadelphia. He not only understands how to take and finish a Picture, but he has consummate taste in regulating the position so as to produce the best effect for the various forms and features of those who sit for likenesses. His Cartes de Visite are nowhere to be excelled. Chester County Times. 1t*
