MOST IMPORTANT TO LIFE INSURERS.—Mr. Getty, the Agent of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Boston, says, in reply to my article condemning the Note System of Life Insurance:

"In 1860 William Hart Carr insured a person aged forty-seven in the New England Mutual Life Company for $5,000, premium $206, cash payment $103, note for same amount. Before the note became due the person died, and his heirs received $5,000, less the unpaid note, or about $4,900! In a cash company $103 would have insured only $2,500."

This is a fact, but as Mr. Getty has not stated the whole facts of the case, it is necessary that I should do so. The person referred to applied first to the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, but such was the Medical Examiner's report that Mr. Starr, the agent, wrote the Company, when transmitting the application, that "it of course will not be accepted"—and it was not accepted!

The applicant preferred a cash company, as he first applied to The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York.

A gentleman remarked in this office yesterday:

"A note company invites unhealthy risks, while men who feel that they are of good constitution, and likely to live long, naturally seek the strongest cash company they can find."

Mr. Getty's article, published this morning, seems to be an illustration in proof of this.

WILLIAM HART CARR,
1t NO. 400 Walnut street.

ECONOMY SHOULD BE PRACTICED by everybody in all things. One dollar expended now in purchasing a bottle of "Jayne's Expectorant," by those troubled with a slight cough or hoarseness, or sore throat, may save the expense of a doctor's bill. A neglected cough often ends in Consumption. A slight inflamation of the lining of the wind tubes, the usual symptoms of which are a sore throat and a pain in the breast, will soon lead, through want of attention, to bronchitis. A day's delay may entail months of suffering. Let the afflicted try at once "Jayne's Expectorant." It is a standard remedy, and its curative powers have been tested by thousands of persons who have recovered their health by its use. The expectorant, and all of Dr. D. Jayne & Son's family medicines, are prepared only at No. 242 Chestnut street. jal6-2t
