Public Entertainments.

CHESTNUT-STREET THEATRE.—Paul Julien's concert appears this evening for the last time. The performance will consist of "La Sonnambula," "Le Vicomte Girofleo," and a musical extravaganza. The French company have been successful as the limited patronage would allow.

ARCH-STREET THEATRE.—Mr. Clarke takes his benefit this evening. His engagement has been of benefit to the community, and long as the public are not glad that it is closing, we are very sorry. To say that he plays Sir Giles Overreach and Sir Edward Mortimer in a manner that will not be contrasted with one of the most eminent British actors of the day, would be to say that the funniest performance on the stage occurs this evening. Amidst such a crowd of good things, one hardly knows which to select. We are confident, however, that a large number will repair to the Arch this evening, for the purpose of witnessing Mrs. Drew as Mrs. Oakleigh, in "Married and Married," and "Jealous Wife."

MR. WALLACK'S CONCERT.—Mr. Gottschalk announces his farewell concert for Monday evening. Brilliant as his bills will be supplanted by Herr Formes, Madame Bordier and Carlo Patti, and the rest, and next Monday evening Concert Hall will be brilliantly crowded as it was on last Tuesday.

DECORATION.—The Harmonia Musical Society have commenced the great work at the Musical Fund Hall. Unlike the Germania Orchestra, and some other singers of the city. The performance of "Messiah" will be worthy of the music, and the Sacred Harmonia Society's debt for the Hall taken in the rehearsal of an oratorio will be without superior. If it could be followed by "Seasons," we could ask of the Harmonia a greater favor.

BEAUTIES VS. DESTRUCTION.—Mr. James Gillespie, of this city, who is engaged largely in the seed trade, received recently an order from a lady of Lawrence, Kansas, in which the interesting passage occurs, and from which we see that flowers, as well as music, are to soothe the savage breast:"I have purchased from you last season came out very well. The early part of the season I care for flowers and plants, and they lovely, but our autumn was so dry that I got ripen well, which compels us to purchase supply. The German asters were very pretty being in full bloom at the time the frost cut them. I raised, and made, with dahlias, cockscombs, hedewizzils, phloxes, petunias, and a few other varieties, a very gay and pretty appearance, and was the means, providentially, of keeping some from pillage and destruction. I had with a dozen of his gang, came to my place, but when appealed to by my wife and daughter, he (G.) said it was too pretty to be destroyed, and he would save it. Thus, you see that the cultivated nature softened the heart of a whole band of cold-blooded murderers, and made the flowers as long as we remember the rebellion.—Rochester Democrat.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE SUSQUEHANNA.

CHAMBERSBURG, Penna., Jan. 20, 1864.

To the People of the Department of the Susquehanna:

I very cordially invite the attention of all persons within the Department of the Susquehanna to the address recently issued by Major General Hancock, commanding 2d Army Corps, in which that distinguished officer announces that he has come to Pennsylvania, under authority from the War Department, for the purpose of recruiting his Corps to 60,000 men with a view to special service.

The gallantry and military ability of Major General Hancock, and the courage and discipline of his Corps, have been tested on many battle-fields, and have justly won the admiration of the people. Those who shall enlist under him will find comrades with whom it will be an honor to be connected, and a leader whose past career gives the assurance that he cannot fall short of the full performance of all his duties as an officer, a soldier, and a gentleman.

Having been associated with Major General Hancock, on many trying occasions, I heartily commend him to the patriotism of the people of this Department, and earnestly advise those fit for military duty to embrace this opportunity of taking a position in which they will gain honor and distinction for themselves, and render essential service to their country. NOTICE.—TO THE WARD BOUNTY COMMITTEES, CITIZENS' BOUNTY FUND COMMITTEE, January 18, 1864.

At a meeting of the Committee, held this day, the following resolutions and resolutions were adopted to:

Whereas, There is a balance in the hands of the Citizens' Bounty Fund, estimated to amount to fifteen thousand dollars, after the payment of all outstanding liabilities; and,

Whereas, The Committee are desirous of assisting the different Wards of the city to secure volunteers for the Army of the United States, so as to avoid the draft; therefore,

Resolved, That the sum of fifteen thousand dollars is hereby appropriated to the different Wards, and that the disbursing agency is hereby authorized to tender and pay to the proper persons in each Ward the proportion of said sum pro rata upon the quota of each Ward, under the last call of the President of the United States for three hundred thousand men; and in the event of any Ward not requiring its proportion, or any part thereof, that the disbursing agency be authorized to increase ratably the proportion to other Wards.

A true copy from the minutes.

LORIN BLODGET, Secretary.

The undersigned having been appointed to disburse the above specified sum, the treasurers of the different Wards will be required to furnish to me evidence of their authority to collect the money, and a certified statement from the Provost Marshal of the district in which the Ward is situated of the number of men required from the Ward he represents, on or before the first day of February next, and immediately after which time the disbursing agency will fix the proportion due the several Wards making application. OFFICE OF MONUMENT CEMETERY, JANUARY 19, 1864.

At a Special meeting of the Managers of the Monument Cemetery, called this day, in consequence of the death of MATTHEW CARTWRIGHT, Esq., the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased the Allwise Dispenser of Human Events to remove from our fellowship in this Board, and from his usefulness as a citizen of the community, our much esteemed and eminently active, attentive, and efficient member, MATTHEW CARTWRIGHT, Esq.; and

Whereas, It is proper, becoming, and in perfect harmony with our feelings, in us, his associates for a four series of years, who deeply regret his loss as such, thus formally to testify our sense of his services and amiable social qualities as a member of Boards, and his virtues as a man and citizen of the community, the kind sentiments so well deserved, we entertained for him while living, and our respect for his memory when dead; therefore,

Resolved, That while we submit with due reverence and in acknowledgement of the goodness and mercy of Him, who, by His decrees, "maketh well in all things," we nevertheless are constrained to express our deep appreciation of the services and virtues of the deceased, to express our sorrow for our loss, and to record the fact which has not only deprived us of a valuable member and agreeable associate, but society of a meritorious and kind-hearted citizen.

Resolved, That we tender to the family and relatives of the deceased our heartfelt condolence in the sore loss they have sustained, and assure them of the unfeigned regret of every member of the Board in their bereavement, and that we do more in the departure from amongst them, while yet, though aged, it was a "green old age."

Resolved, That the foregoing preamble and resolutions be entered at large upon the minutes of the Board, and that the members will attend his funeral in a body.

Resolved, That these proceedings be attested by the officers of the Board, and that the same be published in the public papers. From the Minutes.
