GUSTAVE AIMARD'S NEW BOOK.
THE INDIAN CHIEF. By GUSTAVE AIMARD, author of the "PRAIRIE FLOWER," "THE INDIAN SCOUT," "THE TRAIL HUNTER," &c., is published this day, and for sale by T. B. PETERSON & BROTHERS, 306 CHESTNUT Street, Philadelphia. Complete in one large octavo volume, large type, double column, and printed on the finest and best of white paper. Price Fifty Cents a copy.
NOTICE.—Gustave Aimard was the adopted son of one of the most powerful Indian tribes, with whom he lived for more than fifteen years, in the heart of the prairies, sharing their dangers and their combats, and accompanying them everywhere, rifle in one hand and tomahawk in the other. In turn squatter, hunter, trapper, warrior, Gambusino, or miner, Gustave Aimard has traversed America from the highest peaks of the Cordilleras to its ocean shores, living from hand to mouth, happy for the day, careless of the morrow. Hence, it is that Gustave Aimard does not write romances, but describes his own life. The Indians of whom he speaks he has known—the manners he depicts were his own.

LIFE OF THEODORE PARKER.
D. APPLETON & CO.
Nos. 443 and 445 BROADWAY,
WILL PUBLISH THIS DAY,
THE LIFE AND CORRESPONDENCE
OF
THEODORE PARKER,
Minister of the Twenty-eighth Congregational Society, Boston.
BY JOHN WEISS.
With two Portraits on Steel, Specimens of Handwriting, and 19 Wood Engravings.
Two vols., 8vo. 1,008 pages. Price $6.
These volumes contain an account of Mr. Parker's childhood and self-education; of his relations with his theological ideas; of his scholarly and philosophical pursuits; and of his relation to the anti-slavery cause, and the epoch in America which preceded the civil war. His two visits to Europe are described in letters and extracts from his journal. An autobiographical fragment is introduced in relation to Mr. Parker's early life, and his letters of friendship on literary, speculative, and political topics are freely interspersed. The illustrations represent scenes connected with various periods of Mr. Parker's life, the houses in which he lived, his country haunts, the meeting-house, his library, and the Music Hall in which he preached.
