SAY NOT LIFE IS WEARY,—
BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.
Oh, say not life is weary,
With storms and clouds o'ercast:
The future sad and dreary,
And comfortless the past.

What though our former errors
Regretfully we view
And traces of terrors
Deform our future, too.

Yet we may be forgiven
For wrongs that we have done,
And, by the grace of Heaven,
The coming tempest shun.

Be moderate in your gladness,
Even in your great distress;
Lest melancholy madness
Your spirit should oppress.

If want of occupation
Dispenses woe to pine,
Oh think what recreation
There is at BENNETT'S shrine!

Yes, without hesitation,
To that emporium go,
And all your dull vexation
And discontent forego.

DO YOU ADVERTISE?
JOY, COE, & CO.,
GENERAL NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING AND SUBSCRIPTION AGENCY,
N. E. CORNER FIFTH AND CHESTNUT STREETS,
PHILADELPHIA.
"By means of the system of conjoint Advertising rendered practicable by Messrs. JOY, COE, & CO., through their Newspaper agency, the expense to local advertisers is greatly reduced. Advertisers save the postage, and avoid the labor of correspondence, disappointments, risk of remittances, unsuitable and repeated calls of strangers with separate bills, the vexatious deception of journals of dubious character, and the trouble of contracting with incompetent and irresponsible persons.
"Business men may learn through this Agency just what journals to advertise in to reach effectively and cheaply the section wherein their trade may be extended." U. S. Journal.
