HOYT'S HIAWATHA HAIR RESTORATIVE.
HOYT'S HIAWATHA HAIR RESTORATIVE.

In Longfellow's Poem Hiawatha was adjudged to have conferred the greatest boon on his tribe because he brought to its notice corn. Every one will admit that our preparation is worthy of its name, for the benefits it confers when it is known.

WHAT THE HIAWATHA DOES.

It restores faded and gray hair and whiskers to their original color. It brings up the natural shading of one hair with another, thus giving the hair a perfect life appearance, so that the most critical observer cannot detect its use. It makes harsh hair soft and silky, stops its falling out, cleanses it and the scalp from all impurities, is a readily applied and wiped from the skin and any hair dressing, and entirely overcomes the bad effects of previous use of preparations containing sulphur, sugar of lead, &c.

The proprietors of the Hiawatha published the following challenge to test in the New York dailies three weeks, which

WAS NEVER ACCEPTED:

Let some well known and disinterested persons appoint one to the proprietor of each preparation for the Hair to bring up the odor. Every proprietor to use nothing but his own preparation, and the person smelling also during the test. A certificate of the result to be widely published at the expense of the unsuccessful competitors. Sold everywhere.

OBITUARY.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord" is one of the promises of a beneficent Providence; and yet hardly past few days this promise was made peculiarly acceptable to one who, when her Heavenly Father called, was found ready—nay, anxious to be among the blest. 'Tis a happy thought to know (without a doubt) that the one we love is with the Saviour, never more to know affliction, but to live an eternity in the company of angels.

Mrs. KATE SIOUSSA, of Washington City, the subject of these lines, was called, a few days since, to the bosom of her Redeemer, after a short and severe illness. As a devoted Christian, exemplary wife, fond mother, and kind friend—

"None knew her but to love her,
None named her but to praise."

Her faith was built upon the Rock of Ages, and nothing could make her waver in that faith. Early she had sought and found the Lord, and the blood shed upon Calvary's Mount had washed away her sins. Her dying bed was made "soft as downy pillows are," for she had lived: a truly sincere Christian.

May her excellent example be emulated by all who knew her; and may the afflicted husband and family be the recipients of that consolation which only Heaven can give. [Tri] B.

APPEAL—UNION VOLUNTEER REFRESHMENT SALOON.

To the Citizens of Philadelphia: It will be three years on the 27th day of May, 1864, since the Union Volunteer Refreshment Saloon commenced its operations. Other have they lost sight of the fact that there were other institutions equally worthy of public confidence and support; and they have endeavored to discharge the duties assumed to them in an honest, economical, quiet, and unostentatious manner. Up to this time we have been generously supported by contributions from our friends and a portion of the money-earning companies of Philadelphia. We have tried to lessen the burdens of our kind friends by annual fairs in June; the first was a success; the second comparatively a failure, in consequence of the raid into Pennsylvania last summer, and there is no prospect of holding one this season, as in tendency. The high price of provisions, and the heavy and constant demand on our Saloons, have nearly depleted our treasury, and as the signs of the times point to a series of protracted battles, and as there will no doubt be still further calls on our limited resources we are compelled to make this appeal to the liberality of our friends in Philadelphia and vicinity for assistance, otherwise our future usefulness will be very much impaired.

Contributions in cash, and notice of Provisions and Sanitary Stores for our use, will be received by the following gentlemen:

Rev. Dr. Thomas Brainerd, No. 634 Pine street.
Thomas Robbins, Esq., President Philadelphia Bank, Chestnut street, west of Fourth street.
D. B. Cummins, Esq., President of the Girard Bank, Third street, near Dock street.
T. A. Mercer, Esq., President of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, Chestnut street, below Fifth.
J. B. Austin, Esq., President of the Southwark Bank, Second, below South street.
M. W. Woodward, Esq., Cashier Manufacturers' and Mechanics' Bank, northwest corner Third and Vine streets.
Thomas T. Firth, Esq., Treasurer Pennsylvania Railroad, Third and Willing's alley.
James C. Hand & Co., corner Market and Decatur streets.
Samuel B. Fales, Esq., No. 514 Walnut street (who has consented to act as General Financial Agent for our association), to whom all money or other contributions of the Union Volunteer Refreshment Saloon is situated at the southwest corner of Washington and Swanson streets. The citizens of Philadelphia and vicinity, and strangers, are respectfully invited to visit the Saloon, and witness for themselves the arrangements made for the refreshment and comfort of the brave soldiers passing between the City of Brotherly Love and the seat of war.

FETE CHAMPETRE AT BARGE THIS HALL TO AID OF THE GREAT CENTRAL FAIR FOR THE UNITED STATES SANITARY COMMISSION, FLORAL AND HORTICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.—The Committee in charge of this Department propose giving a Rural Fete to the ladies and gentlemen of the city on WEDNESDAY EVENING, May the 18th of May, commencing at 12 o'clock M., at the old BAPTIST BURYING GROUND, Sansom street, adjoining the Baptist Meeting House, in Sansom street, and there is no prospect of holding one this season, as intended. FETE CHAMPETRE AT BARGE THIS HALL TO AID OF THE GREAT CENTRAL FAIR FOR THE UNITED STATES SANITARY COMMISSION, FLORAL AND HORTICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.—The Committee in charge of this Department propose giving a Rural Fete to the ladies and gentlemen of the city on WEDNESDAY EVENING, May the 18th of May, commencing at 12 o'clock M., at the old BAPTIST BURYING GROUND, Sansom street, adjoining the Baptist Meeting House, in Sansom street, and there is no prospect of holding one this season, as intended. The high price of provisions, and the heavy and constant demand on our Saloons, have nearly depleted our treasury, and as the signs of the times point to a series of protracted battles, and as there will no doubt be still further calls on our limited resources we are compelled to make this appeal to the liberality of the citizens of Philadelphia and vicinity for assistance, otherwise our future usefulness will be very much impaired.

Contributions in cash, and notice of Provisions and Sanitary Stores for our use, will be received by the following gentlemen:

Rev. Dr. Thomas Brainerd, No. 634 Pine street.
Thomas Robbins, Esq., President Philadelphia Bank, Chestnut street, west of Fourth street.
D. B. Cummins, Esq., President of the Girard Bank, Third street, near Dock street.
T. A. Mercer, Esq., President of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, Chestnut street, below Fifth.
J. B. Austin, Esq., President of the Southwark Bank, Second, below South street.
M. W. Woodward, Esq., Cashier Manufacturers' and Mechanics' Bank, northwest corner Third and Vine streets.
Thomas T. Firth, Esq., Treasurer Pennsylvania Railroad, Third and Willing's alley.
James C. Hand & Co., corner Market and Decatur streets.
Samuel B. Fales, Esq., No. 514 Walnut street (who has consented to act as General Financial Agent for our association), to whom all money or other contributions of the Union Volunteer Refreshment Saloon is situated at the southwest corner of Washington and Swanson streets. The citizens of Philadelphia and vicinity, and strangers, are respectfully invited to visit the Saloon, and witness for themselves the arrangements made for the refreshment and comfort of the brave soldiers passing between the City of Brotherly Love and the seat of war.
