NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC—GREAT CENTRAL FAIR FOR THE SANITARY COMMISSION.—Office of the Committee on Labor, Incomes, and Revenue, No. 118 South SEVENTH Street.

The Treasurer of this Committee, JOHN W. CLAGHORN, Esq., will continue to receive subscriptions at the Office, as above, of

"ONE DAY'S LABOR,"
"ONE DAY'S INCOME,"
"ONE DAY'S REVENUE,"

from individuals, firms, and corporations, during the progress of the Fair, and throughout the month of June, at the Office of the Committee, as herein fixed. A Clerk will also be in attendance at the Fair, in the Department of the Committee,

SOUTH SIDE OF MAIN (UNION) AVENUE, Nearest to the West Door Exit.

There are numerous manufacturing establishments and workshops in the city and vicinity which have not yet responded to the call of the Committee, and who would, doubtless, do so if their proprietors or foremen would move at once in the matter. We beg all such to start subscription papers without a moment's delay. If your employees cannot afford to subscribe a whole day let them give what they can. But do not let the reproach rest upon any, that they have not contributed to this great effort for the relief of our poor boys now pouring out their blood on the fields of the rebellion. When this mighty war, waged by the ambition of disappointed men, shall have passed into history, the humblest citizen will be proud of the record of his deeds of devotion, if not in the defence of the nation's flag, at least in alleviating the sufferings of its defenders. Subscriptions will be received during the whole of the month of June, and each one will be acknowledged in the newspapers of Philadelphia.

We beg all such to start subscription papers without a moment's delay. If your employees cannot afford to subscribe a whole day let them give what they can. But do not let the reproach rest upon any, that they have not contributed to this great effort for the relief of our poor boys now pouring out their blood on the fields of the rebellion. When this mighty war, waged by the ambition of disappointed men, shall have passed into history, the humblest citizen will be proud of the record of his deeds of devotion, if not in the defence of the nation's flag, at least in alleviating the sufferings of its defenders. Subscriptions will be received during the whole of the month of June, and each one will be acknowledged in the newspapers of Philadelphia.

LILLIE'S CHILLED-IRON SAFE AGAINST EVANS & WATSON'S SHEET-IRON SAFE.

THE GUERILLA SMOKED OUT!

HE SHOWS FIGHT—WILL HE STAND FIRE?

The $1,000 Challenge Against the World Accepted.

MR. DAVID EVANS: We have this day received, through our agent, Mr. M. C. Sadler, your article, which appeared in The Press of the 6th inst., proposing a test of Safes, under the form of a challenge.

Your proposition would certainly have the appearance of fairness to the unsophisticated, while to those familiar with the tactics and flank movements of Sheet-Iron Safe-makers its absurdity is at once apparent.

You try to shield Evans & Watson's present make of Safes from harm. As the Safe you offer for the test, we do not indicate, purchased by the Corn Exchange Bank in 1858 (six years since), it is proved unequal to the test, it would immediately be conceded by Evans & Watson to be a different Safe from that now manufactured by them, and their Safes would still be in the market.

On the other hand, the Safe we have designated was manufactured by Lewis Lillie, and if it was unequal to the test, Lewis Lillie & Son (the present manufacturers) could claim improvements, and still prove as formidable competitors as ever. Again, it is not to be supposed that the Corn Exchange Bank, or any other Bank, would assent to the notoriety and disturbance which a Safe test would produce in their business, if they desire and intend to be an undisguised, and unmistakable test, and we are entirely prepared to meet the consequence.

Now Mr. Evans, bring out your best Evans & Watson Burglar-proof Bank Vault Safe, and you can take for the test either of two Safes we have made and shipped to the Bank of the Northern Liberties of your city. Both of these Safes were made before either of your publications reached us. With these conditions, we accept your challenge in full. As is well known, we very frequently make our Bank Burglar Safes four (4) inches in thickness of metal, and we might justly insist on furnishing such a Safe for a test. But we deem Safes of the ordinary thickness (two inches), as they are placed in Banks, ample security as against burglars, and consequently we propose the above-named Safes for the test, they being two inches in thickness.

For years we have asserted what we shall maintain, that we have the only true method of constructing a strictly burglar-proof Safe, and by adding thickness of metal any desired security may be obtained at a small additional expense. We shall hold Evans & Watson accountable for the test, and if you have assum
