MILITARY.

157TH REGIMENT PENNSYLVANIA VOLUNTEERS.

Among the many organizations that have left our city, none, in the short space of time it has been in active service, has experienced more severe duty, nor contributed more to the credit of our volunteer army, than the 157th Pennsylvania.

The regiment, or rather battalion, being composed of but four companies, after being stationed for some months at Fort Delaware, was ordered to duty on several lines of communication around the city of Washington, in Service, though not the hardest, still not the less useful and indispensable on the 21st of June, after a laborious march from Port Royal, Virginia, to which point it had been transported by steam, it was attached to the 3d Brigade, 4th Division, 5th Army Corps; and on the 24, was hotly engaged in the battle on the Mechanicsville road, in which it lost, in killed and wounded, many of its brave men. In the charge on the formidable rebel works, holding the southeast approach to Petersburg, it suffered its greatest loss from the galling fire of grape and canister that, from front and flank, poured into them from the batteries and line of infantry. Being the first regiment of the brigade to enter the fight it was the last to leave, which it did, at the order to fall back, with riddled colors and thinned ranks—it being a miracle, under the circumstances, that any should have escaped the unscathed. When first brought under fire of the enemy there was neither flinching nor fear manifested, but the noble fellows stood up to their work in a way that would have been creditable to the veterans at their side.

In the charge on the 18th instant, the battalion was commanded by the senior captain, A. F. Hawkins, commanding D, (Major T. H. Addicks being at the time in the rear, under arrest,) he was ably seconded by Acting Adjutant Lieut. J. W. Ashcom, Lieutenant Gray, of Company A, commanded Company D; Lieutenant C. H. Addicks commanded Company A, the color company, its captain, Wm. R. Peddle, being in advance of the regiment in charge of the skirmish line, Captain T. E. Carter commanded Company C, and Lieutenant J. W. Scott commanded Company B.

BOARD OF CONTROL.

An adjourned meeting of the Board of Controllers of Public Schools was held yesterday afternoon, President Fletcher in the chair.

A communication was received from the Twenty-fourth section, renewing the application to the Board of Control for permission to establish a new division in the Girls' Grammar School, Chestnut-street secondary and Tell-street primary schools. Referred.

The resolution providing for the introduction of Mitchell's new Primary Geography into the public schools, which had been negatived, was, on motion, reconsidered and passed.

The Committee on Property reported a resolution asking Councils for appropriations for school purposes; that the building at Nineteenth and Spring Garden streets be rented for school purposes; that a warrant be drawn for $2,000 to the contractor who has just completed the new school-house in Twelfth section.

The Committee on Supplies reported having awarded the following contracts for wood: For First, Second, Third, and Fourth districts, to Fortaine & Read, at 35 cents per box, and the Twenty-first, Twenty-second, and Twenty-fourth districts at 40 cents per box.

The Committee on Grammar, Secondary, and Primary Schools, reported in favor of confirming the appointment of Emma Gallagher as fourth assistant teacher in Primary School No. 3, of Seventh section; Ella Murdock, third assistant in Zane-street Boys' Grammar School, and Ella M. Thorne, second assistant in Primary School No. 2, in the Ninth section; Mary E. Castle, third assistant of Primary No. 1, of the Tenth section; Pauline Graham, first assistant of John Quincy Adams Girls' Grammar School, in First section; Rebecca Grier as third assistant in Girls' Secondary School, Fifteenth section; Eliza Sonder as teacher of the Liberty Unclassified School, and Laura H. Shekell as assistant teacher of the Canal Boys' Grammar School, in Twenty-fifth section; also, that the directors of Second section be authorized to form another division in the Washington Boys' and Girls' Grammar School. The report was agreed to.

The resolution to employ a colored teacher in a new unclassified school was, on motion, reconsidered, and amended by striking out the word "colored."

Mr. Shippen, in consideration that teachers and school-boards had exhibited great exertions for some time past in the preparation for the Great Central Fair, and were thereby nearly exhausted, moved that the summer vacation of the schools begin on Friday next.

Mr. Freeborn said that nearly a year of education had been lost in the schools by the Sanitary Fair, and he was opposed to any further waste of time.

The resolution was finally laid on the table, and the Board adjourned sine die.

The new Board will organize on Monday next, July 4.

FIRE.

An alarm of fire was caused yesterday morning, between 11 and 12 o'clock, by the partial burning of an unoccupied house on Washington street, below Jefferson avenue.

THE POLICE.

[Before Mr. Alderman White.]

PASSING COUNTERFEIT MONEY.

Wm. Watson, hailing from Camden, N. J., and Joseph Bernhard, from New York, were arrested on Monday night, at No. 611 Chestnut street, on the charge of attempting to pass a counterfeit five-dollar note, on the Union Bank of Philadelphia. They purchased something at this place from Mr. Wm. B. Doran, and offered the five-dollar note in payment. Doran said it was counterfeit, and refused to take it. They insisted that it was good. He sent after an officer
