EUROPE.

Additional News by the Peruvian—Reported Capture of Alsen—Another Plot against Napoleon.

PORT AU BASQUE, July 9.—The following is the concluding portion of the steamship Peruvian's despatch, which, owing to difficulties on the wires, was not transmitted last night:

The London Star says: "Grant's latest movements are certainly not destitute of boldness, but they seem to border on fool-hardiness. He deliberately leaves the road to Washington and the North open to Lee, who, before now, has not hesitated to cross the Potomac when the Federal army could much more easily dispute his progress."

THE DANISH WAR.

The policy of Prussia is said to be the retention of Jutland as a material guaranty.

The Prussians are erecting batteries on the Jutland coast opposite the middle part on the island of Fuhnen.

The announcement of the capture of Alsen by the German Powers had been received, but the details concerning it had not come to hand.

A Vienna paper states that Austria and Prussia are fully agreed on the subject of hostilities.

The two Powers are said to have renewed the engagement to act in concert until Denmark shall be compelled to accept of peace.

Prussia has declared that she seeks for no territorial aggrandizement in the North.

FRANCE.

Mr. Slidell had an interview with the Emperor Napoleon on the 28th.

The police are reported to have discovered another plot against the Emperor's life.

Several Italians were arrested on the 29th.

The Paris Bourse closed flat at 65f. 75c. for the Rentes.

SPAIN.

It was asserted at Madrid that the resignation of Senor Marcarreno, ambassador to Peru, had been accepted.

BRAZIL.

The Brazil mails had reached Lisbon.

RIO DE JANEIRO, June 7.—Exchange 27½@27¾. Coffee nominal. Shipments, 20,000 bags; sales, 25,000 bags; stock, 20,000.

PERNAMBUCO, June 10.—Exchange 27¾@27¾. Brown sugar 2|600@2|800.

INDIA AND CHINA.

A telegram from Shanghae announces an important movement in exchange, and a rise of 1½ per cent. against England.

At Bombay exchange had declined ⅛ and at Calcutta ⅛.

LONDON MONEY MARKET.—On the 29th the funds remained stagnant, and seemed likely to remain free from material fluctuation, the general feeling of the country being hardly with the course marked out by the Government on its foreign policy.

France, Mexico, and the United States.

The Courrier du Dimanche, of Paris, publishes a circular letter addressed by M. Drouyn de l'Huys, the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, to the agents of the empire abroad, respecting the relations of France to the American Government. This letter is a sequel to the correspondence between Mr. Seward and Mr. Dayton with regard to the Mexican question, and is as follows:

PARIS, May 7, 1864.—Mr. Dayton has called on me to read to me a despatch addressed to him by the Secretary of State of the Union, in order to define the responsibility of the Government of Washington, and to show that a vote of the House of Representatives, or of the Senate, or even of the two Houses, while it naturally necessitates a reply to the attention of the Government, did not oblige it to modify its policy and take from it its liberty of action. Mr. Seward sees no reason for, in view of the Mexican question, a line of conduct other than that which he had adopted heretofore; and if his disposition should happen to be modified, he should be directly and in good time informed of this resolution and its motives.

I have replied to Mr. Dayton that in the opinion of the Government of the Emperor nothing can justify this change; that our confidence in the wisdom and enlightenment of the American Cabinet was too great to permit us to suppose it to have an idea of compromitting, by thoughtless action, the true interest of the United States. While expressing to Mr. Dayton the entire satisfaction which the assurances he was charged with giving us caused to the Government of the Emperor, I added that I thought, in effect, that, even from the point of view of the United States, the chances of a doubtful and fruitful war for the establishment in Mexico of a stable and regular Government, and the perpetuation of an anarchy of which they had already suffered to suffer and to point out the great inconvenience.

The reorganization of a vast country which, after the restoration of order and security, is expected to play an important economical part in the world, would be for the United States especially a real source of advantage, since it would open a new market to them from which they, because of their proximity, would profit more than others.

The prosperity of Mexico would therefore agree with their rightly understood interests. I certainly do not believe that the Government of Washington could misunderstand this truth.

DROUYN DE L'HUYS.

POLITICAL.

—The Buffalo Journal, the new German daily recently started in that city, under the editorship of Dr. De Haas, as the organ of the German "Radicals," which was expected to support the nomination of Fremont, and which, since the Cleveland Convention, has maintained an attitude of political uncertainty, came out last week for Lincoln and Johnson.

—The Democratic candidates for the Chicago nomination will soon be past counting. The last one we have heard of is Dean Richmond. Of this nomination the Rochester Express remarks:

"There is one objection which the snobs of the Democratic party will find insuperable. Dean Richmond is not a poor boy, and he never worked with his hands, in the "menial occupation" of a sail-boiler! How can Democrats, like the impecunious loafing tribe of Tammany, seriously nominate who has come up from so low a degree as that? Dean Richmond is undoubtedly a man of great energy and ex-ability; but then he was only a sail-boiler! He'll never do for the superfine Democracy."

Money and Stocks in New York.

The New York Post of Saturday says:

Gold opened at 265, and after selling down to 261, closed dull at 261½.

Exchange is inclined at 109¾ for specie.

The speculation in produce, which is now apparently on the part of breaking down, is regarded as, to a large extent, the cause of the recent stringency in money.

THE CITY.

[FOR ADDITIONAL CITY NEWS SEE FOURTH PAGE.]

PHILADELPHIA AND THE RAID.

The news yesterday was of rather an exciting character, but it seemed to have little effect upon the people. There was no excitement excepting about the newspaper offices. The regular arrivals of the railroad trains, and the receipt of telegrams over the wires from Washington and Baltimore, furnished positive evidence that many of the reports so freely circulated were untrue. There are commendable movements in military circles, but more than this would be imprudent to state.

VISIT OF A YACHT CLUB.

The Harlem Model Yacht Club will arrive here to-morrow from New York, on a visit to this city. They will be the guests of the Philadelphia yachtmen.

CITY ITEMS.

A PROFITABLE INVESTMENT.—We have heard of a number of cases recently of people ordering a sufficient quantity of Coal from the celebrated yard of W. W. Alter, 957 North Ninth street, to last them for a year. We can imagine no better paying investment than this for the amount expended, and would respectfully advise our readers in this city generally to go and do likewise.

WHAT ART DOES FOR NATURE.—However poorly you may be clad, you will perceive that the agriculturist, the spinner, the weaver, the dyer, the navigator, the machinist, the tanner, the tailor, the shoemaker, the bleacher, the hatter, and a score of other industries, have applied the study and experience of fifty centuries to the making of your modest attire. It has taken the sweat of the brow of a thousand generations to produce that ugly, but simple, useful, and economical suit, which the Parisian workman buys with a few days' wages. How much then must it have required to produce the magnificent suit worn by the man of taste and made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth!

THE HANDSOMEST ASSORTMENT OF STRAW, FELT, and other Hats can be purchased of Charles Oakford & Sons, 834 and 836 Chestnut street, Continental Hotel.

THE RAID.—What is it? Do the rebels intend celebrating every Fourth of July on "free soil?" We are glad they intend celebrating it at all, and still more glad that they do it on free territory. We hope they will not have to go so far from home hereafter to find free soil to celebrate their Fourths upon. We are not used to it now, and it is somewhat exciting. With the thermometer at 90 and cold 250, 'tis hard to keep cool. The only way, in fact, is to clothe yourself in the delicious summer clothing sold at Charles Stokes & Co.'s one price, under the Continental.

CAPE MAY, LONG BRANCH, ATLANTIC CITY.—A fine assortment of ladies' and gentlemen's bathing dresses can be found at John C. Arrison's, Nos. 1 and 3 North Sixth street. jy9-4f

A SPLENDID ASSORTMENT of misses', children's, and boys' hats, at reduced prices, can be purchased of Charles Oakford & Sons, 834 and 836 Chestnut street, Continental Hotel.

Seventy-two boxes, barrels, &c., additional to the above, from other parts of the country, will be found acknowledged at length in the religious papers.

The Commission calls the attention of the friends of the soldier to the great necessity for their forwarding immediately to the army in front of Petersburg large supplies of all articles. There are, doubtless, hundreds of farmers in all parts of the country who would be willing to part with a portion of their store were the best means of doing so presented to them. Scurvy, fever, and a similar character will be promptly forwarded to the army if sent to the Philadelphia Christian Commission, No. 11 Bank street, Philadelphia. We trust our friends will bear this call in mind, as it is of peculiar importance that General Grant's army be continued and ample supply.
