MILITARY.

The excitement during yesterday was as intense as the previous day. Squads of men, headed by the fife and drum, paraded up and down the main streets, gathering up recruits. Hundreds were obtained, but the whole number did not come up to that of Tuesday. Another stirring town meeting would have great effect. Col. Jonathan Earleton is about to organize a regiment for one hundred days' service, to be composed of men over the age of forty-five years. This is an excellent opportunity for those exempted from draft by reason of age, to show the real state of their hearts. If the regiment is formed, which is expected, the influence it will have on those under 45 will be great. Those desirous of enlisting in this regiment should apply immediately at the headquarters, No. 337 Chestnut street.

The officers of Col. Lochler's regiment, with parts of commands, can have their men sworn in and sent to Camp Cadwalader immediately. The regular companies of this regiment will assemble at their headquarters to-day.

The 5th Union League Regiment, Col. Harmanus Neff, is rapidly approaching completion. The officers of this regiment have all seen service, and no one should hesitate for a moment to enlist under them. The regiment is expected to leave on Saturday next.

Lieut. Frank Barr has opened a rendezvous at the Union Volunteer Refreshment Saloon for the purpose of recruiting an independent march battery, to serve during the emergency. About one hundred blue-jackets have already joined it, and the Lieutenant expects to have it filled by the end of this week. He has seen active service, having been an aid-de-camp to Gen. Flores during the attack on Gingerquile, in South America. The committee of the Refreshment Saloon have, with their usual prompt patriotism, given Lieut. Barr every facility for obtaining men. The battery will be composed of eight guns.

The Blue Reserves are still recruiting for one hundred days' service, under the command of Col. C. M. Eakin, a graduate of West Point, and late major in the United States regular army. All the line officers have seen service. Recruits are wanted. All authorized bounties are paid, and the men sent to camp immediately.

ENROLMENT OF THE MILITIA.

A public meeting was held at Wilkesbarre, Pa., on the 11th instant, by citizens, in regard to the enrolling of the militia of Pennsylvania. The following resolutions were adopted. They are as important to the people of Philadelphia as in any other section of the Old Keystone State, and should be responded to at once. The subject is one that must appeal to the common sense of everybody. It is never too late to do good. There should be a thorough organization of the militia now, and rebel raids Northward will be things of the past. If something like this be not done, then the people of the State must expect a gigantic raid into the very heart of the State in the summer of 1865. It should not be forgotten that the raid of 1862, the first, was supposed would never happen again. There have been plenty since then; and these raids will continue for years, unless measures are now adopted to prevent them. The rebels have an eye on our coal mines and iron works, and will be able to say they would not destroy a fire the works there if they could get a chance.

The question of enrolling the militia, and thus placing Pennsylvania in a warlike position, cannot be too promptly responded to and affirmatively effected. Persons who desire the rebellion to continue will, of course, oppose any measure calculated to put it down. THE RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, War has existed in our country for upwards of three years, during which period there has been no organization of the militia of the State of Pennsylvania; and, whereas, such a condition of affairs is a reproach to the State Administration, to the Legislature, and to the people themselves; therefore,

Resolved, That we call upon Governor Curtin at once to have the militia of the Commonwealth enrolled and organized into companies, regiments, brigades, &c., and require such drill and exercise as will render the military powers of the State prompt and efficient.

Resolved, If no law exists for such enrolment, &c., we call upon the Governor to convene the Legislature at once, and urge upon that body prompt and immediate action.

Resolved, That we request our fellow-citizens throughout the State to unite with us in respectfully expressing of their will and desire upon this vital question, involving, as it may, the very existence of the Commonwealth.

ARRIVAL OF WOUNDED SOLDIERS.

The transport steamer Ashland arrived at this port, yesterday morning, with 213 wounded Pennsylvania soldiers on board from Alexandria, Va., which place they left on Monday, under the charge of Surgeon J. G. Cantwell. One of the patients, named Henry Theurn, of Company E, 1st Delaware Regiment, died on the passage up. On their arrival at this port, they were transferred to the army hospitals in the city by the ambulances of the firemen. The following is a list of the names:

DEATHS OF SOLDIERS.

The following deaths were reported at the Medical Director's office yesterday, from army hospitals in this city:

Christian-street Hospital—Thos. Armstrong, Company A, 12th P. V.

Filbert-street Hospital—John Barton, Company I, 58th P. V.

Turner's-lane Hospital—Richard H. Lewis, Company B, 10th Regiment U. S. Infantry.

Broad and Cherry-streets Hospital—Sergeant Peter Crowley, Company G, 1st Regiment Mississippi Cavalry.

Satterlee Hospital—Henry Eaton, Company E, 36 Regiment Michigan Volunteers; Joseph Hinkle, Company G, 1st Regiment Pennsylvania Reserves; and Truman Parkhurst, Company D, 16th Regiment Michigan Volunteers.

DESERTERS.

The following-named soldiers were reported at the Medical Director's office yesterday, as having deserted from army hospitals in this city:

From Haddington Hospital—Jos. Briggs, Company G, 58th Regiment P. V.; John Cavanaugh, Company A, 69th Regiment New York Volunteers; Geo. W. Cake, Company C, 8th P. V.; John Dougherty, Company G, 83d P. V.; Albert P. Lyons, Company G, 58th P. V.; Daniel R. Ryan, Company I, 6th Regiment New York Art.; R. R. Conover, Company E, 10th New Jersey Volunteers.

From Filbert-street Hospital—Sergeant James P. Lyle, Company A, 71st Regiment P. V.; J. S. Lynn, Company D, 148th Regiment P. V.; William Norris, Company K, 116th Regiment New York Volunteers.

LEFT FOR THE FRONT.

About 1,200 convalescent soldiers, who have been quartered for several days past in the Sanitary Fair Building, left for the front this morning. They went by the transport steamer Manhattan. While the vessel was at anchor in the Delaware several barrels of provisions were sent on board for the soldiers, by the Committees of the Union Volunteer and Cooper Shop Refreshment Saloons. Six companies of the convalescents were under the command of Col. Oliver, and the remainder under Col. Woodward and Lieut. W. H. Lancashire, acting assistant adjutant general.

HEADQUARTERS OF GENERAL COUCH.

Major General D. N. Couch, commander of the Department of the Susquenna, has for the present established his headquarters at No. 905 Walnut street, in this city.

SURGEONS FOR MARYLAND.

The Surgeon General has telegraphed to the Medical Director of this city for ten surgeons to attend to the wounded in Maryland.

ARRIVAL OF SOLDIERS.

A squad of ninety drafted men and substitutes, together with a guard of twenty-two men, under the command of Major Smith, arrived in the city last evening, from Ohio. They were entertained at the Union Volunteer Refreshment Saloon, and then left for Annapolis.

MISCELLANEOUS.

SUBSISTENCE COMMITTEE OF PITTSBURG.

A statement was made in the Daily Fare that the Subsistence Committee of Pittsburg received the funds by which it carried on its workings from the Sanitary Commission of that city. The Subsistence Committee of Pittsburg, like our own Volunteer Refreshment Saloons, depends on the free-will offerings of the people, and is in no way connected with the Sanitary Commission or any other organization.

Ten per cent. of the proceeds of the fair held in Pittsburg was appropriated to the Subsistence Committee, at the urgent request of the citizens. The following article on the subject is from the Pittsburg Dispatch:

OUR SUBSISTENCE COMMITTEE—A MISREPRESENTATION.

An article appeared in the Daily Fare, a paper published at the Sanitary Fair in Philadelphia, concerning the branch of the Sanitary Commission in this city, in which the following language is used:

"The agency of the Commission at that point has not only taken care of the sick and wounded soldiers at the front, but it has remembered, also, those who passed through that city on their way to the army. It supplies the funds by which the Pittsburg Subsistence Committee performs the same grateful task, which has been so long and so successfully carried on by our refreshment saloons here, feeding hundreds of thousands of weary and hungry soldiers as they march to battle."

The Pittsburg Subsistence Committee was organized in 1861, long prior to the Sanitary Commission, and have preserved a separate organization up to this time; the necessary funds to enable them to carry on their noble work of feeding soldiers passing through our city being contributed by citizens directly to the committee, independent of any connection with the Sanitary Commission, from which organization no funds have been received. It will be recollected that ten per cent. of the amount realized by the recent Sanitary Fair, the Executive Committee have resolved to pay over to the Subsistence Committee, which, when paid, will be the first contribution in that shape which they have received.

OTTERBEIN UNIVERSITY.

By the authority and direction of the board of trustees of the Otterbein University, at Westerville, Ohio, a committee of the members of the faculty have arrived in Philadelphia, for the purpose of soliciting contributions of books for the library, and specimens of natural science and paintings for the cabinet and gallery of fine arts. The college is young, therefore the cabinet and library are deficient, and, like other kindred institutions, is dependent upon the gifts of the intelligent and liberal-minded citizens. This institution, as it appears from the catalogue, is well attended, and the most admirable arrangements are perfected for its government. People in Philadelphia who desire to contribute to it as indicated above may address Mr. H. A. Thompson, 226 South Eighth street, where the committee will remain several days.

COMMENCEMENT AT HAVERFORD COLLEGE.

The annual commencement at Haverford College was held yesterday in the college building. The order of exercises were gone through with, and the degree of Bachelor of Arts conferred upon William Ashbridge, Randolph Wood, Albert Pancoast, Morris Longstreth, Howard M. Cooper, Chas. Roberts, Albin Garrett, Edward H. Coates, Edward L. Scull, E. Pope Sampson, Franklin Angell.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Thos. Burns was instantly killed yesterday morning by a set of derricks falling on him, while working on the Chestnut-street bridge. He resided at No. 28 Hickey street. The coroner held an inquest on the body.

A GREAT SCARE.

A pic-nic excursion party was suddenly thrown into excitement yesterday, at Kenilworth Grove, by the announcement that the rebels were coming, being only six miles off. It seems that it was announced that the car in which the party reached the grove was wanted by the Government, and the excursionists would have to leave as soon as possible. The signal drum was beaten, to call all excursionists to the Grove, and many of the party became impressed with the idea that the rebels were coming. It is needless to attempt a description of the scenes that followed.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

A boy named James Francis Haws, aged six years, was run over and killed yesterday afternoon by Hamilton's Continental omnibus, on Sixth street, below Catharine. His body was removed to the residence of his parents, No. 11 Abbott's court.

HOSPITAL ITEM.

George Gilbert, aged twenty-two years, was badly bruised about the head and back yesterday afternoon by falling through a bridge near Manayunk. He attempted to get on the Norristown railroad cars while they were in motion. He was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital. He resides in Paterson, N. J., and was on a visit to a friend in Cardington.

MUSIC AT FAIRMOUNT PARK.

Yesterday afternoon, the first concert by Carl Sentz' band was given at Fairmount Park, and was well attended. The concert will be repeated every afternoon until further notice. There has as yet been no stand erected for the band, and they were, therefore, compelled to have their music-stands on the grass. There is being erected an elegant stand for the purpose, by the city, which is to be a permanent one. The concert this afternoon will commence at 4 o'clock. The following is the programme:

PART FIRST.

1. Faust March, introducing the new national anthem, "God Save America"....Medhardt.
2. Overture, Stradella....Flotow.
3. Sleigh Ride Galop....Kuhner.
4. Aria from "Martha"....Flotow.
5. Combined Army Marches, dedicated to Grant and Meade.

PART SECOND.

1. Wedding March, "Mildsummer Night's Dream"....Mendelssohn.
2. Dream....Mendelssohn.
3. Duet, "Czar and Zimmerman"....Lortzing.
4. Turkish Storm March....Hamm.
5. Sly Glance Polka....Kuhner.
6. National Airs.

THE POLICE.

[Before Mr. Alderman Beitler.]

BRUTALITY TO A CHILD.

A man named J. Lichten was arraigned yesterday afternoon, at the Central Station, on the charge of whipping, in a brutal manner, his step-son, a little boy apparently about twelve years of age. The defendant resides on McIlvaine street, near Sixth, and from the evidence of one of the neighbors, the whole vicinity is often annoyed because of the defendant beating the boy. The lad exhibited his back to the magistrate. It was scored in a number of places, some marks being fresh. The lad works in Morris, Tasker, & Morris' foundry, and on coming home from his labor, took off his working shirt to put on a clean one. In so doing he dropped the dirty shirt upon the floor, whereupon his father said he should not throw his clothes about that way. The boy made a remark, whereupon he was whipped most unmercifully on the bare back. The accused was required to enter bail in the sum of $600 to answer at Court.

[Before Mr. Alderman White.]

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

Abram Wilson, a cook on board the United States transport Ashland, at Race-street wharf, Delaware, was arrested, and had a hearing yesterday afternoon, on the charge of committing an assault and battery on P.W. Flynn, a hand on board of the same vessel. It seems that during the absence of the captain the cook made preparations to remove from the vessel a quantity of offal, known as "slush." This he intended to sell. Flynn observing the movement intercepted Wilson, and would not let him take the property ashore, as everything in the vessel of that kind belonged to the Government. It is alleged the defendant then seized a glass tumbler which he threw at Flynn, and then picking up a pewter pitcher he struck him a severe blow on the head, that gashed the scalp to the extent of several inches. The wounded man was attended to, and the incised scalp was sewed up. The accused was required to enter bail in the sum of $600 to answer.

[Before Mr. Alderman Carter.]

ROBBERY.

Eliza Taylor, Emma Carter, Mary McCormick, and Rosanna McElroy, were arraigned on the charge of the larceny of clothing. It seems they found a drunken man in a house near Seventh and Bedford streets, and stripped him of most of his clothing. They were committed.

ROBBING MARKET-STALLS.

Charles Ryan was also arraigned on the charge of robbing stalls in the market-house in Jefferson avenue. He was committed.

[Before Mr. Alderman Jones.]

CRUELTY TO A MULE.

George Kenner was arrested yesterday at Broad and Olive streets, on the charge of cruelly beating a mule. He was fined and held to bail.

Under the unfavorable war news the stock market opened gloomily. There was a more apparent disposition to realize, and lower prices were accepted, as if it were a matter of course stocks should go down. This spirit prevailed quite generally at first board, but afterwards the market took a rebound. Pennsylvania Railroad, for instance, sold as low as 70, but at the close of the day commanded 71½; Reading opened at 63¾, and closed at 64¼; Catawissa preferred rose 2 on the morning sales. The following changes from the sales of the previous day will show the general tenor of the market. The quotations are based upon the latest sales:

Other stocks sold or were quoted at about last rates. City 6s (new) were steady at 106¾; North Pennsylvania 6s at 104, and 10s at 125; Philadelphia and Sunbury 7s 110; Delaware Division 6s 104½. The oil companies tend downward: McClintock sold at the close at 4¾, Dalzell at 5½, and Irving Oil at 4.

Gold fluctuated very little during the day, as will be seen by the quotations:

The business of the country continues in an unsettled condition, and while it is so the stock market is expected to be dull. There is, besides, such a pressure for money and such a scarcity of greenbacks that the stock market labors under a great inconvenience from this cause. Still, it is noticeable that few stocks are offering on the market.

What will be Mr. Fessenden's future policy is a question which continues to agitate monetary circles. It is generally felt that upon his decision rests in a great measure our ability to prosecute the war to a successful issue. One stroke of false policy on the part of the Secretary might lead to the most deplorable results. The financial situation is without doubt critical, and the country relies upon Mr. Fessenden with unlimited confidence to bring us safely through the present difficulties. It is given out that the Treasury is in immediate need of at least sixty millions of dollars, and in the present stringent state of the money market the banks are unable to lend this amount without first appealing to the people by the sale of bonds. It is suggested that the new Secretary should make the banks—both State and National—Government agents in disposing of its bonds at a fixed price, to be agreed upon between the treasury and the banks, the latter to receive compensation in the form of a commission, or its equivalent in a deduction from the selling price of the bonds, and the proceeds to be passed to the credit of the Treasury, to be drawn against as required in payment of public creditors.

The conference of Mr. Fessenden with the New York bank officers, which took place in that city on Tuesday, is reported in the New York papers. Mr. Fessenden, we are told, made a long and interesting address, though it is not published in full, from motives that will suggest themselves. The Secretary stated the circumstances under which he addressed them. He was now in office, and the plan matured, had no interest but that of the Government to serve, and came to the representatives of the money of the country for aid and advice. He wanted $50,000,000 for the army prior to the first of September, and in the interval would digest his plan. If Gen. Grant got possession of Richmond he had one course; if the rebels occupied Washington it was easy to see he must adopt quite another. A committee was appointed, of which Moses Taylor, Esq., is chairman, to propose a method for supplying the money for the present emergency. Mr. Fessenden's speech, we are told, made a highly favorable impression, and he will promptly obtain all the assistance the banks can afford. The Secretary stated the amount of the present National debt, including the requisitions, which corresponds with the figures recently published.

The committee will probably agree to grant the loan for $50,000,000, upon condition that the drafts by Government will be made only for immediate disbursement. The over-due and accruing debts of the Government will necessitate the printing and issuing of about $100,000,000 more of legal-tender money, besides the $50,000,000 from the banks.

In conformity with the new tax law, the stock exchange brokers have, since the first of July, to pay to the Government the internal revenue tax of five dollars per one hundred shares on the par value of such shares when the sum is one hundred dollars, or two dollars and fifty cents per one hundred shares when the par is fifty dollars per share. On all bonds the tax is one-twentieth of one per cent., or fifty cents on each one thousand dollar bond. The broker of the seller has to account for the tax, charging the same in his account with the customer. The sales of the Government bonds are subject to the same tax as those of other securities.

The New York Evening Post of last evening says: Wall street exhibits gratifying evidence of recovery of reviving confidence. The bank committee is in session, but there is a doubt as to whether the contributing parties will be harmonized, and the efforts to result has yet been arrived at, although there is every disposition on the part of the banks to do all in their power to supply the wants of the national treasury.

Gold opened at 273, and after falling to 268½ closes at 273. Exchange is inactive at 203 for current and 199½ for gold.

The loan market is unchanged. The demand for money is extremely active, and although the amount of capital seeking investment on call is very small, such is the general suspense that lenders are reluctant to make engagements, and borrowers are consequently compelled to pay high rates for accommodation. First-class dry goods paper passes at 9 per cent.

The stock market opened heavy and closed with a slight improvement. Government sales were:

Bank shares are dull; State stocks quiet; railroad bonds firm, and railroad shares heavy.

Registered bonds of 1881 are offered at 104, and coupon five-twenties at 102¾; certificates at 93, and seven-thirties at 104 for the April issue.

Before the first session gold was selling at 271½@272, the last sale being at 12 M., Hudson 124, Reading at 126, Illinois Central at 125½, Pittsburg at 107½, Rock Island at 106½, and Quicksilver at 71.

The appended table contains the chief movements this morning, compared with the latest prices of yesterday.
