THE POLICE.

[Before Mr. Alderman Welding.]

LIEUTENANT STRIPPED OF HIS SHOULDER-STRAPS.

Capt. Chas. Fletcher was arraigned yesterday on a charge of interfering with police officers in the discharge of their duties. The particulars of this case are somewhat interesting. It seems the provost guard were in search of a deserter at the headquarters of the city jumpers, near Front and Spruce streets. The guard was resisted by Lieut. Fletcher. The officers on duty called upon police officers for protection against the annoyance of the Lieutenant. In return, it is alleged, resisted them, and was arrested and taken into custody. A superior military officer in possession of his shoulder-straps, and thus displaying the insignia of his rank he appeared before the magistrate. The charge of assisting deserters to escape was not preferred. This will be left to the military authority. The Lieutenant was committed under the charge of interfering with the officers.

SINGULAR LARCENY.

Mrs. Hanley was arraigned yesterday on the charge of the larceny of $500. It seems that a young man had enlisted and received his bounty. He was taken to the barracks, where he was visited by the prisoner. She passed the guard on the plea of being his sister. Her letters were addressed as freely as those of Mary Sykes when she met her little brother Oliver. It appeared, after the soldier had gone with the money, that she had given her $500, to be handed to her brother, who lives in New Jersey, but she expressed a doubt as to what she should do as she pleased. A man named Patrick O'Connor brought the suit. The accused was committed.

BAIL FORFEITED.

Jacob Brannan named Thos. Heath bridge was held to $2,000 to await a hearing before Alderman Welding on the charge of assault and battery on a man named McGinnis. The affair occurred at Chestnut Hill some time since. It is alleged that McGinnis was shot by Brainbridge, but not dangerously wounded. The hearing was to have taken place yesterday morning, but the defendant did not appear.

THE COURTS.

District Court—Judges Sharswood and Stroud.

This court met yesterday for the first time since the commencement of the summer vacation. The current general motion lists were taken up, and the business upon both disposed of. To-day the argument list will be taken up on first calling.

Court of Quarter Sessions—Judge Ludlow.

About twenty bills of indictment were tried or quashed, the majority having been submitted under the general assault and battery cases) and six pleaded. The first-mentioned cases were thus disposed of: In three cases the non-appearance of the complainants to prosecute, and therefore the Acting District Attorney, Dennis O'Brien, Esq., could do nothing than submit the indictments without evidence. The jury, in order that, as the parties did not appear, verdicts of "not guilty" might be taken, and the accused be relieved of an accumulated quantity of bail-bond, in which the prosecutors had to be bound as aldermen, and revivifying it before the Grand Jury, seem to have lost all interest. But the question in all this thing is as to what they have to do with it. Is not the county, or, in other words, are the people of the county the sufferers?

A New Papal Loan.

PAPAL ADDRESS OF THE ARCHBISHOP OF VIENNA.

It appears that the Papal Government is trying to get a loan of £2,000,000. The financial plans are set forth—from an ultra Catholic point of view—in a pastoral letter on the subject lately issued by the Archbishop of Vienna. After describing the King-making of Italy as founded on the conspiracy and violence of the revolutionary party of Mazzini, in combination with the King of Piedmont, who had played a party false, the Austrian prelate proceeds:

"The kingdom, then, now lorded over from Turin, is destined to permanent existence. It is the mere existence of European peace which prevents this from being so long enabled to drag on a miserable life. Immediately, while it is the pleasure of God to tolerate it, the Holy See is almost entirely deprived of the resources it formerly derived from the Papal States. The legations have now been five months in the Marches, and Benevento four months in the hands of the Piedmontese. Owing, partly to the pressure of extraordinary events, the ordinary expenses have become unavoidable; although the income of the Papal treasury is principally contributed by a population of about 1 inhabitant to a territory of 314 geographical miles, the interest of the public debt, bearing on the entire property of the Papal States, is not punctually liquidated as before. In this state, too, the Father of the Faithful will set an example to princes and peoples, teaching them how to fulfilment of one's obligations under every circumstance. The Catholic world, too, bearing testimony to the feelings awakened by this legation, has already devoted very considerable contributions to the necessities of the Holy See. The instant expenditure is in no proportion to the income of the Holy See, but made it impossible to appeal to the sympathy of all friends of the Church and justice in another way; and on the 25th of March Pio Nono ordered a loan of four millions of francs to be raised.

"The Papal States, which have already begun the 19th century of their existence in Italy, are the world have not escaped the changes of time. Less than once they seemed to waver on the brink of destruction, and at one time, about three years since, a powerful conqueror wholly embraced them with his dominions. Nevertheless the word of the Lord was with them. The tempest raged to rage, conquerors fell, and round the seven Hills were gathered again the remnants of the Providence assigned to the successor of the Apostles in order that he might exercise his functions in full temporal independence. At the time, too, the King of Kings will come to rescue, confounding those who laid unholy hands on the inheritance of St. Peter. In the meantime every Catholic should zealously contribute towards freeing the Papacy in days of trial, the embarrassment his malicious enemies rely upon as a certain support of their plans. Holy Religion and the Church, the interests of order too, and international rights are in the cause of the Holy See. Europe will become a prey to club law were the cowardly conspiracy, brutal, and treacherous deed of 1860 by which the Church was despoiled, allowed to establish a European, a recognized claim. Clear testimony to these sentiments the Loan is not are large treasures required for taking it. Bonds will be issued at one hundred and about forty-five florins Austrian currency; and the interest will be duly paid in silver, no sacrifice will be inflicted by responding to the loan. Those who lend a favorable ear to the appeal will co-operate for the attainment of a double end. They will contribute, as far as it is in their power, towards providing the Holy See with the ordinary resources, and they will also aid in the witness to the unanimity with which all Princes defend the temporal dominion of the Popes. There is no question of profit, but of the cause of the Church and justice. No Catholic nation must stand from it. The particulars of the loan will be given in the official journal of the diocese, in the eyes of God is every work which has the seal of Christian love and charity imprinted on it. Whatever we do for the promotion of the kingdom of God on earth will be regarded as proof that we pray not with the lips only, but with the heart, 'Hallowed be thy name! Thy kingdom come!' Let us also a work of brotherhood and the most exalted philanthropy; the kingdom of God on earth was founded in the Church, and it will be given eternal happiness in the life to come. Saint Martha, whose feast we celebrated to-day (July 29th), served the Saviour. Therefore we are rejoicing with the Church her name is blessed on earth wherever the Gospel is preached. In laboring, then, for the kingdom of God on earth we also serve the Saviour, and we, as well as the redeemed, for the benefit it was founded. I pray Christ may shed the light of His countenance upon us, in order that we may do His will and give honor to Him for ever.

Given at Vienna on the fête of St. Martha, July 29.

CITY ITEMS.

A Few Plain Facts.

Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine is the most simple, cheapest, and most economical.

Sales of the Wheeler & Wilson are in use than other sewing machines combined; 50,000 a year or 5,000 are in use in Philadelphia.

There is no new experiment, to be found useless after months' trial.

Wheeler & Wilson's is the only perfect family Sewing Machine. Every Machine warranted, and many returned if not entirely satisfactory.

Good dressmakers, seamstresses, shirt-makers, and professionals use the Wheeler & Wilson in preference to any other Sewing Machine.

Call and see examine. No charge for instruction, nor you wish to purchase or not. Instruction at the residence of purchasers if desired. Rooms No. 704 Chestnut street, above Seventh. Send for a circular.

IMPORTANT TO THE LADIES.—Are you going to Church? If so, dress your hair with "Lubin's Florida." It will fix your hair in any position you may prefer. It perfumes it delightfully, cause it to curl, and give it the beautiful glossy luxuriance so much to be desired. It is the best medium in the world for applying gold or silver dust to the hair, and is warranted to contain or soil the finest fabric. Sold everywhere.

HALL'S DEMONSTRATION THE BEST PROOF.—The patronage of the "Florence" Sewing Machine Company, No. 630 Chestnut street, has done a wise thing in allowing his popular Machines at the Great Fair to tell their own tale; and they are telling it loudly to admiring thousands. Never was there a more perfect piece of mechanism put in motion since the beginning of the world; and now that the "Florence" Machine said has attached to it its own Self-Sewer," we do not wonder that they are drawing the lead in sales. Every Machine is sold with a guarantee, or the money will be refunded to the purchaser. It is difficult to say which is the more attractive at the Fair or the "Florence" sales-rooms, 630 Chestnut street.

COMMISSIONERS.—The folks in Richmond are in great excitement last week in expectancy of the arrival of "peace commissioners." The crowd that gathered at the depot looked upon every well-dressed man carrying a "carpet sack" as a "commissioner." They were anxious for peace, and they had covetous eyes upon the carpet bags, probably thinking they contained some of the elegant suits made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.—The loss of revenue to the post office service was interrupted has been the decrease, and it is probable the department will ere long be self-sustaining. The number of letters covering deeds, bills of exchange, &c., was 3,822, with an aggregate nominal value of $1,544,277; of these, 7,559 were delivered to drawers. There is no evidence that any letter containing money for clothing addressed to Chas. Stokes & Co.'s "One Price," under the Continental, has been miscarried, or failed of being delivered.

FOR ICE AND PURE AS SNOW.—The Frazer Sozodont is a scientific composition of the most choicest ingredients of the Oriental vegetable kingdom. Every ingredient is well known to the beneficial effect on the teeth and gums. It is free from all disagreeable odors, even that of tobacco. It not only removes those ravages which children have in their teeth owing to improper use of sweet articles, which imperceptibly destroy them. Sold by all Druggists. sc6-tuth3t

THE NOMINATIONS OF THE SEVERAL POLITICAL parties are now before the people. At the election, of course, only one set can be ahead. But our enterprising townsman, W. W. Alter, Esq., at his celebrated new Yard, No. 957 N. Ninth street, is always ahead, regardless of any opposition, in selling the best and cheapest Coal, and giving the people satisfaction, by his courtesy, promptness, and liberality.

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT, PENNSYLVANIA.—I take this method of returning my sincere thanks to the delegates and friends who so generously tendered their support in the effort to obtain the nomination for Congress in this District. It is with pride that I acknowledge that my personal friends were true to the last, and that I was enabled to go into the Convention with a strength alike honorable to my supporters and myself. It is that I feel I will be able to emulate their fidelity to me, and to one and all I extend the hand of fellowship and good will, and hold myself ever ready to aid and assist them in "One good turn deserves another." But one duty remains, and that is to turn in with all our hearts and souls to secure the election of the entire Union ticket.
