THE HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA Office 507 NORTH Street. Open from 2 to 5 P. M. This association devotes its time and attention exclusively to the poor of all classes. A permanent relief from penury and want, and a permanent recovery from vice and immorality, are the objects at which it constantly aims—seeking to place all who become relieved by its benefactions entrusted to it in better positions, both physically and morally, and to elevate them above a condition of poverty and want to one of self-sustaining independence. During the year just past the General Agent, Mr. JOHN A. BRINCKLE, and the Missionary, Mr. ALBERT G. ROWLAND, have made 2,800 visits to the poor. 864 families have been relieved. 64 orders for coal were given. 367 orders for provisions. 65 pairs of shoes and 136 articles of clothing. 15 copies of the Bible and 420 religious tracts were distributed. 183 religious and temperance meetings were held, and 36 persons signed the temperance pledge. 183 adults were furnished with employment and 6 children were provided with good homes in the country. The demands on the treasury are very heavy just now, and the funds are very low. Many sad persons and little children are suffering from the severity of the season, and the managers, whose names appear below, appeal most earnestly for aid in their behalf. All money contributed specially for the relief of suffering are conscientiously appropriated to that purpose only. PRESIDENT, GEORGE H. STUART. VICE PRESIDENT, ALEXANDER G. CATTELL. SECRETARY, RUDOLPH E. BOEHLEN. TREASURER, THOMAS T. MASON. No. 429 MARKET Street. MANAGERS: Wilson Dunton, Thomas Potter, James Appleton, T. Esmonde Harper, Charles Santee, Alexander T. APPEAL FOR THE PEOPLE OF SAVANNAH.—The undersigned, a Committee appointed by Public Meeting of the citizens of Philadelphia, convened for the purpose of taking steps to relieve the wants of our fellow-citizens of Savannah, now relieved from the cruel yoke of rebellion, and once more living under the flag of the United States, make this appeal to the generous and patriotic people of Philadelphia and Pennsylvania. The citizens of Savannah have embraced the first opportunity of proving their loyalty and submission to the United States Government. The capture of the city closed the avenues of trade and supply, and Savannah, isolated from the surrounding country, suffers for food. At the meeting held at the room of the Board of Trade, on the 10th instant, Bishop Potter presiding, a letter, addressed by one of the aldermen of Savannah to Messrs. J. P. Steiner & Co., was read, of which the following is an extract: "The principal object in my addressing you is to ask you whether you cannot get up a subscription for the poor and needy of Savannah, as they are destitute of everything, and such a movement as this would enshrine the Philadelphians in the heart of every citizen of Savannah. In case you do something, do it at once; twenty thousand people are destitute of all you can imagine. Whatever particularly necessary are bacon, flour, and potatoes." In accordance with this appeal, it is proposed that Philadelphia shall send to Savannah a cargo of provisions; and the Committee earnestly appeal to the liberal and patriotic citizens of our State, and invoke their aid in this Christian effort to feed the hungry, to comfort the distressed, and to show our brethren who have been in arms against the constituted authorities of the land, but are so no longer, that they may again enjoy the benefits arising out of returning harmony in our borders. Persons who desire to contribute to the Fund are respectfully requested to send subscriptions to JAS. L. CLAGHORN, 232 MARKET Street. Alonzo Potter, James L. Claghorn, Wm. Hunter, Jr., Joseph P. Fage, A. G. Cattell, Edward S. Clark, Savanah Merrick, T. T. Lane, C. E. Durborow, Gibson Peacock, R. W. Clark, George T. Lewis, Samuel J. Christian, James C. Hand, J. Gillingham Fell, Amg Heston, A. "LOCHIEL," (Late Herr's Hotel,) Corner of THIRD and MARKET Streets, HARRISBURG, Pa. The attention of the travelling public is most respectfully called to this old established stand, which for the past five years has been closed to trade, and during that time has been thoroughly remodeled, repaired, and newly furnished throughout; it now possesses all the convenices pertaining to a first class hotel, which are in any manner calculated to insure the perfect comfort of its guests. Its situation alone would recommend it as a stopping place, being only two and a half squares from the depot, near enough to prove convenient, sufficiently distant to avoid the annoyance of railroad noise and bustle. The furniture is entirely new, rooms large and well ventilated, table supplied with every luxury the market can afford, and as for the management, it is trusted to the judgment of a discriminating public to decide. The proprietor, has been determined to make the character and reputation of the house the object, without regard to cost, hopes to merit the patronage and favorable opinion of those who design stopping in the State capital. HENRY THOMAS, Proprietor

THERE ARE MANY PERSONS WHO, though advanced in years, use glasses with very small magnifying power. The reason is in having obtained lenses when their vision began to fail called to the wants of the eye, and calculated to respond to their wants in a gentle way. Now, the PARABOLAS are eminently such lenses. They have a clear, pure focus, which is universal, and look whichever way you may, the focus meets the optic nerve. For sale only by E.
