THE PROSPECT OF PEACE.

BY THE BARD OF TOWER HALL.

The gloomy clouds are rolling past,
And peace shines forth with silver beam:
The lovely morning breaks at last,
To call us from our painful dream.
Freedom and Peace, by all man sought
As fairest lights amidst life's shade,
By toil and suffering we are bought—
In blood and tears your price is paid!

Yet sweeter by the struggle long
Must the blest fruits of Peace appear,
When only in some tale or song
Shall we of war and bloodshed hear!
By all our reunited land
Shall fame and wealth be shared once more:
And time shall knit the broken band
Stronger than e'er it was before.

With wonder foreign tyrants see
What strength our nation does retain,
And how, though sometimes Liberty
Grows faint, she still revives again.
The fabric which they fondly hoped
Was rocking to its final fall
Has with the fiercest tempests coped,
And now stands firmer than them all!

Our stock of seasonable clothing is full and complete, notwithstanding rapid sales, large additions being made daily. Our purchases being made for cash, and mostly since the heavy decline in prices, and the balance of our stock having been reduced to present values, our customers may rely upon receiving the full benefit of the decline and purchasing at lowsr prices than the lowest offered elsewhere. Our stock includes the finest class of goods, made in the best manner possible. All persons can be fitted at once in garments equal in every respect—style, fit, make, and material—to any made to measure, at fully 25 per cent. lower prices. An examination invited.

PLANTATION BITTERS BY THE MILE.—Messrs. P. H. DRAKE & CO., last year, sold nearly two million bottles of PLANTATION BITTERS. Allowing twelve inches to the bottle, set in a continuous line, they would extend 379 miles. What a nation of invalids we are! Just think of a stream, three inches square, extending from New York to Buffalo, being swallowed by human stomachs in a single year! Yet, people appear to thrive under it, and repeat with pleasure. We are inclined to think Drake & Co. are entitled to the persimmons.—View in Plantation, S. T. 1860.—X. apr 6t

☞ HELP FOR THE HEROES! RICHMOND.—In the exultations and thanksgivings of this glorious day, let us not forget the men who have paid for our victory with their blood and who now lie on the battle-field maimed and dying. Over one hundred Delegates of the CHRISTIAN COMMISSION are now among the wounded, ministering to their wants, giving them cordials and nourishing in each case the strength of the field, and will have borne the weary, jolting ambulance ride, to them coffee and refreshments as they are placed in cars. Hundreds of precious lives have already been saved by the ministrations. Generals GRIFFIN and CHAMBERLAIN have formally thanked the Agents of the Commission in the 5th Corps for these services. Other Delegates accompanied the 24th Corps with similar ministrations. Additional minute men are pressing forward by every train. Demands for more are coming in hourly. The Commission needs ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS TO SAVE LIVES. Millions a week will not restore the lives of those who might have been saved by sending your Delegates to the battle-fields, to succor the bleeding and faint heroes who have saved our country.
Send in your contributions promptly to Mr. JOHN PATTERSON, Treasurer of the Christian Commission, Western Bank, or to the Chairman, Mr. GEORGE STUART, Christian Commission Rooms, No. 1122 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.
