AT A MEETING OF THE INFANTRY CORPS, NATIONAL GUARD, 20th Regiment, P. V., held at their Hall on the 21st inst., the following and accompanying resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The traitorous assassination of our beloved Chief Magistrate, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, at an hour when the nation was jubilant over successive victories, the overthrow of treason, and the hope of a glorious future for our Union, has stirred the heart of the nation with unutterable grief; and

Whereas, it becomes all loyal citizens to express their utter abhorrence of a deed so fiendish, so malignant, committed upon our illustrious Chief, whose purity of life, exalted patriotism, integrity of purpose, and singleness of purpose, with a heart ever flowing with the milk of human kindness, had won for himself the esteem of every loyal citizen; therefore,

Resolved, That we sincerely lament this foul and cowardly deed, as unexampled in the history of our country, deed without a name, that in an unexpected moment struck down our venerated Chief Magistrate, Abraham Lincoln, and has thrown gloom and sadness over every heart; and while we sympathize with our fellow-citizens in this our country's loss, by his assassination, we bow submissively to the inscrutable wisdom of the Almighty, knowing that His dispensations are righteous and kind, even though they seem to us severe.

Resolved, That the honorary, active, life, and contributing members, also, the returned officers, members, and friends of the 20th Regiment, P. V. Vols., be requested to meet at the Hall, MAGE Street, below Sixth, on SATURDAY AFTERNOON, at 3 o'clock, to join the funeral cortege of our late President, Abraham Lincoln. Dark dress. LINCOLN INSTITUTE, AT CHRISTIAN-STREET HOSPITAL.
April 21, 1865.
At a meeting of the members of the CHRISTIAN-STREET HOSPITAL, to express their feelings on the sickness of the country, and especially of the late horrible tragedy enacted at our National Capital, STEWARD ELLIS was called to the chair and a committee was appointed, who reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were adopted:

Whereas, Our beloved Chief Magistrate has fallen by the hand of a murderous assassin, the undoubted instrument of a cold-blooded conspiracy, which had for its object the defiling anew our land with blood, the changing of our joy into mourning by striking down, in the hour of our triumph, the noblest and best in our land; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in this villainous deed, which has been planned and followed up to its consummation with all the malignity of the arch-fiend himself, we recognize the spirit of that vilest of all curses, Slavery, guided and directed by its equally vile offspring, Treason.

Resolved, That traitors North and South should be made to realize that the cowardly and fiendish spirit which prompted the assassination of ABRAHAM LINCOLN, our noblest patriot and most worthy defender of universal liberty, has ruthlessly struck down the forgiving hand that was ready and waiting to pardon all their deeds of blood and cruelty, and wave them from the ignominious fate they so justly merited; but having by this most cruel and unpardonable act forfeited all claims to the mercy of an injured and outraged people.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the conviction that President JOHNSON, will deal out strict justice, not only to the perpetrators of this deed, without a parallel, but also to those aspiring aiders and abettors, just like! By the hard-fought battle fields which dot our land, by the memory of our slaughtered brothers, by the desolate hearths in our homes, by the blood we have shed, and our maimed bodies, we cry for justice! justice! justice!

Resolved, That we, as soldiers, pledge our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor in the support of the new administration, in upholding the Constitution and the enforcement of the laws.

Resolved, That in this hour of national calamity and sorrow, we unite in mourning the loss of ABRAHAM LINCOLN, the personification of all that was good and noble, in one of the greatest afflictions that could befall this nation.

Resolved, That we will ever hold in grateful remembrance his noble unselfish character as a man, a patriot, and a statesman.

Resolved, That as a token of our grief at our nation's loss, we wear the usual badge of mourning for six months.

Resolved That we as a body meet and pay the last tribute to the remains of him we love, while passing through this city.

Resolved That we tender our heartfell sympathy to the bereaved family of our lamented President.

CITIZENS' VOLUNTEER HOSPITAL, BROAD AND PRINE Streets, April 21, '65.
At a select meeting of the Board of Managers, held THIS EVENING, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, We the managers of the Citizens' Volunteer Hospital Association, desiring to place upon record some expression of our feelings at the great calamity that has befallen the nation, in the untimely death of our beloved Chief Magistrate, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, who, in pursuance of resolutions adopted by the most enlightened men of the world, during four years of civil war, guided our nation in trouble, with honor to our noble Government and the love and affections of the loyal people, and having entered upon another Presidential term, with every prospect of returning peace and success to the great principle of universal liberty, was cut down by the hand of a hired assassin at a public place of amusement, whither he had voluntarily gone with the desire (in the kindness of his heart) to gratify the audience, it having been previously announced that he would be present; therefore,

Resolved, That we bow in humble submission to the great affliction, in which our Country has been so suddenly visited, trusting that "Be who doeth all things well" will keep us as always heretofore, sid-turn what now seems a great and sorrowful calamity into a national blessing.

Resolved, That in ABRAHAM LINCOLN we had a President whose great aim was liberty to all, the only principle by which our Government can be held together, and we hereby tender our sympathy to his successors, and may his glorified spirit, with that of Washington, be permitted to guide and direct the affairs of the nation while we exist as a Government.

Resolved, That while we hope a proper example will be made of the hireling who could do so base a deed, we will direct our wrath upon and labor to destroy the principles of slavery and rebellion which have for so long a time endeavored to drag us back into darkness and to ignore the fact that "all men were created free and equal."

Resolved, That the hospital be suitably decorated and remain so for thirty days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the morning and evening papers.

THOS. L. GIFFORD, Secretary. 1t
