THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.—Jacob Young, Esq., has been re-appointed one of the Inspectors of the Berks County Prison.——The "soap man" and the "patent medicine man," had a large crowd around them last evening at Sixth and Penn sts. ——Marsdorf's Varieties now have quite a good run—house crowded nightly.——A lumber wagon heavily loaded, bound for Geigertown, broke down on Penn street yesterday.——The annoying flies will soon be among the missing. ——Rev. B. G. Peters has received and accepted the call of the Society of Universalists of this city, and will enter upon his duties at an early day.——The fields are being plowed and put in order to receive the seed for next year's bread.——G. A. Nicholls, Esq., the Superintendent of our railroads, has ordered that all articles for exhibition at our fair be brought to and returned free of charge.——A man from Hamburg, whose name we did not learn, had one of his toes mashed, last evening, while getting on the 5½ o'clock up train. ——Several freight cars ran off the track last evening, at the Walnut street bridge.——More traveling on the Reading railroad this season, than at same time last year.——Stove dealers of our city start in fall trade right brisk.——Everything endeth—but we hope the street railway project has not ended.——Persons who take up a newspaper in a hotel, should remember that there may be others who wish to read and therefore should replace them when finished reading.——Persons who use disrespectful language toward their servants, cannot be faithfully served.——Some ruffians had a knock down on the corner of Tenth and Penn streets about noon yesterday. There were no police about just at the time and consequently no arrests were made.——A beautiful transparency, containing a likeness of Seymour and Blair and a declaration of principles, has been placed in front the Democratic Club Room, in Sixth street, above Penn.——A walking match recently took place in North Fifth street. Two men walked away without paying their board bills. Money lost on match—$20.——Strong radish—horse radish.—— ——William Still, holding out at Mishler's hotel, gives a splendid shave.——Penn street last evening presented a lively appearance, as usual.—— Last evening two men in a buggy drove up Washington street and created quite a sensation, by one of them playing "Champagne Charley" on a violin.——Another fishing party out yesterday, but they didn't "ketch" any!——Boot blacks are becoming a necessary institution in this city.—— The Williamsport Mænnerchor will hold a pic-nic on Monday next. Several gentlemen and ladies from this city will participate.——A number of boys are in the habit of getting on the cars, as they are in motion, at Seventh and Penn streets. Some day we will record the death of one of them.—— Ice cream dealers' harvest is drawing to a close. It endeth, well!——The word frost is not a pleasant one to write on this dawn day of September— and yet we are assured that this forerunner of winter has already made its appearance in the middle part of our State.——The Pennsylvania State Fair will be held at Harrisburg, commencing on the 29th of September.——The live man is like a little pig, he is weaned young and begins to root early.—— A good title—"The Petticoterie" is suggested as a title for the literary ladies' club.——The live man is not always a deep thinker, he jumps at conclusions just as a frog dus, and don't alwus land at the spot he is lookin' at.——A large number of boats passing down the Schuylkill canal.——The live man is like a decoy duck, always above water, and lives at least eighteen months each year.——Einstein's Driving Park is rapidly approaching completion.——A little child, who wandered on the street yesterday, came near being run over, in front of the EAGLE office.——The live man lights up like a kotton faktory, and hain't got any more time than a skool boy has Saturday afternoons.—— Mr. Curricombe, one of the most efficient drivers on the canal, has gone to Manayunk for a short time for his health.——A number of droves of fine beeves passed through the city yesterday, destined as we suppose, to supply the Philadelphia market. ——An attempt is being made to restore the old-fashioned high waists worn by our grandmothers. ——The young lady who was frozen with horror, and subsequently melted into tears, was carried out and consigned to a watery grave.——The tomato crop is unusually fine this year; the fruit being large, luscious and luxuriant. There is no vegetable or garden fruit that is more healthful; or that is now in more general use for cooking.—— The season of the year is fast approaching when the happy fair days will come. Old and young, little and big, male and female—all attend, and are happy. Fair days are holidays—rural holidays—and delightful ones, too.——The fay flowers of summer are fast fading—fleeting away in a garniture of golden, grave-glory.——The pretty milliner women of Reading are preparing for a lively fall trade, and their windows display a tempting array of all that is charming to woman's eyes.—— There's a gentleman up town so considerate for the comfort of others that he won't have a mosquito canopy over his bed. He wouldn't deprive even a gallinipper of fulfilling the evident ends of his creation.——An eel has been caught in the Schuylkill river, measuring three feet in length and several inches in diameter.——The patent medicine man exhibited last evening a tape worm which was forty-two feet long.——A large assortment of stationery at the Eagle bookstore.—— There will be a sauerkraut lunch given at the Union Garden Saloon, 904 Penn street, on Saturday evening, Sept. 5. The Dispatch is publishing German editorials. We hope the Germans can tell what they mean. If so, they will have better success than those who have been bored with the English ones in the same paper.

READING DISPENSARY.—A change of visiting physicians to the dispensary, was made on the first inst. Doctors P. F. and H. M. Nagle have been appointed to attend at the institution daily for the next two months.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—There were no cases for disposal by the Mayor this morning. But one individual occupied the apartment known as "The Lock-up" during the night, and he was a weary, foot-sore way-farer, who had been incarcerated of his own accord, and who early this morning pursued his journey.

CARRYING A JOKE TOO FAR.—On Sunday, during the religious services in the market house, a certain party "in a joke," carried off a pair of shoes which a boy had hung on a hook. The boy's father thinks that keeping the shoes four days is carrying a joke too far, and he intends to "make an example" of the joker if the shoes are not returned.

THE Adams County Agricultural Society will hold its sixth annual exhibition at Gettysburg, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 22d, 23d and 24th. A half mile track has been put in excellent condition, and a premium of $100 is offered for the best trotting horse—open to the world. A large attendance is expected, and a fine display will no doubt be made.

SUBSCRIBE for the EAGLE.

BENEVOLENT GRAFF requests us to state that the report put in circulation by some person that he had expressed himself in favor of the election of Grant and Colfax, was not true. He says that he was born a Democrat and expects to die one, and that he would like the person who originated the report to call on him, when he will prove to his entire satisfaction, with striking evidence, that what he asserted was an unmitigated falsehood.

WARD MEETING.—A meeting was held last evening by the Democracy of Third Ward, for the purpose of nominating delegates to the County Convention, to be voted for on Saturday next. The following named gentlemen were nominated: Dr. H. M. Nagle, Wm. Orth, F. B. Laucks.

Dr. H. M. Nagle presided, and A. S. Sassaman and Samuel Kerper, Esqrs., acted as Secretaries. It was the largest primary meeting ever held in the ward.

IMPROVEMENT.—The property holders along Third street, from Pine to Canal, have lately been making great improvements in front of their dwellings—by way of having the curbs set, gutters paved, and filling up and relaying pavements. Some have gone to considerable expense in raising the side walk to the regulation height, but the looks and value of their property have been increased thereby. The bad weather will soon be upon us, when the benefits of good side walks will only be fully realized.

CHARGE OF THEFT.—Susan Strahl came before Alderman Mengel yesterday afternoon and made complaint against Sarah Strahl for stealing a gold breastpin worth $1.50. It appears that Sarah kept this valuable pin in a drawer with other valuables and did not use it often. A few days ago she wanted the pin, but could not find it and suspected that it was stolen. She called at Allen Bechtel's Pawn Broker office and found that it had been pawned there for twenty-five cents by Sarah. Officer Deihl made the arrest. She gave bail for her appearance at court.

THE ungrammatical donkey who attempted to cover up his bad English with worse Latin, in the Dispatch of Tuesday, never voted the Democratic ticket in his life. What right has such a niggerite to disgrace a decent party by calling himself "A Former Democrat?" As he fights under the black flag, he should not be afraid to sail under it always. However, the blind follower of a cowardly infidel, like Carl Schurz, cannot be expected to possess either brains or honesty. No doubt he did his best in the way of "ritin' for the papers," but his friends should see that he is properly cared for, and kept out of the street when the fool-killer comes around.

USE OF THE FLY.—The fly has its uses.— He serves to keep bald-headed sinners awake at church on a warm summer's day, so that their unregenerated hearts may be touched by the preached word. He also encourages the spirit of invention, inducing the inventive to tax their brains in contriving fly-traps.— (The flying trapeze has no connection with fly-traps.) As it is through trials alone that a patient spirit reaches its full complete development, the fly is a useful agent in the good work; for the man who can patiently endure the persistent efforts of a fly to alight upon a warm day, has very nearly reached the perfection of patient beatitude.

MEETING OF LODGES AND ASSOCIATIONS.— The following named organizations will hold their regular stated meetings this (THURSDAY) evening:

Reading Lodge No. 335 I. O. of G. T., at Temperance Hall.

Reading Lodge No. 348, I. O. of O. F., at Odd Fellows' Hall.

Muhlenberg Lodge, U. D. O. H., at Yeager's Hall, Penn street.

Pilgrim Circle No. 26, B. U., at Brotherhood of U. Hall.

Symmetry Lodge No. 108, I. O. of O. F., Hamburg.

ALLENTOWN, PA., August 31st, 1868.
To Mr. E. D. Reichard,

AGENT GOOD WILL GIFT ENTERPRISE.— Owing to a considerable number of tickets remaining unsold, as well as coupons unreturned, we have been compelled to postpone the drawing of the Good Will Enterprise for a short time, which fact you will please announce to interested parties in your neighborhood. From the rate at which tickets have been issued of late, however, we are encouraged in the belief that they will be all disposed of in a very short time, and to this end we are now getting in goods, such as pianos, sewing machines, furniture, &c., which you and your friends are invited to inspect as opportunity may offer. To the end that the drawing may come off at the earliest possible day, we would respectfully urge you to renewed exertion in the sale of tickets.— If each one of our agents could sell, say from twenty to forty tickets, in addition to those already sold, the drawing could come off in a week's time. So you may see the time is not far distant. Respectfully,

Sept. 3-2t WM. F. WOLLE, Chairman.

THE WHISKEY TAX.—Commissioner Rollins has just issued a circular with reference to the whisky tax, in which he says: By section fifty-eight of the act of July 20, 1868, it is provided that all spirits forfeited to the United States, sold by order of the court, and any distilled spirits condemned before the passage of the act and in possession of the United States, shall be subject to tax, and the purchaser shall immediately, before he takes possession of said spirits, pay the tax thereon. The spirits sold are subject to tax without regard to the question whether or not the tax has been previously paid thereon. The tax to be paid is fifty cents per wine gallon when below proof, and per proof gallon when above proof. The special tax of four dollars per barrel imposed upon distillers for each barrel in excess of one hundred barrels produced by them is not applicable; nor is the tax of like amount imposed upon spirits in bonded warehouses at the time of the passage of the act. This being substantially a new tax accruing upon the sale of the spirits, it will be payable in the district where the sale is made. When, therefore, a sale is made by the marshal, he will require the purchaser to deliver to him the receipt of the collector of the district in which such sale is made for the tax due upon such spirits, which receipt will be executed on form 105, and must also be signed by the assessor or an assistant assessor, who will also enter the amount upon his monthly list. The barrels must also be marked with the name of the marshal and his official title, the date of sale, and the words "Tax Paid," either with a stencil plate or branding iron, until some further provision is made for the identification of such packages.

GREAT hit at Marsdorf's Varieties, a new sensation. Second night of Cousin Joe and Statue Blanche. The performance is unsurpassed by any other in the city. Everybody delighted. 1t

A COLLISION occurred near the Lebanon Valley railroad Round House last evening, by which a number of coal cars were thrown off the track. The accident was remedied in a short time, and the cars returned to their position.—Harrisburg State Guard.

SUDDEN FALL OF BREADSTUFFS.—Yesterday afternoon, between 4 and 5 o'clock, Mr. Sauppe's baker wagon broke down at the corner of Fifth and Laurel streets. The bread and cakes rolled out on the street, to the delight of the boys who witnessed the catastrophe!

GRIGER & BROTHER, (William and Charles) No. 431 Penn street, have just received, and are opening, the largest lot of boots, shoes, hats, caps, straw goods, furs, trunks, valises, &c., that ever before came to Reading.— Everything they have is of the latest style, and will be sold at the most reasonable prices. Call and examine, and price their goods—Penn street (North side), between Fourth and Fifth. Sept. 3-2t.

BEAUTIFUL TRANSPARENCY.—Yesterday, a very large and handsome transparency was placed in front of the Democratic Headquarters, corner of Sixth and Penn streets. It was illuminated last evening, and attracted the attention of all the pedestrians who passed that way. The transparency has a triangular shape, one side of which rests against the wall. Of the sides that are turned toward the street, one contains handsome paintings, in oil, of Seymour and Blair, surrounded by wreaths and appropriate designs; the other side contains the following, each sentence painted in a different color:

Democratic Headquarters.
One currency for every one.
The bonds shall be paid as the contract was made.
Let us have peace and the wages of labor increased.
No Freedman's Bureau to spend the taxpayers money to raise the negro over the white man.
Justice to those who fought, rather than protection to those who stole.
No aristocrats in a Republic.
No enslaving of the plowholder to enrich the bondholder.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Reported by Louis Richards, Attorney at Law, No. 530 Court Street.

FIFTEENTH DAY—WEDNESDAY.

The East Penna. Rail Road Co. vs. Aaron Bower. 25 Jan. T., 1867. Judgment by consent for plffs. for $280 07 and costs. D. Ermentrout and Hagenman for plffs. F. L. Smith for deft.

Jacob Stub vs. Jonathan Dundore. 115½ Jan. T., 1866. This was an action of trespass to recover damages from the deft. for entering upon the lands of the plff. and cleaning out a water ditch without authority for the act. The plaintiff, and one, Jonathan Dundore, were formerly owners as tenants in common of a tract of 182 acres of land, in North Heidelberg township. Jonathan Dundore died in 1865, and his interest in the land was purchased by the defendant from his administrators. On the 13th of September, 1844, the then owners entered into an article of agreement for the division of the land between them, in which Stub covenanted to grant and maintain to Dundore the right to use the water from a certain spring on the land of the former, for the purpose of watering his meadow, providing no damage was done by Dundore in cleaning out the water course. On the 31st of December, 1845, deeds were executed in pursuance of the agreement, the deed from Dundore to Stub, containing a provision by which Dundore and those claiming under him were forever debarred from coming upon the land of Stub for any purpose. After giving this deed in evidence, the plaintiff showed the fact of the entry of the defendant, upon his land with his teams in Nov. 1865, and the carrying away of the sod from the channel of the ditch, in order to start the flow of the water, which had become obstructed.

So diffuse was the testimony and so complicated the details in this case, that a full history of the same would greatly transcend reasonable limits, besides furnishing a narrative of vastly inferior interest to the public than to the litigating parties. It will be sufficient, therefore, to remark here that the position taken by the defence was, that when the deeds for the respective portions of land and for the water right came to be drawn up, in 1845, the plff., in fraud of the contract, withheld his execution of the latter conveyance, in consequence of which the parties were remitted, as to their rights, to the provisions of the original agreement, upon which the deft. relied for the justification of the act herein complained of. The question of the alleged fraud was submitted by the Court, as the matter of fact to be determined by the jury, who returned a verdict in favor of the defendant. Green and J. S. Richards for plff. F. L. Smith for deft.

The School District of Longswamp Township vs. Henry Trexler. 52 April T. 1866. The deft. was one of five persons who were drafted on the 31st of May, 1864, to fill the quota of Longswamp township. For each of these men the township put in substitutes on the 8th of June following, at a cost of $500 each. By a resolution of the School Board, the directors had been authorized to pay to each of the drafted men $300. The excess of $200, it was contended by the plff. was advanced towards obtaining the substitutes upon the express condition that it should be refunded to the township, and for this amount, with interest, a recovery was sought in this action. The deft. contended that he had entered into no such arrangement, and that the $200 paid by the School Board was an unauthorized expenditure of the township funds, for the misapplication of which they, and not himself, were personally liable.

This case was tried before in this court, at April term, 1867. Upon that trial the members of the School Board were offered as witnesses to prove an agreement of the deft. to refund the $200, but the court rejected their testimony as to the alleged contract with the defendant, on the ground that they a had a direct interest in are-covery by the plffs. in order to exempt themselves from liability to the township for the mispayment of the money, but admitted it to prove the action of the Board. The Court charged the jury that there was no evidence for their consideration in support of the plff's claim and that their verdict must be for the deft. To this charge exception was taken by the counsel for the plffs. and the case was carried up to the Supreme Court. This tribunal affirmed the ruling of the Court below in excluding the testimony of the School Directors as to the express contract, but held that they were in error, in stating that there was no evidence to support the plaintiff's claim, the law imputing a liability on the part of the defendant, to refund the $200 from his request to the School Board to advance the money.

After evidence as to the facts of the case and a brief argument of counsel, the Court read to the jury the opinion of the Supreme Court, instructing them that under that opinion their verdict must be for the plaintiffs. Verdict for plffs. for $250 75. Bechtel for plff. J. S. Richards for deft.

SIXTEENTH DAY—THURSDAY.

Venus Seidel for the use of Wm. Bernhart, assignee, vs. the School District of Richmond township. 80 Nov. T. 1866. Plff. takes non-suit. Becker for plff., J. S. Richards for deft.

Michael Sausen vs. Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Berks Co. On trial.

From Georgia—More of Grant's Peace.

SAVANNAH, Sept. 2.—The negroes on the outskirts of the city are causing considerable trouble. They are armed and drilling nightly, and stop farmers on the roads leading to the city. The country folks are compelled to go in parties of ten to twenty when they come to market. A boy has mysteriously disappeared, and it is supposed that he has been murdered by negroes.

The Vermont Election.

RUTLAND, Vt., Sept. 3.—Returns have as yet been received from only half the State. They give Edwards, Dem., 8,351, and Page, Rad., 23,331.

The Democrats claim an increase of several thousand votes since last year, and state that the Radicals have made no increase of moment since Lincoln's election.

There is great jollification among the Republicans, firing of salutes, &c.

IF our friends will use preparations for restoring gray hair they should use the best in the market. Our attention has lately been called to an article which has an extensive sale and a very high reputation, known as Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia, and we are inclined to think that it possesses more desirable and less objectionable qualities than any other in the market. It restores gray or faded hair to its original color in a most remarkable manner, and by its invigorating and soothing properties removes all dandruff and humors from the scalp. Give it a fair trial and you cannot fail to like it. aug 19 1 m
