THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.—See important local matter in other columns.

Out of date—ice cream.

Martino has gone to Harrisburg.

The last "sensation" didn't take well!

Does a swallow in the throat have wings?

Is the ship of State propelled by sail or steam?

A slight misunderstanding, last evening, between two young "chaps," brought them to blows, but through the interposition of a bystander, the "mill" was brought to a stand-still.

The Hamburg battalion will take place on the 10th of October.

In getting up in the world be careful that it is not by the aid of a rope.

Money has destroyed a great many more people than the want of it.

A few weeks ago fans were given away gratis; now match-safes are being distributed gratuitously. Wonder if the time will not come when pianos will be given away?

No class make more decided hits than prize-fighters.

The Neversink Hose Company housed their new and beautiful carriage on Monday last. The old carriage, which has been in service for twenty-seven years, will be put in a glass case, and preserved as a memento of the past.—Sunday Mercury.

Anything in the stationery line can be had at the EAGLE bookstore.

The new extension to Seyfert, McManus & Co's. rolling mill is now completed.

A party of ten ladies and three gentlemen paid a visit to the White Spot early on Sunday morning.

The Fire Department of this city was never in a better condition than now.

The Grecian band is now called imcircumbendibustrosity.

A force of men are at work repairing Bingaman street, below 5th, and laying the crossings Council ordered at their last meeting.

The man with the "blowing machine" has arrived in town. Try the capacity of your lungs.

Jimmie Brown, with the "pulling machine" is in town. Try your strength.

The man with the "galvanic battery" is here. Try the strength of your nerves.

Jacob Sterris, the "snake show man," has arrived, and will astonish the natives during the week.

Photographers are busy just now. Some of our artists working day and night. Last night Yeager's establishment, 433½ Penn street, mounted 500 pictures for one party.

Next season short dresses are to be worn on all occasions with the exception of balls.

To-day, the day and night will be equal, the sun rising at 6 a. m., and setting at 6 p. m.

Equinoxial commences to-day.

Mosquitoes are getting discouraged. Their reign of annoyance will soon terminate.

Quinces have not yet shown themselves in the market. The question is, are there any to show?

Tomatoes will soon be lying, sprawling and bloody, upon the ground. People who have not made their catsup should hurry it up.

Mr. Garst, of the late firm of Garst & Mast, is at work on his new shop, and has it already up to the second floor. Mr. Garst expects to be in working order by November 1st.

"Changeable" silks and poplins are the fashion for this winter. Our reporter would like to "change" about half a dozen of 'em from some dry goods store to his house. That is the kind of "change" in silks that would suit us.

The "wickedest" man in Reading is a Republican.

One of our artists has just taken a lady at a crossing. It looks like a bundle of dry goods hastily gathered and in a very mixed and mussed condition. It will no doubt go, as the lady was trying to when taken.

There was a fight in North Ninth street yesterday afternoon. We could not learn the name of the parties or any particulars, only that one of them had his eye shrouded in mourning.

The regular annual gathering of the Hans Graff family took place at Litis on Saturday last. The gathering was very large, and the occasion is represented as having been very interesting.

Mr. Seyfert is putting up an iron fence in front of the yard adjoining his residence on South Fifth street. Mr. Seyfert has one of the finest residences in the city.

Great reduction in boots and shoes, hats and caps and clothing at Geiger & Bros., 431 Penn street. See advertisement.

Our farmers are as busy putting out their fall crops as the weather will permit. Some two weeks back, the weather was too dry and the ground too hard to plow. Now it is too wet, but taking it all in all, the weather has been very favorable for farmers, with probably more working days than generally fall to their lot at this season.

Taking rings and handkerchiefs from young ladies by force is considered a brilliant exploit by some young men, though we fail to see how a gentleman can do anything of the kind. We are glad to state that a young man in Scranton has been arrested and punished for taking a ring from a lady friend. We hope this is only a beginning, and that many such examples will be made.

Fruit continues so high that it don't go down even in the throat.

Many flowers and tender plants exposed to the atmosphere have been blighted by the late sudden change in the weather.

Enoke's comet is now visible through a glass. It is located near the constellations Gemini and Cancer, and can be seen between 3 o'clock and daylight in the morning. After the latter part of September, it can be seen with the naked eye from 9 in the evening till 3 in the morning.

Chief Burgess Suntag, of the borough of Hamburg, gives notice, that the streets and gutters of that place must be cleaned immediately. Sharp orders.

The winter bids fair to be many days earlier than it was last year.

Now's the time to get stove work done and windows weather-stripped. A couple of weeks from now the stove men will be too busy to notice small jobs.

It is said that a barrel of petroleum in a cellar will drive away rats.

Steel sockets with rubber tops, for lead pencils an excellent article—can be used until the pencil is worn out. For sale at the Eagle Bookstore.

The feet are better adapted to a reel than the brain.

When you are mid-Atlantic are you necessarily half seas over?

Mr. Golightly says he likes men of spirit. Most of his acquaintances are bar-tenders.

Now is the time. Go and see the combined press and strainer for family use. It is one of the greatest kitchen utensils ever invented. McKnight has them for sale at his store, Third and Penn streets.

REAL ESTATE SOLD.—The heirs of David Kauffman sold a farm of 109 acres, situated in Centre township, this county, to the Bushong Brothers, for $85 per acre.

THE DISPENSARY.—There are two cases at the Dispensary—two sprained ankles and a broken arm. Each case is doing as well as can be expected.

MR. JAMES RUTH, of this city, drew the sheep at Marsdorf's last night. He sold it immediately to "Billie" Worrell, of Philadelphia, for $2.00. It was worth triple that amount.

SPLENDID lot of Window Shades and Papers, cheap, at G. K. CLEAVER'S, sept 21-2t* 750 Penn street.

THE Berks County Agricultural Fair commenced this morning, and will close on Thursday evening. We will endeavor to give a full and correct account of the proceedings and articles on exhibition.

STOCK.—140 young cattle—from six to eight months old—reached this city this morning from New York via the East Penn railroad. They were brought here to sell, as stock, to the farmers who may visit Reading during the present week.

THE TRANSPORTATION OF COAL.—110,000 tons of coal were transported over the Philadelphia and Reading railroad last week, ending on Thursday, 17th inst. This is the largest quantity of coal that has ever been conveyed over this road in one week.

HUGE TWIN STEERS.—Mr. Henry Kurtz, of Mt. Joy, Lancaster county, is the owner of twin steers, between four and five years old, weighing together nearly 5000 pounds. We understand they will be on exhibition in this city this week.

THE Adams County Agricultural Fair will commence to-day, 22d inst., at Gettysburg, and will continue until Thursday, the 24th. On the fair ground is a half-mile track, and the society offers a premium of $100 for the best trotter—open to the world.

DEMOCRATS, turn out this evening, to hear John O'Byrne, Esq., of Philadelphia, who will speak at the Keystone House. Go early, and take your neighbor with you.

Should the weather prove unfavorable, the meeting will be held in Keystone Hall.

"THE Invincibles are filling up their ranks very rapidly. Bring in the recruits boys."—Dispatch.

Certainly; bring in the boys—you can't get men, and the torches must be carried by somebody. "Boys" are the only recruits you are likely to receive.

SIGNIFICANT.—A citizen of the Seventh Ward, this city, has raised two flower stalks in his yard. The one he named the Seymour and the other the Grant stalk. On the former stalk twenty flowers grow, and on the latter only twelve, and those are being destroyed by caterpillars.

A FAMILY who lived 27 miles off, moved to this city yesterday, in wagons. Upon unloading they discovered a bundle of bed-quilts missing. It is not known whether the bundle was stolen or lost along the road.—The number of quilts was about a dozen, and their value not less than $50.

MARTINO.—Last night Martino presented a beautifully chased silver horn—worth some $50—to the Neversink Fire Company, No. 3, for selling the greatest number of tickets to his entertainment. They had disposed of some 90 tickets. The horn is on exhibition at Von Neida's, South Sixth street.

BREAK-DOWN AT ECKERT'S FURNACE.—The cross-head of the engine, and a large cog-wheel, at Eckert's furnace, in the southeastern part of town, broke on Friday, suspending operations. The machinists of Messrs. Douglass & Connard have been working day and night, since then, making the repairs.

THE NEW M. E. CHAPEL.—The masons commenced this morning laying the foundation for the new Chapel in Elm street, above Ninth. The excavation was made last week. The dimensions of the lot is 75 by 40 feet, and the building will be 65 by 86 feet. Mr. Crouse owns 60 feet of ground fronting on Ninth street, which we understand, he intends reserving for a large Church building to be erected some years hence.

ABOUT one hundred of our citizens paid a visit to the Mineral Springs last night, and partook of a sumptuous supper which was gotten up for the occasion. They were conveyed to the Springs in eleven carriages and six omnibusses, and were accompanied by a band of music. They had a delightful drive, and spent a pleasant evening, returning home in good spirits, pleased with themselves and the rest of mankind.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—John U. Smith, of Hamburg, sold his property on Main street, to Oliver H. Sellers, for the sum of $1,755.

The farm of Jacob Focht, deceased, of Windsor township, was sold last week, to Michael Renchler, of Upper Bern township, for the sum of $14,250. The farm contained 211 acres.

Wm. D. Shomo, of Hamburg, sold his store last week, which he had occupied twenty years, to Joseph Hatzfield and Harrison Shomo, of that place.

ARE YOU ASSESSED?—As the election is close at hand, every voter should examine the tax list stuck up by the Assessor in his district, to see if his name is thereon. If not found upon such list, you must go to the Assessor in person and have your name entered—it having been decided that no assessment is legal except upon the personal application of the voter to be assessed. Let every man attend to this highly important duty at once, lest he should be deprived of his vote at the coming election.

"OUR press, which has been broken down and out of service for a week past, is again qui vive."—Dispatch.

A professor of languages is badly needed at the Dispatch office. The German editorials have collapsed because the Germans couldn't understand them, and now the Scissorites are trying their hands at French. And such French! Shade of Napoleon! Won't somebody present our neighbor of the Dispatch with a French primer? "Our press is again qui vive!" Take our hat!

IT DIDN'T COME OUT RIGHT.—On the free excursion train to Lebanon yesterday, Bully Lyon canvassed the train to ascertain the political views of the passengers, being confident of having a Republican majority to report. Unfortunately for Bully, however, the verdict went the wrong way, and he took his seat again, refusing to make public the result of the vote. This is generally the case with Radicals. They are always taking votes on the cars; if there is a majority for Grant it is always published with a flourish of trumpets, but if the Seymour vote predominates, nothing is said about the matter.—Oh, Bully! fair play is a jewel, but you don't appear to think so.

CHAS. LEVAN & Co., jobbers and retailers in Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods, No. 441 Penn street, (next door to Farmer's Bank.) Particular attention paid to clothing made to order. It

FORNEY, in a recent speech, said that fifteen millions of government bonds were held and owned by citizens of Berks county. We have no means of testing the truth of this assertion. We take it for granted that for once Forney tells the truth. If so, what does it prove? Simply, that fifteen millions of the wealth of Berks county is exempt from taxation. We notice that the personal property in that county, in 1860, subjected to State tax, was valued at a little less than five millions of dollars. This, of course, did not embrace the bonds, but merely horses, cows, carriages, furniture and other personal effects. We have not at hand the figures showing the rate of taxation in that county, but presume it is not less than two per cent., all told. If so, the tax-payers of Berks county would be relieved of about one half their present burthens if the Democratic doctrine of taxing these bonds was in practice. The people of all other sections would fare equally as well.—Harrisburg Patriot.

POLICE AFFAIRS.—Patrick Kaler came to town yesterday on the cars. He had evidently stopped off at some station and took a "big horn" before coming to Reading.—When he got off the cars at the depot, he thought he would take things "free and easy," and acted in a very disorderly manner. Officer Roland being on hand, took him in charge, and conducted him to the "mansion," where such fellows are straightened up, and sobered. He was placed behind the bars until this morning, when he "forked over" $2.25 and was discharged. He went on his way rejoicing, promising not to visit the "mansion" again.

Wm. Walter came from the country. After seeing the sights, he indulged somewhat in "bad stuff," which made him kind o' "I don't care for anybody," and finally settled down in Seventh street, between Penn and Franklin. His rest was soon, however, disturbed, by officer Lawrence, who came that way, and as it became his duty, he took him up, and conducted him to the "place of rest"—the lock-up. This morning he was called up before His Honor, the Mayor, when it was found that he had no stamps, and after being reprimanded he was let off, by giving security for the sum of $2.25.

Patrick Brady, yesterday, became so top-heavy that he mistook the pavement for his "virtuous couch," and thus stretched himself at ease. Officer Maurer took pity on him, and conveyed him to the "bunks" in the station house, where he rested well, until this morning, when he was called up to give an account of himself before His Honor, the Mayor. He was fined $2.25 and discharged.

The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend his funeral, on Thursday morning next, Sept. 24th, at 10 o'clock, from his late residence, in said township, without further notice. s21-3t

BUSINESS NOTICES.

THE DIFFERENCE.—One of the chief points of difference between civilized and barbarous mankind is in the attention given to the natural covering for the head; the one being carefully cut, cleansed and brushed, and the other allowed to remain dirty and unkempt. The use of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" will ensure all that could be desired by civilization or ignored by barbarism.—Boston Post. sept 18-1w

The politicians and speakers of both parties are active and vigilant, and are carrying on the canvass with the greatest ardor. A number of the latter are announced to address audiences at different points during the short time which intervenes before the election.

DEALERS in lumber and brick have realized a season of unexampled prosperity the present summer, the impetus given to building operations testing their resources to the fullest capacity.

THE false alarm of fire at noon, to-day, was caused by a large quantity of smoke issuing from the chimney of Mr. Heitzman's building, in South Sixth street, near Penn. The top of the chimney could not be seen from the street. The firemen turned out with their usual promptness.

A MAN was found dead at Mengle's lime-kilns, in Conestoga Valley, Cœnarvon township, Berks county, on Saturday morning last. He was an entire stranger, and it is supposed was a laborer on the Wilmington and Reading Railroad, who probably got to near the kilns when intoxicated, and was suffocated by the gas.

LOCAL items are scarce as gold dollars. Reader, if you allow us our choice, we'll be like the boy that was offered his choice of sports—good and bad—by an indulgent parent, we'll try a little of both.

IMPROVEMENTS.—We doubt if there is a city in Pennsylvania, with a proportionate population, improving as rapidly as Reading. Improvements are going on everywhere. On nearly every street fine buildings are being erected. Some are not easily excelled in architectural beauty and substantial construction. At places where no buildings are going up the lot owners are enhancing the value of their property by laying fine pavements. No better investment can be made than the purchase of bricks for paving or building purposes.

"NEWS FROM THE NORTH-WEST."

SINKING SPRING, Sept. 22d, 1868.

EDITOR OF THE EAGLE:—The great Republican mass meeting and torchlight procession that was intended to be held at Sinking Spring last Saturday evening, turned out to be (as all sensible persons expected) a grand fizzle. It had been heralded through the Republican press of the county, and flaming handbills were posted in all prominent places, announcing it to be made the grand revival of the "Radical Demon," which was then in its death throes in that part of the country.

At the hour fixed upon the band arrived ready for work, and finding no person there jumped on their horses and rode to John Ruth's, the place fixed for the immense (supposed to be) gathering of the cavalcade; but on arriving there, they found no one but the Committee of Arrangements, and a fellow who was prevailed upon to act as Chief Marshal, being furnished with a horse as an inducement, with just thirteen baby faced boys, who were promised the possession of the torches if they would carry them that evening. Matters being arranged as best they could, and after a disturbance among the smooth-faced boys as to who should carry an American flag, which they stole from a Democrat about an hour before, the immense cavalcade of "bone and sinew loyalty," marched slowly up the street of the village. After parading about the place for an hour they halted in front of their quarters, when they were addressed by several "chips of the Radical block." This augmented the number of curious spectators to ten more, seven of whom were Democrats. All together it was one of the richest Radical blunders made this season. The speakers were so prominent that the Republican papers forgot to mention them. The meeting was at length adjourned, with one squeezed cheer given by the eloquent voice of "Eddy Mull," the grand head centre, after which they all got hugely drunk at the expense of H. S. Eckert, who would be "Honorable." No more. Yours, &c.

FOUND.—William Fisher, son of Peter D. Fisher, who wandered from his home in Lower Heidelburg, on the afternoon of August 24th last, was found last night, at the corner of Tenth and Penn streets, this city, by the city police, and placed in the lock-up. He will be sent home to his parents.

PHILA., Sept. 21, '68.

EDITOR DAILY EAGLE: The excitement in the 19th Ward, in reference to the outrage upon the child,—little Mary Morhmann, continues. The citizens of the Ward have formed themselves into a Vigilance Committee, and go about in pairs to search suspected localities. Of all the crimes mentioned in our criminal records, this is the crime which excites the most horror.

A part of the testimony before the Coroner's jury is so graphic, that it tells the sickening story stronger than any words of mine. Emma Springer, being sworn, said—"I saw a man with a child on his right arm. The child was crying and the man said—"Don't cry sissy; I am your uncle; I will give you five cents." And the child stopped crying." The poor little child,—a babe in years, unconscious of its fate hanging upon a fiend's arm going to death, and worse. Bah! The heart sickens, and we turn our eyes from the sight. The shrewdest judges of the affair believes that the wretch who did the deed must be lurking in the neighborhood.

Yesterday the church in Minster street, belonging to the "colored Brudders" was quite a scene of lively excitement. The sexton left the key in the window, and some of the Africans stole it, and it ended in the whole body of "Brudders" sexton, preacher, and the rest, being marched off to an Alderman's office, and in being placed under bonds not "to do dat agin."

There is much feeling manifested in reference to the wanton mutilation of the two beautiful flags flung to the breeze by Democrats. That the ruffianly Radicals did it with malice aforethought there is no doubt. The fact that they carried with them long hooks made for the purpose, gives evidence that it was done deliberately. The flags were gotten up by poor people—sums of 25 cents collected in courts to defray the cost—and this makes it more to be regretted. No one who knows the wretched material of which Radical mobs is composed, blames the hands who did it. Forney, and the other bad politicians, persuaded the human brutes to commit the outrage. They know that the Radical party is dead, and desperate men, when the vice of justice closes its jaws upon their guilty souls, do do desperate things, sometimes. Our leaders counsel the Democrats to be peaceful. We tear no flags. Some little pieces of paper in October and November will do the business for the Rads.

By the way, how painful it is to see the profound ignorance of the Radical masses in reference to well known facts! In vain have the Democrats exhibited the falsehoods Forney, Greeley & Co., relate in reference to Seymour's complicity in the draft, etc. How can any honest man hesitate between the brave, honest, Christian gentleman, Gov. Seymour, and that mass of crudities, Gen. Grant?

Gold sold here at 144½ on Saturday. The Radicals will give us specie currency with a vengeance! Gold is 15 per cent. higher than it was two years ago. If it keeps on going up in this way, in five years gold will be out of sight. Oh, yes! The Rads will give us gold and silver (in a horn.)

Our city is ablaze with Democratic torches and banners. The Rads howl, curse, and rub their shins. We will have honest men to rule over us.

I see that the Registration Board of Louisiana has forbidden any Democrat to sit with them. Well, just as we expected. Did you ever know a Radical to do a decent thing? Such has never been the good luck.

Yours truly, W.

THE ancients proclaimed that Mermaids, Nymphs, Naiads, and the Graces, had long flowing tresses which made them envied by their sisters of earth. But they arose out of the sea foam or bathed in fountains reached by no mortal hands, and kept their locks of dewy softness, dark and lustrous, and thus had no need of Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia, which is doing the same thing for thousands of people in our day. sept 18-1m

SAYRE'S PAIN CURE

A positive, permanent, and immediate Remedy for Neuralgia, Toothache, Earache, Headache, Rheumatism, Scalds, Burns, Frost Bites, and all acute pains.

To alleviate human suffering should constitute the highest aim of the true philosopher. What the march of science in our own day has already achieved, by directing the inhalation of chloroform and ether to allay the pains consequent upon difficult surgical operations, will accomplish by simple outward application.

Its effect is perfectly magical, and its properties are so entirely harmless as to be as applicable to the child of tender age as to the adult. Thousands of successful cases testify that this is no fiction, but a fact beyond all controversy, and a single application of the cure will convince the most skeptical sufferer of its truly miraculous power.

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD To Produce its Equal.

No family that once becomes acquainted with its virtues will be without it.

Price 50 Cts. Sold by all Druggists.

See what J. A. Dudley, says, of the firm of Dudley & Stafford, one of the largest wholesale drug establishments in this country:

No. 30 BEEKMAN ST., NEW YORK. January 8, 1868.

E. MISHLER & Co., Reading, Pa.—Dear Sirs:—It affords me pleasure to speak of the wonderful effects of your "Pain Cure," in my own case. In June last, I was attacked with Neuralgia in my abdomen and side. After suffering intensely for nearly two weeks, I was induced to try your remedy, and after an application, to my astonishment, I was relieved in a few seconds. So sudden was the relief that I could scarcely believe my own senses. From my knowledge of the preparation, I firmly believe that it will stop pain from nearly every cause and almost instantly.

Respectfully yours, J. A. DUDLEY, Of the firm of Dudley & Stafford, Wholesale Druggists. jan. 29-tf
