EDITORIAL NOTES.

Gen. Joe. Hawley, of the Hartford Courant, and of Congress, has a great weakness for his Sharpe's rifle. He is President. easily one of the dozen best shot in the country, and would rather be shooting at a mark down at Creedmoor than writing editorials or making speeches any sumption suggestions of the President, day.

making has grown to such an extent in lating to look a little into the financial the vicinity of Boston as actually to legislation of other countries, and its create a scarcity of tallow in that city effects. Here, for instance, is England. It was, at the outset doubted whether In 1797 that country suspended specie the artificial butter would find a place in our homes and on car tables. But appearance apparantly has proved that the butter factories can make tailow taste as near like butter as many fermers make butter taste like tallow.

Gov. Drx is 76 years old, and, as some who do not know him think, too old to make a lively run for the Presideney. Let such read the following paragraph from the Auburn (N. Y.) Advertiser of one day last week: more than fifty."

to the lawyers at least. The New York Times has been making a compilation of the cases growing out of it that will come before the courts. The result is as follows; "Tilton has brought an actio against Mr. Beecher to recover damages for the wrong alledged to have been done him; Mr. Beecher brings an action against Mr. Tilton Miss Edua Dean Proctor brings an action against Mr. Moulton; Mr. Bowen brings three actions against the Brooklyn Eagle; Mr. Moulton threatens an action against Mr. Beecher; Miss Proctor brings an action aginst the Daily Graphic; Mr. Tilton brings an action against the World and the Tribune; a grane jury has indicted Mr. Tilton and Mr. Moulton." There are some twelve suits in all in the above list, and the end is not yet.

Few York, October 5 .- An unprecedented calamity occurred yesterday. A drove of wild Texas streers, being driven through the streets, escaped from their drivers, scattered through the streets and avenues of the lower part of the city, and, maddened by the shouts of men and boys, invite. rushed blindly in every direction. Many persons were injured by them. Over forty casualties are reported. It is not known how many of the injured will die, but some are badly injured internally and others will be disfigured for life. The excitement was indescribable. Crowds were in th streets armed with pistols, clubs, swords, and knives, but all confused, not knowing what to do first. The police appeared to be as much demorlized as the citizens. The cattle dashed down the streets, into store windows, anywhere, to escape the excited crowds surrounding and following them. Pistols were fired recklessly and several pesons were injured by shots. Several steers escaped to the river, jumped overboard, and were drowned.

Parker's Landing, October 10 .- Yes terday afternoon another strike was made in the Buttler oil regions on what is known as the Parker Farm.

The well is called the Parker No. 2 and it was reported to be flowing at the rate of 2,009 barrles a day, although the latter statement is somewhat discredited. Latter information states that the well is now flowing about 500 per day.

Throughout the city fences and outfrom the trees, and during the hight of and tin stripped from roofs, making the streets impassable. The massive brick walls of the new theater which had just been completed with the exception of putting on the roof, and from its position in the burnt district was exposed to with the street.

THE MONEY AGAIN.

At the adjournment of congress last spring, when the currency question was left in an unsettled condition, and as everybody understood opened for consideration just so soon as congress should get together, there was a hope that the political events of the summer and fal would furnish such an expression of public opinion as to give that body something to work upon the coming

This hope has not been realized.

There has been an unreserved expression of public opinion, but it has been such a sadly mixed matter that it would puzzle the most astute politician to get anything out of it. There is no harmony of parties on the vital question, and in many instances the party resolutions have been the result of sectional wants, while in others the money part of the platform seems to have been caught at hap-hazard.

Congress will go at the currency again upon its reassembling in December with nothing more definite to work upon than it had before. The President will tenuciously adhere to his contraction theories, while congress with its inflation majority will endeavor to retain as much as possible of its own theories while constantly endeavoring to do something to meet the approval of the Whatever may be attempted it is certain that only disaster can result from any effort to enforce the speedy reand while such a thing is considered it OLEOMARGARINE. - Artifical butter may be well for those who do this legispayments. Six different times laws were passed to enforce a resumption. each time resulting disastrously, and nullified by the inability to make water run up hill. Notwithstanding the defeat of Napolson, France recuperated while England struggled in despondency for many years. As late as 1816 she again fixed the period of resumption, and within one month gold advanced twenty per cent., and that year the bankrupteies increased fifty-five per "When Gov. Dix began his address in eent. The wild disorder which soon teply to Mayor Ross's welcome at the prevailed, produced, according to hisdepot to-day, in his full, clear, round torians, "a state of suffering greater than voice, which could be heard distinctly | England had known since the Norman in every quarter of the spacious depot. conquest." A stay law was again hastwe overheard a gentleman remark to a lily rushed through Parliament, deferfriend: 'Why' I'd made up my mind ring action until July, 1818; whereupon that the Governor was a man sixty years business revived, 'and bankruptoies deof age or more, but I guess he isn't clined fifty per cent. Still the disasters had been such that there was a > egislate against the immutable laws of nature The Bullionists, however, carried through a compromise resolution, in 1819, providing for partial resumption ia May, 1820, and for entire resumption in May 1821. England again took the alarm, and the people paid the penalty. Again the time was extended, and it was not until 1821 that specie payment was finally and completely resumed. Then began that terrible revolution which carried misery everywhere, and which tended rapidly to reduce England to a state of barbarism. It was then that fortunes of a hundred thousand pounds could not find purchases at one-twentieth that sum; it was then those terrible bread riots commenced throughout the kingdom; that soldiers had to be stationed before every granery; that strong men, helpless women and innocent childern died of hunger and froze with cold. Then commenced that wide-spread disorder and universal suffering, such as this country certainly does not desire to

There is a lesson in history which may serve to guide the action of our congressmen even better than any expression of public opinion among our people. A most conspicious feature of that lesson is that specie resumption cannot be forced upon any country, and when the time for it comes there is little use in passing laws to prevent it. It is something better regulated by the law of trade, and refuses to be made subservient to statute law .- Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin.

There was a fearful gale in Charleston S. C., last Tuesday, beginning about daylight with a strong wind and increasing in violence until nine o'clock, when it became a hurricane. The tide was forced up to an unprecedented hight innudating the entire river front of the city, damaging wharves, and in some places sweeping away the pier heads.

PURGATIVE PILLS have become settled necessity with the American people. Indeed, catharties always have been and always must be used, in some form, by all mankind. In this country, the pilular form of administration has been growing in favor since pills were buildings were destroyed, branches torn first made of Aloes and Rhubarb rolled into a ball. Their high position in the the storm the air was filled with slate public confidence has finally been secured and fastened into permanency, by AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, the most skillful combination of medicine for the diseases they are intended to cure, that science can devise or art produce. Those who need pills, no longer hesitate the full force of the gale, were leveled what pills to take if they can get AYER'S PILLS.

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical Hair Dressing ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."
