FOR A BIG CELEBRATION.

The Various Societies Making Arrangements for the Fourth of July.

The meeting composed of delegates from various societies in the city, called by the Junior Order United American Mechanics to make arrangements for a fitting celebration of Fourth of July, was well attended. Seven societies whose names are given below sent delegates:

Patriotic Order Sons of America: W. H. Matthews, F. B. Hiller and Frank Smith; Germania Saengerrunde, Louis Bishop and Michael Nissen; Royal Arcanum, M. G. Beebe and George Hudson; Knights Pythias, G. B. Van Gorder, Augustus Kenback; Improved Order of Red Men, Frank Elmer, W. E. Matthews; Ancient Order of Hibernians, James Barrett, P. J. Huley; Junior Order of United Americans, W. H. Stephens and V. J. Finch.

The delegates readily came to an agreement in favor of the celebration and plans were mentioned and discussed. Among other things there will be some prominent speaker secured and W. M. Lathrope and Mr. Hiller were appointed a committee on securing a speaker.

Before the adjournment a resolution was passed that a circular be prepared asking the co-operation of all the societies. Copies of the circular will be sent to all societies, city officials and prominent persons. The meeting was adjourned until Tuesday, April 28.

RICHARD THOMAS BURIED.

The Remains Laid at Rest in Brookside Yesterday.

The funeral of Richard Thomas occurred yesterday from the home of his sister, Mrs. George W. Evans, Wayne street. After a short ceremony at the house, the remains were taken to Trinity church where services were held by Rev. E. J. Bailey. The many people who followed the remains to the church show the esteem by which he was held in this city. The floral offerings were also very numerous and beautiful. Among them was a lyre with the inscription "Our Brother," which was presented by the brother and two sisters of the deceased. A very pretty pillow from the Warwick club, of which Mr. Thomas was a member; a lyre from the Social club. Besides this there were many cut flowers and bouquets sent by friends of the deceased.

The pall-bearers were members of the Warwick club. They were: Samuel Farrell, Arthur Harlor, Evan Thomas, R. G. Wickwire, K. G. Wickwire and Thomas Lee. The remains were interred in Brookside cemetery.

HONESDALE COUPLE MARRIED

The Ceremony Performed by Rev. Charles Lee, Yesterday Afternoon.

A pretty wedding occurred yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Mahlfeldt, of Spring street, when Miss Carrie Schultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schultz, of Honesdale, and Augustus Doneke, of the same place, became man and wife. The ceremony took place at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. Charles Lee, of the First Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony which was witnessed only by the immediate relatives of the couple. Miss Barbara Schultz attended the bride and Albert Grambs, of Honesdale, performed the same office for the groom. The bride was attired in a dark green traveling dress.

A reception was tendered the young couple after the ceremony. They left on the 10.30 train for a wedding tour which include New York, Brooklyn and other places. On their return they will go to housekeeping in Honesdale.

AT ANTHRACITE PARK.

The Base Ball Season Will Open This Afternoon.

The Carbondale base ball team of '96 will make its first appearance in public this afternoon at Anthracite park. The game will probably be a good one, and the crowd large. Base ball cranks are quite enthused over our winning team. The game this afternoon will be between the Cuban Giants and the locals. The home team is in good condition and they will have no trouble in beating the Giants.

The teams will bat as follows:

Carbondale—McQuade, left field; McKean, second base; Patchen, center; Massey, first base; Luby, right field; Cargo, short stop; Sales, third base; Anderson, pitcher; Law, center field.

Cuban Giants—Patterson, left field; Sol White, second base; J. Taylor, center field; F. Grant, short stop; Cole or Williams, catcher; J. Trusty, third base; W. Jackson, right field; J. Trye, first base; J. Robinson, pitcher.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Thomas Gallagher Breaks Three Ribs by Falling on Street Car Tracks.

But few people realize the terrific momentum with which the human body is propelled over the ground when walking. Thomas Gallagher, of Brooklyn street, will realize it quite well now from an experience which he had while returning from work at the Erie mines.

Mr. Gallagher was walking quite rapidly when he caught his foot in one of the wires along the street car tracks. Mr. Gallagher went down with terrific force, striking on the rail and fracturing three ribs. The shock he received was also very great.

New Music Store.

Carbondale has at last a music store—something which has been needed for some time. The public will probably appreciate the new store more than if we had always possessed one. Faulkerson and Thomas is the name of the new firm. Both men are well known in the city, and their success is beyond a doubt.

PERSONAL AND OTHER ITEMS

Tuesday evening Miss Margaret Clarkson entertained the Fortnight club at her home on Washington street.

Mrs. William Leonard, of Lincoln avenue, entertained her Sunday school class of fourteen little girls Tuesday evening from seven to nine o'clock. Games were indulged in and refreshments served.

OLYPHANT.

At 6 o'clock last evening Miss Bridget McHale and Patrick Cowley, two popular young people of this place, were united in marriage at St. Patrick's church. The wedding march was played by Professor John Cousens as the bridal party moved toward the alter. At the sanctuary rail they were met by Rev. F. M. Smoulter, who performed the ceremony. The bride and her maid, Miss Mamie Lawler, were attired in gowns of cream silk with pearl trimmings. William McCann served as best man. The ushers were James Wheeler, Michael Walsh, William Gillespie and Martin Keenans. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Delaware street where a dainty supper was served. The presents were numerous and handsome, and included many valuable articles. Among those from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. John Riley, of Dunmore; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brown, of Lackawanna; Miss Lizzie Eagan, of Avoca; Robert Lynott, Misses Annie Lynott and Hosie, of Scranton; C. P. Peasderly and Miss Nellie O'Byrne, of Carbondale; Mr. and Mrs. Cowley will reside on Delaware street.

A pleasant social was given in the Club of '95's rooms Tuesday evening. Dancing was enjoyed to music by F. B. Ferguson, of this place. A pleasant time was had by all present.

"Uncle Hiram," was presented at the Father Mathew Opera house last evening before a fair sized audience.

Miss Bernetta McHale returned to Green Ridge yesterday after a visit with her parents at this place.

PECULIAR SENTENCE.

Mayor Nichols Returns to the Dark Ages for Methods of Punishment.

People chancing to be on Public Square yesterday afternoon were surprised to see a poorly dressed woman with a basket on her arm, marching along the sidewalks and bearing upon her back a big white card on which was printed in bold, black letters, "I am a shoe thief. Look out!"

As she passed along, crowds collected at the doorways, wondering what it meant, and when they learned that the woman was simply obeying the sentence imposed by the mayor, some laughed, while others pronounced it an outrage.

The woman is Mrs. Jones, a confirmed thief and has been before Mayor Nichols on the charge of stealing more than a dozen times. She has also served several terms in the county jail. She is an opium and laudanum fiend and all the money she can raise is spent to purchase these drugs. Yesterday she lifted a pair of men's shoes from a stand in front of Fahey's shoe store on East Market street and was caught in the act. She was taken to the mayor's office and was permitted to choose between a term in jail and wearing the sign, and she took the latter. A big policeman walked in the rear while she carried out the sentence.

PRETTY WEDDING.

James Kelly and Miss Kate McDonough Married at St. Mary's.

In St. Mary's church at 7.30 this morning, James Kelly and Miss Katie McDonough were married by Rev. R. A. McAndrews. The bride wore a traveling suit of brown and green cloth, with brown trimmings and with hat to match. She carried a beautiful bouquet of bride roses. She was attended by Miss Kate O'Malley, of Pittston, who wore a suit of brown cloth and hat to match. The groomsman was Frank Kelly, a brother of the groom. The music was by Professor Pruscorius.

The bride lived at the home of Sheriff O'Malley and for that reason was known as Katie O'Malley.

The Mileage Books.

The Lehigh Valley company has placed on sale another new form of mileage books. The latest form, which is a decided improvement, is in one continuous sheet of 1,000 miles and is folded up in a blue cover similar to the old style book used. The conductors can very easily tear off the required number of miles without the use of any patent arrangement as is now the case. Taken altogether the new book is a decided improvement over the one now in use.

Burst a Blood Vessel.

Mrs. William Clapreth, of Ridge street, Ashley, who with Mrs. Galusha Peck, of the same place, left home yesterday to attend the convention of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society in Wilkes-Barre, ruptured an artery in her foot while alighting from an electric car on South Washington street. Dr. Wagner, of this city, and Dr. James, of Ashley, attended the injured lady and she was removed to her home.

The Murderers Captured.

John and Andrew Berchisko, charged with the murder of John Nies, at Plymouth, were captured Tuesday at Chatcolite, New York, and by Constable O'Keefe and Michael Cusma. They were taken to the Plymouth lockup, where they remained Tuesday night, and Wednesday morning were lodged in the county jail.

Gas Out of Woodward Mine.

The gas was driven out of the Woodward mine yesterday. Tonight the men fighting the fire have made rapid progress, and the flames will be quelled before midnight. The four other injured men will recover.

Driver Boy Killed.

Adam Mullick, a driver boy at the Nottingham mine, in Plymouth, was killed yesterday. He was run over by a number of coal cars and horribly mangled. He was 15 years of age.

NOTES.

Professor Siegel will give a class social at Loomis hall on Friday evening, April 17. All old and new pupils and former patrons with their friends are invited.

Elizabeth Gratz French, the little 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. French, of West River street, while riding her tricycle yesterday fell and broke her collar bone.

The new gondolas now being received by the Central Railroad of New Jersey are painted black, instead of brown as formerly. The lettering is of white and on each gondola is the usual red and white circular badge of the company.

MONTROSE.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Baptist church will hold their regular meeting and supper at the church dining-rooms Wednesday afternoon and evening, April 22, instead of at the residence of Mrs. Bullock as stated in last week's news. Your correspondent was misinformed regarding the place of meeting.

Miss Louise Mace, of Dockville, spent a few days this week visiting friends here.

The residence of Professor W. N. Manchester is undergoing repairs. Mr. Manchester will have a very pretty residence when completed.

Colonel Ezra H. Ripple will deliver his noted lecture Friday evening, April 17, beginning at 8 o'clock. Colonel Ripple should be greeted by a large audience. Admission, adults 25 cents; children, 15 cents.

Keystone Academy opened again Monday after one week's vacation.

Mrs. M. N. Reynolds, who has been quite seriously ill, is reported to be very much better.

Miss Carrie Hall is spending a few days with her brother, Frank, at Glenburn.

Mrs. Martha Foley, of Dunmore, spent Sunday with relatives at this place.

Miss Charles Knapp has returned from a week's visit with friends at New York city.

Daniel Langstaff and wife spent Wednesday in town. Mr. Langstaff will soon return to his summer home here, where he will spend the heated term.

HONESDALE.

The Fowler brothers have purchased a plot of land near the up-town Gravity depot, adjoining the Glass Cutting factory of Gibbs, Kelley & Steinman, and will soon erect a grist mill.

Mrs. L. O. Rose and daughter, Miss Vinnie, left for New York yesterday.

Very handsome fittings are being placed in the new National bank building.

The Babb & Bennett company are playing here this week. The music furnished by the band and orchestra is exceptionally fine.

AVOCA.

At St. Mary's church yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Miss Rose Gilbride and Frank Beamish were united in marriage by Rev. M. F. Crane in the presence of a large number of friends. Miss Lizzie Murphy played the wedding march. The bride and her maid, Miss Katie Gilbride, of Pittston, were handsomely attired in cream silk and carried bouquets. The groom's attendant was James Gilbride, a brother of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Beamish will begin housekeeping in a neatly furnished home.

Miss Bessie Webber has accepted a position as teacher in the Marcy public schools.

Misses Vina Gibbons, Lizzie Dilch and Professor Hoban attended the leap year dance at Pittston last evening.

Joe Fretsick, an Italian, was struck and instantly killed by engine 611 at the Lehigh Valley and Delaware and Hudson crossing on Monday evening. The remains were removed to Undertaker O'Malley's office, and prepared for burial. Since no one came to claim the remains, they were taken to Ransom poor farm for interment. Squire Reap impanelled the following jurors: W. J. McDonald, Thomas Harding, John Lyons, W. B. Curran, Lawrence Merahan and Andrew O'Brien. They will meet on Thursday evening and render a decision.

Rev. W. P. O'Donnell, of Providence, delivered an eloquent sermon in St. Mary's church on Monday evening.
