BROWN IN GREAT FORM.

He Held the Springfield Club Down to Four Hits---Milligan and McElroy Were Very Wild.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Springfield, July 12.—Seven errors and the phenomenal pitching of Brown won for Springfield most emphatic defeat here yesterday afternoon. The audience was disguised with the exhibition of the home club and took no pains to conceal the defeat.

Bowerman, of Baltimore, went behind the bat for Scranton for the first time and received Brown in excellent style Meaney rejoined the Scrantons in New York and covered centerfield. Milligan was wild and erratic in his delivery and McElroy, who succeeded him, could scarcely be considered an improvement upon him. Detail score:

SUNDAY GAMES.

Wilkes-Barre Was Defeated by Providence at Rocky Point.

Providence, July 12.—The game between the Providence and Wilkes-Barre clubs today at Rocky Point was a ten-inning struggle won by the home team. It was a slugging game and at times very exciting. The visitors merited victory, for they played with more dash and vim than the home team and they would have won but for Coakley's inability to control the ball. Attendance, 2,000. Score:

END OF THE STATE LEAGUE.

Pennsylvania Apparently Cannot Sustain an Eight-Club League.

The State League has had its usual eperience. The organization began its existence this year with good prospects, only to meet a premature death before the schedule was played out. Apparently Pennsylvania cannot afford an eight-club league of its own. They all go to the wall sooner or later, lack of patronage being the reason.

This year the league was conducted on the best of lines, and the stumbling block was in the fact that two of the teams were so much stronger than the others so that the heart was taken out of the fans in the majority of the cities. The reason for this is apparent. In no two seasons is the organization made up the same, and the managers have to take big chances on signing players. Before they can get their team working well the race is under way and some one, usually the teams which have been together more than a season, have profited by their weakness. Then the home crowds drop off until the owners find they are losing money too fast., and one after another the clubs drop out, until disbandment is the only course left.

With the Athletic and Lancaster teams in the Atlantic league interest should not only be revived in these two cities but their advent should have a stimulating effect on the six clubs which have been battling among themselves all season for the pennant of the organization. Philadelphia has shown that she will take kindly to a club in a minor league, provided good ball is played, for the Athletics have lost nothing by their season here. The club, however, suffered during the past month by the drop of the Phillies, and it must be remembered, besides, that the cranks have to be educated to minor league ball.—Philadelphia Press.

POLITICS IN PULPIT.

B. Fay Mills Creates a Sensation at a Christian Endeavor Meeting by a Reference to McKinley.

Washington, July 12.—A list of thirty meetings aranged to be held in the tents and churches this afternoon offered varying attractions to the four thousand Christian Endeavor delegates in attendance here upon the fifteenth international convention. These were mostly denominational rallies and they drew crowds according to the numerical strength of each particular denomination. The Baptists, Presbyterians and Congregationalists occupied the three tents on the white lot. Speeches were made at these rallies by prominent members of the several denominations.

Following these rallies Evangelist B. Fay Mills, of Fort Edward, New York, addressed a large audience of citizens in tent Washington. He created a mild sensation in the middle of his sermon by a pointed reference to candidate McKinley.

Speaking of the extension of the principles of socialism as set forth in the sermon on the Mount, he showed the need in the present time of Christian leaders in American politics. "Our candidates for public office, from president down to constable should be guided," said Mr. Mills, "by the spirit of the lamb that was slain. They do pretend to be or they would not get our votes. If they came forward honestly and made known their motives for running for office, we would not support them.

"Suppose McKinley should step up before you and say: 'Fellow citizens I wish to be your president so that I can pay my debts,' (sensation), or suppose Bryan should say: 'I will be your president for my own good.' Why, we would not chose either of them to take care of stray dogs. What they say is: 'Fellow citizens, I am ready to be sacrificed upon the cross of public duty. I am ready to be president or constable as my country calls me.' That is Christian. That is the spirit of the lamb that was slain. It is a pity that it is not always said in sincerity."

A Sabbath observance meeting was held also in Central Hall, Mr. William Shay, of Boston, presiding. Speeches were made by Wilbur F. Crafts, of Washington; Mrs. Henry T. McEwen, of New York, and others.

Tonight at seven o'clock Christian Endeavor meetings were held in all the churches of the city.

Tomorrow is the closing day of the convention, Tuesday being given up entirely to sight seeing. The trusteees have their final session in the morning. In tents Williston and Endeavor, two meetings of the world's union of Christian Endeavor will be held at 9.30 o'clock at which delegates from England, Persia, India, Africa, Germany, China and Aremnia will speak. Tent Washington, at he same houtr, will be the scene of a demonstration on behalf of the suffering Armenians. Tuesday the convention will assemble informally at the tomb of Washington for a service of song and praise.

TRADE WITH ARGENTINA.

People There Are Glad That American Manufacturers Are Coming.

Panama, July 4.—The Star and Herald, under a Buenos Ayres date, says: "Much interest is shown in the cable received by Minister Buchanan announcing the coming of fifteen members of the American Manufacturing association. The Nacion and Prensa think the visit will be productive of good and will enable representative men to see the resources of this country, although a possible adoption of restrictive measures in case of the election of McKinley is viewed askance in mercantile circles, as it would hamper the trade relations between the two countries."
