SOUTH PAW BROWN.

His Curves Mystified the Grays and He Was Supported in Errorless Style.

The detailed score is a very correct story of yesterday's game. The Grays made costly errors, and Hodson's bases on balls were costly also, but, leaving those features out of the question, Scranton was an easy winner. Brown gave four bases on balls and hit a batsman in the first two innings with the result that the Grays obtained two unearned runs, but during the remainder of the game the erratic man with bushels of speed and the south side curves had the Grays guessing. After the second inning the average number of men to face him in an inning was four. From the beginning the support given him was of the star order and when it was all over Scranton had played an errorless game. Only a few hundred persons saw the contest.

Meaney, O'Brien, Massey and Moss for Scranton, and Canavan for the Grays surpassed in field work, while nearly every Scrantonian by his hitting contributed toward the run-getting. Griffin had a homer, a double and two singles and Moss two three-basers. Eagan was not well enough to play and his position was occupied by Hickey, who did not have even a little chance to distinguish himself.

GRAYS TALLY FIRST.

Scranton was first at bat, but the Grays drew first blood in the last of the first inning on two walks, an outfield fly, another walk and a force hit. Scranton tied it in the second on Knight's fumble of Massey's single and Murray's muff. In the last half the Grays made another and again took the lead on a single, a walk, a hit by pitcher, a force hit, which stopped a runner at the plate, and a fly to Moss at short center from where he was unable to recover in time to get the ball to the pan. Score, 1-2.

Two bases on balls and Moss' triple to left-center netted two in the fourth, and two more came in the fifth on Griffin's homer to left, Canavan's fumble of Meaney's hot grounder, Meaney's stolen base and Coogan's wild throw to first to catch Hickey who had reached there on a base on balls. Score, 5-2.

But the real thing was in the sixth when Maguire walked, Friel fumbled one, Berger walked, Brown singled, Griffin hit for two bases, Meaney and Hickey went out, O'Brien singled and Massey made a double before Maguire struck out. When it was all over six runs were in. Score, 11-2.

LANDED ON HODDY.

Four earned ones were obtained in the seventh on Moss' triple and Berger's single, before Brown flew out, Griffin's single and two-basers by Meaney and Hickey. Providence got one in the last half on a base on balls and Hodson's double to right center. Score 15-3.

Only three batsmen faced Hoddy in each of the two final innings, but the Grays got an unearned one just before the game ended, and with one out, on a brace of singles, a wild pitch and a life when the bases were full. The next two up were easy outs at first.

DOWN GO THE ALLIGATORS.

Bunched Hits by Springfield Enable Them to Win at Wilkes-Barre.

Wilkes-Barre, Sept. 10.—Springfield took another game from Wilkes-Barre today. According to the detailed score the home team had more hits than the visitors but they were scattered. The Ponies were very fortunate in their hitting and by bunching their hits in the first, second and fifth innings were able to bunch their runs. The errors made by the Springfields were not very costly, while those made by the Coal Barons meant runs every time. The feature of the game was Harley's brilliant fielding. He had ten chances and accepted every one of them. Lezotte, the right fielder of the Wilkes-Barre club, was released today to Pittsburg's National league team. He leads the Eastern league in batting and has a field percentage of 950. The price paid for him was $800. Score:

Rochester-Syracuse.

Baltimore-Brooklyn.

Baltimore, Sept. 10.—The champions pounded Payne out of the box in the sixth inning. Stein could not stop the cannonading and he was very indifferently supported. Donnelly's all around work and Griffith's two catches were gilt-edged. Attendance 1,852. Score: R.H.E.

Cleveland-St. Louis.

Cleveland, Sept. 10.—Inability to bunch hits on Wallace lost St. Louis today's game with Cleveland. The game was slow and tedious, being devoid of features outside of Parrott's long drive for three bases and sensational catches by McAleer and Burkett. Attendance 1,200. Score: R.H.E.

New York-Boston.

New York, Sept. 10.—The New Yorks easily disposed of the Bostons again today. They hit Nichols almost at will and scored until the game was a farce. Meekin was invincible with men on bases and received magnificent support, the locals playing without an error. Weather clear and warm. Score: R.H.E.

Pittsburg-Chicago.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 10.—Pittsburg suffered a shut-out at the hands of Chicago today, the local players being unable to hit Friend's delivery. The work of Everett in left and Lange in center was a feature of the game, the former also doing some magnificent base running. Some fault was found with Sheridan's umpiring, but Pittsburg was clearly outplayed at all points. Attendance 1,500. Score: R.H.E.

Washington-Philadelphia.

Washington, Sept. 10.—Lush's fielding was the feature of today's game. He caught Cross at the plate on a marvelous throw after capturing Cooley's fly on a run. He also made a great catch of Lajoies' foul in the second. Delehanty was put out of the game in the last half of the Washington's seventh. He questioned Lynch's decisions in his characteristic manner. Geier took his place. Attendance 2,300. Score: R.H.E.

DIAMOND DUST.

Providence again today.

Springfield tomorrow, Monday and Tuesday.

Eagan will probably be in the game today.

Curry gave the Grays the benefit of all doubtful base decisions.

Gillon and Gunson will be in the points today. Ruderham will twirl for the Grays.

Scranton has now won eight and Providence six of the fourteen games between them.

Massey was a little livelier and consequently a little better in his field work yesterday.

If the Grays lose today it will be three straight. What will they do to Wilkes-Barre in such an event? There will be gnashing of teeth in the Wilkes-Barre directors' box, we guess.

Griffin's home run was a questionable one. It was a hard line drive to left and Knight appeared to miss the bound while on the run and stooping for it. The rule "in case of doubt" was applied in this case.

Hickey has played two consecutive games in left field without a chance. That comes pretty near being a record breaker for this season in that position in the Eastern league, though two consecutive games without a chance occasionally happens to center and right gardeners.

Brown was "kidding" Murray from the bench on Wednesday. Murray hadn't made a hit and said, with a tinge of soreness, "Wait until we go up against that south wing of yours tomorrow; we won't do a thing to it." Murray spoke the truth. The Grays made but six hits off Brown and Murray failed to get a slice of it.

Raynsford sizes up Jack Chapman pretty well and no mistake when he expresses himself in the Scranton Tribune: "'Jack' Chapman is quoted in the New York Sun as saying that Lezotte and Betts are fast enough for the big league. They are if 'Jack' can get a finger in a deal to draft or buy them, and if he doesn't lose anything by it. Foxey old 'Jack.'"—Wilkes-Barre Record.

The license allowed the tough element at the Wilkes-Barre ball games is of the kind that is calculated to bring base ball to the level of a tenth-rate slugging match that is witnessed by "gents" in a barn or stump lot in some secluded spot far from the haunts of civilized humanity.—Scranton Tribune. Where did The Tribune man get his intimate knowledge of the "gents" who witness tenth-rate slugging matches far from the haunts of humanity?—Wilkes-Barre Evening Leader. Why, we have been actually forced by our superiors to witness those shocking scraps in order that the dear public may know just how horrid the world is. And it occurs to us that at one of those affairs about two years ago a young man identified with the Leader held the blood bucket for one of the "gents."

Killed Twenty Straight at the Pigeon Shooting Match--Other Good Scores Made by Local Marksmen.

Four splendid scores were made at yesterday's pigeon shooting match at the Driving Park. F. W. Cooper, of Treverton, N. J., killed twenty straight; nineteen birds each was the score of Harry D. Swartz and A. W. Jurisch, of this city, and James Twiss of Priceburg. Coopers prize was $50 in cash and a silver trophy. The second prize, $25 was divided.

William Anneman, of Dunmore, was referee and F. W. Mason, of Scranton, scorer. The shooting began about 10.30 o'clock and continued until nearly 7 o'clock last evening. There were thirty-two entries. The conditions were four rounds of five birds each, 21 yards rise, 80 yards boundary, one and one-fourth ounce shot.

Swartz missed his nineteenth bird, Jurisch his sixteenth and Twiss his eleventh. All the ties were divided excepting the fourth won by Machimer; the fifth, won by Matter; the sixth, won by T. D. Nesbitt.

TRACK AND SULKY.

Connor now is at 2.11½ and has proved one of the best performers of the converted variety.

Bessie Wilton, 2.09¾, has a bowed tendon and it is doubtful as to her racing again this season.

Charlie Thompson gave his first horse a 2.10 mark when he won with Thomas Edison at Hedrick in 2.08¾.

Andy Welch's fast trotter Ride, 2.11¾, had a quarter-crack which incapacitates him from further racing for awhile.

Hoover, 2.27½, a new one by Allerton, is from the dam of Elloree, 2.11½. He is said to be a good prospect for a 2.20 mark.

Belle Wells, 2.17½, is a great card for her sire, Pactolus. She took her record in a three-minute class at Hedrick last week.

Fantasy, 2.06, seems to be queen of the free-for-alls, but it looks as if Onoqua and Benzetta were getting an equal division of the purses, the way the summaries read each week.

W. W. P. lowered the wagon record to 2.08 at the Minnesota state fair and Marion Mills, the "guileless wonder," paced in 2.10¾, going the first half mile in 1.05 and home in 1.05½.

Preston, which was second to Mary Beaufort, in the Horse Review stake, showed himself to be a trotter yesterday at Fleetwood, taking a good field into camp in 2.23½, 2.21¼.

Alpha, pacing record, 2.18¾, by Allie Wilkes, was sold in the 1895 sale at Cleveland for $50. She was so poorly gaited George Ketcham, who bred her, considered she was well sold.

Ed Geers was called into the stand after Robert J.'s great race at Boston, and introduced to the Bostonese. He escaped in a few moments, leaving his employer to acknowledge the compliment paid the champion pacer and his wonderfully successful trainer. Ed never cared much for such publicity.

Mattie H won the European trotting championship at Vienna recently, defeating Eddie Hays, Autrain, Maggie Sherman and Honeywood. The time was 2.18, 2.17 4-5, 2.15 7-10, 2.17 9-10. Maggie Sherman won the third heat which was the fastest ever trotted in a championship race in Europe.

There is a new hopple on hand styled the "anti-hitching hopple," which does not pinion the front legs, thus differing materially from the other varieties. It should prove an improvement, inasmuch as there is less liability to trip. A smart horse can fool them all unless they make him stand on his head. The public is tired of hoppled horse racing

THE GREAT FIRE SALE

—AT—

THE LEADER

124 AND 126 WYOMING AVE.,

IS NOW PROGRESSING.

The crowd was so dense that our doors were only opened five times throughout the whole day, and there were thousands and thousands of customers in the store being waited on and thousands of customers who could not get inside the store. We had engaged fifty extra salespeople, thinking that would be sufficient, but during the day we engaged fifty more, so we are in hopes that the crowds who will surely attend this Fire Sale will receive more prompt attention.
