FOREST CITY.

Borough Attorney James McKinney has succeeded in obtaining a rule on the commissioners of Susquehanna county, returnable next Monday, to show cause why a survey should not be made at this place for the purpose of fixing the line between Wayne and Susquehanna counties. The same action will be taken in Wayne county at the May term of court. If the survey is made there will then be a good chance of getting a county bridge here. It is said that the Susquehanna county commissioners have expressed themselves in favor of a county bridge at Forest City, with an agreement that Wayne and Susquehanna each pay one-half the expense. If this arrangement could be made it would make a survey unnecessary and greatly facilitate the matter. Those who know, or ought to, say that there is no doubt but that the bridge would be partly in each county.

The next institute of Susquehanna county teachers will be held in Montrose, during the week beginning Monday, Oct. 17.

Martin J. Prentiss, of Pleasant Mount, Wayne county, was a visitor in the borough on Wednesday.

On May 3 and 4 the annual county Sunday school convention will be held in the Methodist church at Susquehanna.

Mrs. J. H. Weston and children are visiting at the home of Dr. William R. Blakeslee, on Delaware street. Mrs. Weston is the wife of Rev. J. H. Weston, who was pastor of the Methodist church here in 1889-90.

The annual Christian Endeavor convention of the Jefferson Branch union will be held at the Welsh church, in Clifford township, this county, on Wednesday, June 1.

A special meeting of Enterprise Hose company will be held at the hose rooms tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, and all members are requested to be present.

The newly-installed officers of Clifford lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, are as follows: Noble grand, Glynn Morgan; vice-grand, Henry Carr; R. S. N. G., C. H. Berry; L. S. N. G., David J. Jones; R. S. V. G., Albert J. Lowry; L. S. V. G., Jack Alexander; right senior supporter, Monroe Westgate; left senior supporter, Arthur Treverton; conductor, William Jones; warden, Charles Damm; chaplain, John Armstrong; secretary, Henry Box; assistant secretary, Harry Hogarth.

Rev. J. C. Hogan will preach in the Academy of Music, at Norwich, N. Y., on "Sins and Shams that Pass in the Churches," Sunday next, at 3 p. m. Rev. Mr. Hogan left for Norwich on Wednesday.

A ball will be held this evening by the Black Watch foot ball team, of Vandling, in McCloskey's hall.

A cottage prayer meeting will be held at the Methodist parsonage, Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. There will be no preaching services in the church, on account of the pastor being absent at conference.

A ten cent supper will be served and an apron sale take place under the auspices of the Ladies' guild of Christ Episcopal church, on Thursday evening next, in the church basement.

F. E. Reed has moved to Carbondale where he will engage in business.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, April 14.—There was professional buying of stocks today which gave the market a firm tone all day. The extreme advance from the low level at the opening was a point or over in most of the leading stocks but the net gains are less than a point except in a few cases. The professional buying was more or less influenced by the very ostentatious espousal of the bull side by a large and daring operator, in published utterances and by distribution of buying orders. A large part of the day's activity was centered in sugar, the Grangers and Union Pacific preferred. Prices fell from the highest on the report that the Spanish minister was preparing to leave Washington. Tobacco fluctuated violently and advanced at one time nine points. Total sales were 255,100 shares.
